I Hated, Hated, Hated This Movie Roger Ebert,2022-05-24 The Pulitzer Prize winning film critics offers up more reviews of horrible films Roger Ebert awards at least two out of four stars to most of the more than 150 movies he reviews each year But when the noted film critic does pan a movie the result is a humorous scathing critique far more entertaining than the movie itself I Hated Hated Hated This Movie is a collection of more than 200 of Ebert s most biting and entertaining reviews of films receiving a mere star or less from the only film critic to win the Pulitzer Prize Ebert has no patience for these atrocious movies and minces no words in skewering the offenders Witness Armageddon 1998 The movie is an assault on the eyes the ears the brain common sense and the human desire to be entertained No matter what they re charging to get in it s worth more to get out The Beverly Hillbillies 1993 Imagine the dumbest half hour sitcom you ve ever seen spin it out to ninety three minutes by making it even more thin and shallow and you have this movie It s appalling North no stars 1994 I hated this movie Hated hated hated hated hated this movie Hated it Hated every simpering stupid vacant audience insulting moment of it Hated the sensibility that thought anyone would like it Hated the implied insult to the audience by its belief that anyone would be entertained by it Police Academy no stars 1984 It s so bad maybe you should pool your money and draw straws and send one of the guys off to rent it so that in the future whenever you think you're sitting through a bad comedy he could shake his head chuckle tolerantly and explain that you don't know what bad is Dear God 1996 Dear God is the kind of movie where you walk out repeating the title but not with a smile The movies reviewed within I Hated Hated Hated This Movie are motion pictures you'll want to distance yourself from but Roger Ebert's creative and comical musings on those films make for a book no movie fan should miss New York Magazine, 1991-01-07 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Women Film Directors Gwendolyn A.

Foster, 1995-11-14 Until now there hasn't been one single volume authoritative reference work on the history of women in film highlighting nearly every woman filmmaker from the dawn of cinema including Alice Guy France 1896 Chantal Akerman Belgium Penny Marshall U.S. and Sally Potter U.K. Every effort has been made to include every kind of woman filmmaker commercial and mainstream avant garde and minority and to give a complete cross section of the work of these remarkable women Scholars and students of film popular culture Women's Studies and International Studies as well as film buffs will learn much from this work The Dictionary covers the careers of nearly 200 women filmmakers giving vital statistics where available listings of films directed by these women and selected bibliographies for further reading This is a one volume one stop resource a comprehensive up to date guide that is absolutely essential for any course offering an overview or survey of women's cinema It offers not only all available statistics but critical evaluations of the filmmakers work as well In order to keep the length manageable this volume focuses on women who direct fictional narrative films with occasional forays into the area of the documentary and is limited to film production rather than video production ReFocus: The Films of Amy

Heckerling Smith Frances Smith, 2016-02-19 Refocus The Films of Amy Heckerling is the first book length study of the work of Amy Heckerling the phenomenally popular director and screenwriter of Clueless and Fast Times at Ridgemont High As such the book constitutes a significant intervention in Film Studies prompting a reconsideration of the importance of Heckerling both in the development of Teen cinema and as a figure in Hollywood comedy As part of the Refocus series the volume brings together outstanding original essays examining Heckerling's work from a variety of perspectives including film television and cultural studies and is destined to be used widely in undergraduate teaching Watching Movies Rick

Lyman, 2014-05-27 An inside look at how some of the biggest names in the film industry view their craft In this unique collection New York Times film critic Rick Lyman sits down with notable directors actors screenwriters cinematographers and other film industry professionals to watch and discuss a movie that each person considers seminal or influential on his or her career Steven Soderbergh on how All the President's Men influenced Erin Brockovich Quentin Tarantino on The Golden

Stallion Ang Lee on Love Eternal Denzel Washington on Ordinary People Ron Howard on The Graduate and many more Each interviewee's character is revealed in the resulting essays which deepen our appreciation of landmark films and give us extraordinary insight into the process of filmmaking Lyman enhances every essay with a brief biography career history and complete filmography of each of the subjects which puts them in a historical and creative context Drawn from the enormously popular series in The New York Times Watching Movies will fascinate film students and curious moviegoers alike
