selling Peacekeeper including MacKenzie's provocative views on leadership and the current state of the Canadian Armed Forces. Since retiring from the Armed Forces, Lewis MacKenzie has not stayed out of the spotlight but continues to speak his mind. In this straight talking memoir he traces his post military career as an international commentator on military affairs, a consultant to the Irish government and a federal political candidate. And here he answers his critics including journalist Carol Off for her criticism of his handling of the UN mission in Bosnia. In a hard hitting chapter he discusses his professional disagreement with the leadership priorities demonstrated by Romeo Dallaire in the early hours of the Rwandan genocide. He continues his story to the present to the first real litmus test for NATO Afghanistan. Divided into two parts pre 1993 when MacKenzie calls himself a Cold War grunt and post 1993 after his controversial stint in Bosnia. Soldiers Made Me Look Good is laced with anecdotes both funny and profound. It concludes with ten pointers on leadership in which Lewis MacKenzie shares hard earned insights from a life on the front lines.
