Eldridge Miller, 2019-07-23 Unique in its breadth of coverage Who's Who in Contemporary Women's Writing is a comprehensive authoritative and enjoyable guide to women's fiction prose poetry and drama from around the world in the second half of the twentieth century Over the course of 1000 entries by over 150 international contributors a picture emerges of the incredible range of women's writing in our time from Toni Morrison to Fleur Adcock all are here This book includes the established and well loved but also opens up new worlds of modern literature which may be unfamiliar but are never less than fascinating The Children in Our Lives Jane Adan, 1991-01-01 I was born at midnight That means I can see ghosts when they want to be invisible writes fourth grader David demonstrating a child's capacity for making sense of personal experience The Children in Our Lives explores this capacity as well as how adult misperceptions of children's experiences affect those children It invites dialogue between teachers parents other caregivers and the general public who value children for their own sakes Adan looks for disparities between a child's experience and the adult's interpretation of that experience In questioning middle class nurturance she focuses on connections between experience and interpretation based on dominant traditional or mainstream values She argues that force of habit as well as a preoccupation with public image predisposes adults to embrace the abstractions that distort perception Consequently children are impaired as adults are in their ability to generate communities that are grounded in a creative concern for all human beings International

Shirley Kaufman,2009 Progressive passionate and unfailingly feminist Kaufman is a breathtakingly fine poet The Nation If someone is going to be exalted as a representative voice of Jewish or Israeli life in contemporary American poetry one couldn't ask for a more insightful or mature writer to assume such an impossible role The Jerusalem Post Kaufman approaches Jerusalem's bitter memories contested histories and joyous unfoldings with a wary love Publishers Weekly Shirley Kaufman utilizes enigmatic symbolism from the Book of Ezekiel as she writes into the themes of exile and emigration that have marked her work since she moved to Israel thirty six years ago Her new poems attempt to bring meaning to an irrational world the unrelenting passage of human life the risks of artistic endeavoring and the artist's struggle with the loss of sight and memory After nearly four decades of writing and publishing Kaufman maintains a lightness of touch even while her poetry takes on an increased awareness of danger and urgency I don't want to look back but can't see ahead from where I am now and now is whatever I didn't do yesterday Not what I live in Now is the fear there won't be anything after now Shirley Kaufman was born in Seattle lived in San Francisco and immigrated to Jerusalem in 1973 Eight volumes of her award winning poetry have been published in the United States three by Copper Canyon Press She lives in Jerusalem Israel Henry Moore
