Long Ride Home:

Long Ride Home Louis L'Amour, 1998-03-02 RIDE ALONG INTO DANGER Traveling under an alias the last thing gunman Clip Haynes wanted was attention But Basin City needed a town taming marshal and a cold blooded murderer was hiding behind Haynes s real name Now Haynes was coming out of hiding to protect his honor save a town and catch a killer even if it cost him his life Lou Morgan was as tough as they came But it wasn t just the money or the challenge that motivated him to take on a suicide job involving a buried Spanish treasure and two greedy killers It was love for a beautiful se orita who had left him for dead years ago It s not easy being the new schoolma am in town especially when you re a man But Van Brady isn t quite the tenderfoot he seems and before he s through he ll teach a few hard cases a lesson they ll never forget From the rough and tumble streets of San Francisco to the dry desert plains of Texas from a roughshod gambler willing to wager his own life on a single bet to a killer with a heart here are stirring tales of the Old West as only Louis L Amour can write them tales of men and women risking their lives fighting their wars and standing tall on the American frontier Long Ride Home W. Michael Gear, 1988 A novel of defiance and raw emotion the vivid portrait of a man locked in violent struggle with himsel and the lawless frontier Earl Murray author of South of Eden The Matejkas Nancy Mathews, Slava Matejka Mowll, 2008-03 Jerry and Elizabeth Matejka met on a boat traveling from Bohemia now known as the Czech Republic to Baltimore Maryland in 1907 To pursue their dreams in America Jerry and Elizabeth traveled halfway around the world and joined the ranks of the idealistic hardworking immigrants flocking to the United States in the early twentieth century Strangers at the beginning of the voyage the two young lovers were inseparable upon arrival in America and they married soon after their boat docked in the Maryland harbor The Matejkas is the remarkable true story of these two determined pioneers and their life together as they started a business and raised a family in their new homeland Told from the loving perspective of their daughter Slava Matejka Mowll The Matejkas is a compelling family biography brought alive by vivid narrative and the imagery of beautifully preserved family photographs From the Matejkas early days in Baltimore to the intense drama of the Second World War the author s memoir is a fascinating view of the life experiences of first generation Americans An unforgettable true saga The Matejkas is a story of persistence and triumph told against the backdrop of one of the most important eras in American history The Last Seasons Douglas B. Egenolf, 2008-11 This is a book about the joy of taking a long walk in the woods The joy of being blessed with the company of a fine canine companion The challenge and thrill of hunting the elusive ruffed grouse It is about a chance at living life the best you can with whatever you are given It is also about chasing after your dreams If you combined hope with a dream you will always get up and tackle another day no matter what life throws at you to try to bring you down Douglas B Egenolf was born and raised just south of Indianapolis Indiana and is the youngest of seven children He has traveled the United States through his work and for pleasure He is a lifetime member of the National Rifle Association and a current member of the Ruffed Grouse Society He still calls Indiana

his home where he resides with his wife and two children Hadi's Journey Jennifer Reed,2003-10 Taken away from all he knows Hadi is faced with decisions that no boy should ever have to make Just nine years old Hadi journeys to a strange land to work in a camel souk He quickly learns that his life is no longer what it used to be Hot and dirty conditions a strict master and desperately missing his family make life unbearable Yet as he works with the camels he soon learns that many young boys become camel jockeys and enter races Can Hadi become a famous jockey Can he earn enough money to escape the souk and return home Although slavery seems to be a thing of the past to most Americans it is alive and well in other parts of the world Child slavery is a problem Hadi s Journey brings one such problem to light and exposes the truth about child camel jockeys in the Middle East The Wild of God Eric Hanson,2013-01-09 Eric Hanson claimed to follow the most remarkable person in history yet his life was as exciting as sugarless gum Confronted with a disparity between a promise of abundant life and what he saw in life surrounding him he left everything behind for a year to travel around the globe through the worlds poorest countries Refugees hermits prostitutes mobs secret police monks and a motorcycle gang A dangerous journey introduces us to a fresh side of faith God and a fulfilling life My eyes were opening to whole new levels of pain and poverty darkness and despair I saw new and altogether beautiful things become real to me The Bible is full of Gods promises of healing and restoration but those words always seemed plastic and hollow to me For the first time in my life I began to see God move and heal to truly touch people in the midst of unbearable pain And in that Gods message of restoration suddenly took on a significant real life meaning to me As I watched Joses transformation my heart was ripped from my chest and squeezed until my muted soul could hear God whispering that this real change real love not contrite phrases in an old book was the heart of God for His people Eric has written a powerful endearing account of his adventures around the world But this isnt a book that will leave you feeling helpless It will give you faith in your own story and hope for living a more meaningful one Jeff Goins author Wrecked When a Broken World Slams into Your Comfortable Life Bitter Fruit Maureen Honey,1999 Despite the participation of African American women in all aspects of home front activity during World War II advertisements recruitment posters and newsreels portrayed largely white women as army nurses defense plant workers concerned mothers and steadfast wives This sea of white faces left for posterity images such as Rosie the Riveter obscuring the contributions that African American women made to the war effort In Bitter Fruit Maureen Honey corrects this distorted picture of women s roles in World War II by collecting photos essays fiction and poetry by and about black women from the four leading African American periodicals of the war period Negro Digest The Crisis Opportunity and Negro Story Mostly appearing for the first time since their original publication the materials in Bitter Fruit feature black women operating technical machinery working in army uniforms entertaining audiences and pursuing a college education The articles praise the women s accomplishments as pioneers working toward racial equality the fiction and poetry depict female characters in roles other than domestic servants and give voice to the bitterness arising from discrimination that many women felt With these various images Honey masterfully presents the roots of the postwar civil rights movement and the leading roles black women played in it. Containing works from eighty writers, this anthology includes forty African American women authors, most of whose work has not been published since the war. Of particular note are poems and short stories anthologized for the first time, including Ann Petry's first story, Octavia Wynbush's last work of fiction, and three poems by Harlem Renaissance writer Georgia Douglas Johnson. Uniting these various writers was their desire to write in the midst of a worldwide military conflict with dramatic potential for ending segregation and opening doors for women at home. Traditional anthologies of African American literature jump from the Harlem Renaissance to the 1960s with little or no reference to the decades between those periods. Bitter Fruit not only illuminates the literature of these decades but also presents an image of black women as community activists that undercuts gender stereotypes of the era. As Honey concludes in her introduction, African American women found an empowered voice during the war, one that anticipates the fruit of their wartime effort to break silence, to challenge limits, and to change forever the terms of their lives.

