

Estrellita donde estás

Estrellita dónde estás,
me pregunto qué serás,
en el cielo y en el mar,
un diamante de verdad.

Estrellita dónde estás,
me pregunto qué serás.

Cuando el sol se ha ido ya,
cuando nada brilla más,
tu nos muestras tu brillar, brillas, brillas sin parar.

Estrellita dónde estás,
me pregunto qué serás.

Estrellita dónde estás,
me pregunto qué serás,
en el cielo y en el mar,
un diamante de verdad.

Estrellita dónde estás,
me pregunto qué serás.

Looking For Estrillita:

Brian Castro's Fiction , Transcultural Writers and Novels in the Age of Global Mobility Arianna Dagnino, 2015 In Transcultural Writers and Novels in the Age of Global Mobility Arianna Dagnino analyzes a new type of literature emerging from artists increased movement and cultural flows spawned by globalization This transcultural literature is produced by authors who write across cultural and national boundaries Dagnino's book contains a creative rendition of interviews conducted with five internationally renowned writers Inez Baranay Brian Castro Alberto Manguel Tim Parks and Ilija Trojanow and a critical exegesis reflecting on thematic critical and stylistic aspects By studying the selected authors corpus of work life experiences and cultural orientations Dagnino explores the implicit often subconscious process of cultural and imaginative metamorphosis that leads transcultural writers and their fictionalized characters beyond ethnic national racial or religious loci of identity and identity formation The work is a significant contribution to scholarship for it increases our theoretical awareness of today's literary developments providing us with critical tools that enable us to approach literary texts with an innovative perspective Maurizio Ascari Università di Bologna

Migration by Boat Lynda Mannik, 2016-05 At a time when thousands of refugees risk their lives undertaking perilous journeys by boat across the Mediterranean this multidisciplinary volume could not be more pertinent It offers various contemporary case studies of boat migrations undertaken by asylum seekers and refugees around the globe and shows that boats not only move people and cultural capital between places but also fuel cultural fantasies dreams of adventure and hope along with fears of invasion and terrorism The ambiguous nature of memories media representations and popular culture productions are highlighted throughout in order to address negative stereotypes and conversely humanize the individuals involved

Drift Brian Castro, 2011-05 Brian Castro's fifth novel is perhaps his most complex and certainly his most political Like all his work it is productively playful punningly irreverent and deeply concerned with sex and death fact and fiction but also more seriously with the redemptive possibilities of art and the existential power of the novel all in the context of Australia's contested history from the Introduction by Katharine England

Happy Wives Club Fawn Weaver, 2014-01-14 A New York Times Bestseller One woman undertakes a worldwide search to learn the secrets of a great marriage and finds one foundational truth that could change everything Fawn Weaver was a happily married woman running a successful business and then something happened Maybe it was divorce rate reports on the evening news The Real Housewives of Orange County or any daytime talk show where husbands and wives dramatically reveal their betrayals Everywhere she looked Fawn saw negative portrayals of marriage dominating the airwaves and dooming everyone to failure Looking at Keith the love of her life she knew that wasn't true She was determined to find and connect with women just like her happy and optimistic about marriage deeply in love with her spouse and committed to building a strong marriage that stands the test of time On a whim she started the blog HappyWivesClub.com and sent the link to a few of new friends What started as a casual invitation to five women exploded

Global Fragments Anke Bartels,Dirk Wiemann,2007 While the world seems to be getting ever smaller and globalization has become the ubiquitous buzz word regionalism and fragmentation also abound This might be due to the fact that far from being the alleged production of cultural homogeneity the global is constantly re defined and altered through the local This tension pervading much of contemporary culture has an obvious special relevance for the new varieties of English and the literature published in English world wide Postcolonial literatures exist at the interface of English as a hegemonic medium and its many national regional and local competitors that transform it in the new English literatures Thus any exploration of a globalization of cultures has to take into account the fact that culture is a complex field characterized by hybridization plurality and difference But while global or transnational cultures may allow for a new cosmopolitanism that produces ever changing fluid identities they do not give rise to an egalitarian global village an asymmetry between centre and periphery remains largely intact albeit along new parameters The essays collected in this volume offer readings of literary theoretical and filmic texts from the postcolonial world These texts are read as attempts to articulate the global with the local from a perspective of immersion in the actual diversity of life worlds focusing on such issues as consumption identity politics and modes of affiliation In this sense they are global fragments locally refracted figurations of an experience of world wide interconnectedness

The Politics and Aesthetics of Refusal Caroline Hamilton, Michelle Kelly, Elaine Minor, 2009-03-26 The Politics and Aesthetics of Refusal is an eclectic collection of essays from emerging academics who engage with the notion of refusal both as the embodiment of a resistance to conventional boundaries between academic disciplines and as a concept with an underlying negative or reactive force that can be widely interpreted and applied The applications of refusal outlined in this volume ranging from activism and the politics of cultural production through to problems of identity and knowledge classification raise questions about often elided relationships of agency and complicity in routine experience The sense of refusal that emerges from this book is perhaps most easily classified by what it is not namely a prescriptive conclusive or unified account of what it is to reject react or work against any particular instance of theory or practice in any given domain The value of a thematically oriented collection like this is its ability to work across disciplines media and philosophical frameworks rather than limiting its focus to a narrow territory According to Herbert Marcuse refusal must not only be the guiding principle for all artistic creation it must also be a manifestation of artistic creation itself With this volume we have attempted to compose a collection which is not only theoretically guided by refusal but practically informed by it as well The collection in itself constitutes we hope a constructive rejection of the usual constrictions of discipline and approach placed upon new scholars This rich collection of essays on the political aesthetic and ethical dimensions of that form of social action called refusal is an important contribution to our understanding of the tensions and contradictions of contemporary culture John Frow Professor of English Literary Studies at the University of Melbourne

The Deadly Fisherman Joseph Burke, 2012-05-22 Occasional memories from Jon Morton's past as a covert operations officer won't stay buried To escape that violent past he left the military and became a commercial fisherman His now peaceful life takes a sinister turn when a series of unusual events begin to add up to one conclusion a living nightmare from his deadly past Jon begins to put together these occurrences and matches them against past covert operations The match points to one of his last missions in Colombia SA That mission missed the elimination of a psychotic gang leader known as El Tigre But how could that killer have found him More than three years have passed and now the hunter has become the hunted Jon now finds himself treading a fine line between life and death where any wrong move could be fatal He has only one option resort to his secret past and draw upon all of his training and covert experience to finally
