a very early age that he was different in some unacceptable way he was very distressed to find out from the high school library that he was gay There was no one to turn to for help or information He thought the only other gay person on earth was Andre Gide the great French writer but he was too far away to visit Feeling alone but not lonely he went on to college and medical school and after that did psychiatric training and opened an office in New York City Gradually he made peace with being gay and began a search for love which led to many adventures disasters happiness and heartbreak After inheriting the family business he was torn between it and his medical practice He developed alcoholism the family disease and was also troubled by recurrent depressions Beginning his recovery from alcoholism in 1977 he has been able to construct a generally
