Long Way From Heaven:

Hearts and Mines Terrence Weatherbe, 2020-10-22 This book is about heroes and victims often playing both roles at the same time The storied characters are common people generally country people dealing with the affairs of life and of the heart There is humor and there is pathos There is also hope This book has poems for men and for women for the old and for the young people They are slices of real life served in digestible portions There are elements of war in this book from both perspective of the dove and the hawk Unlike many offerings in the world today the contents are clear and easily understood I know that people today will get much enjoyment to reading the poems in the book A Long Way Home Terence

Dillon, 2013-12-11 A Long Way Home is a dramatic and tension filled fictional story that explores the relationship between the English and the Irish in the late nineteenth century It provides a fascinating insight into the issues created when those looking for conciliation come into conflict with those relying on confrontation in the struggle for Irish independence The book traces the experiences of Paul Doherty an Irishman immigrant In a story that raises important issues of race class religion sex violence and secret societies Doherty struggles to look for conciliation rather than confrontation bringing him into conflict with his great friend and fellow Irishman Will who is a member of the Irish Republican Brotherhood The theme of confrontation and conciliation continues through the relationships Doherty has with the English arch racist Maurice Whitehouse and the English philanthropist William Harding The book also draws upon comparisons between life in rural Ireland and the dark streets of an English industrial town of the late nineteenth century as it builds to a powerful conclusion of romance and violence The Long Way Home Mariah Stewart, 2013-01-29 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER Mariah

Stewart presents a captivating contemporary romance novel in the tradition of Robyn Carr Susan Mallery and Barbara Freethy As the only child of a wealthy investment manager Ellie Chapman has never known anything besides a life of perfect privilege But her years of good fortune come to an abrupt end when her father is exposed for swindling billions of dollars from innocent investors in a massive Ponzi scheme And just like that Ellie loses everything money job home even her fiancé who's jailed as her father's partner in crime With no job prospects on the horizon no cash and her family name in tatters Ellie has only one place to go Sleepy St Dennis Maryland is hardly where Ellie intends to stay however Keeping her identity a secret she plans to sell the house her late mother left her in the small town and use the proceeds to move on with her life Unfortunately her ticket to a new beginning is in dire need of a laundry list of pricey improvements many of which she'll have to do herself And until the house on Bay View Road is fit to be sold the sole place Ellie will be traveling is the hardware store But as the many charms of St Dennis not to mention Cameron O'Connor the handsome local contractor who has secrets of his own begin to work their magic what begins as a lesson in do it yourself renovations might just end up as Ellie's very own rejuvenation Includes a preview of the next book in the Chesapeake Diaries series At the River's Edge A Long Way to

Goulacullin John Kingston McMahon, 2013-12-05 The seasons of my life have passed by so quickly and now as I reach the autumn of my life I reflect on what has been and what might have been I have been lucky and am somewhat surprised that I have made it this far on my journey of life Now I look back and remember on these pages those that I knew and those whose lives were never fulfilled I am only one of a quarter of a million people who were brought up in the child welfare system in the 1950s and 60s in Australia and who are now referred to as the Forgotten Australians

A Mistaken Angel Eve Grafton,2017-06-02 Alessandro Rodrigos was trying hard to overcome the loss of his wife and drawing comfort from his family His little daughter was emphatic that her mother had come back from heaven and this needed investigation His suspicion that his extended family had something to do with his wifes death urged him to present them with evidence that his grandmother was the owner of the family ranch not him expecting them to show themselves in their true colors He waited for the repercussions expecting some action from them It was a surprise to him when the response was to kidnap his daughters mistaken angel to prove to him that his wife did not die Someone was certainly confused