Bikers Dave Ebert, 2011-02-02 KROM Brian Doyle, 2025-04-11 In ancient times warriors followed a code of honor which granted them a place in Valhalla upon their death if they remained true to it. However, before this code existed, many fought without honor. Then a man named Krom was born, known for his honor, dignity, and true warrior spirit. His destiny was to bring forth the rise of Valhalla, creating the code of honor and ensuring that every warrior who followed him would have a place to be remembered and honored.

Unconditional Uncensored Marybeth Sheridan, 2010-11-03 An unflinching personal memoir of a mother's journey as she discovers her spirituality and strength while watching her child endure a devastating disease called Epidermolysis Bullosa. Her journey takes her through the twists and turns of the medical world, told with a raw frankness and candor. The love is unconditional, and the stories are uncensored.

Tales of Variadero Albert Quintana, 2025-04-27 Variadero, My Ancestral Homeland. Do you remember those days when your parents loaded up the car to go on vacation to a very special place? May it be to where Mom or Dad were from, or a camp out to the mountains. The anticipation was great, where the excitement would take place. Variadero was that very special place where one's imagination runs wild. As a child, I would mark the days on a calendar before we'd go on this dream vacation. Tales of Variadero: My Childhood Memories holds a foundation to share with the future generations of this beautiful village. Variadero could be anywhere in the United States. It symbolizes life, history, and memories which run rampant. Variadero, My Childhood Memories.

The Hunt Andrew C. Watzek, 2011-08 When Adam Mac McCulough loses his wife Abby in 1876, he is left to bring up his four young daughters: Sara, Becky, Julie, and Angela. Mac, a rancher and the sheriff of nearby Elkhorn, calls on his longtime friend Ezra Hawks, a half-White Mountain Apache, to help him on his ranch and to raise his girls. Together, the men teach the daughters to shoot, hunt, fish, track, and survive in the wild. Life rolls along for this unusual family, but an incident from Mac's past comes back to haunt him. Before settling down with Abby, he worked as an Arizona Ranger and played a key role in the capture and conviction of a group of men who beat and raped a family in Prescott The men now released from jail track down Mac and exact their revenge Sara Becky Julie and Angela are determined not to let the men get away with the murder of their father They strike out on their own to hunt down the killers but their quest for vengeance may come with a high price Profile, 1997 Kramer Williamson, Sprint Car Legend Chad Wayne Culver, 2017-08-11 Sprint Car Hall of Famer Kramer Williamson began his 45 year professional career as a grassroots racer from Pennsylvania and became one of the most successful and beloved professional drivers of all time Drawing on interviews with those who knew him best this first ever biography of Williamson covers his life and career as a driver and sprint car builder from his humble beginnings racing the legendary 73 Pink Panther car in 1968 to his fatal crash during qualifying rounds at Lincoln Speedway in 2013 Fulfilling His Dream Alison Holley, 2021-09-16 In Fulfilling His Dream Alexandra alongside her aunt Jean set out on multiple adventures to complete her biological father's dream his bucket list Fred was unable to complete the list before his passing Can Alexandra and Aunt Jean overcome their own fears to tackle Fred's bucket list items Share in their journey through laughs and tears as Alexandra learns more about her biological father and bonds with her aunt Jean My High Adventures Behind the Movie Scenes Rene Veluzat, 2021-02-09 I started in the movie business when I was ten years old and got my Screen Actors Guild card in 1950 I was an actor model stuntman teamster driver with Local 399 construction coordinator and producer My ultimate accomplishment was winning a Telly Award for producing the feature movie The Long Ride Home Highways D.
