The Life and Times of John Trevisa, Medieval Scholar David C. Fowler, 2016-06-01 John Trevisa ca 1342-1402 perhaps the greatest of Middle English prose translators of Latin texts into English was almost an exact contemporary of Geoffrey Chaucer Trevisa was born in Cornwall studied at Oxford and was instituted vicar of Berkeley a position he held until his death Over a period of thirty-five years eminent medievalist David Fowler has pieced together an account of Trevisa's life and times by diligently seeking out documents bearing on his activities and translations This has resulted in a cultural history of fourteenth-century England that ranges from the administrative geographical and linguistic status of Cornwall to the curriculum of medieval university education and from religious and secular conflicts to the administration of a substantial provincial household and the role of its aristocratic keepers in the Hundred Years War Fowler provides an analysis of Trevisa's known translations the Gospel of Nicodemus Dialogus inter Militem et Clericum FitzRalph's Defensio Curatorum the Polychronicon De Regimine Principum and De Proprietatibus Rerum He also advances the hypothesis that Trevisa was one of the scholars responsible for the first complete translation of the scriptures into English the Wycliffite Bible An appendix contains a collection of biographical and historical references designed to illustrate Fowler s contention that Trevisa may have been responsible for the revisions of Piers the Plowman now known as the B and C texts      The Morrell Magazine ,1924      The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1906
