Looking Backward From 2000 To 1887:

Looking Backward Edward Bellamy, 1882-12-16 Edward Bellamy's prophetic novel about a young Boston man who is mysteriously transported from the 19th to the 21st century from a world of war and want to a world of peace and plenty. The year is 2000. The place Utopian America. The hero anyone who has ever longed for escape to a better life. Translated into more than twenty languages and the most widely read novel of its time. Looking Backward is more than a brilliant visionary's view of the future. It is a blueprint of the perfect society, a guidebook that stimulated some of the greatest thinkers of our age. Today in the very era it attempted to visualize, it is even more compelling than ever. With an Introduction by Walter James Miller and an Afterword by Eliot Fintushel. Looking Backward, 2000-1887 Edward Bellamy, 1917 Looking Backward, 2000 To 1887 Edward Bellamy, 2018-04-07 It is the year 2000 and full employment, material abundance and social harmony can be found everywhere. This is the America to which Julian West, a young Bostonian, awakens after more than a century of sleep. West's initial sense of wonder, his gradual acceptance of the new order and a new love and Bellamy's wonderful prophetic inventions: electric lighting, shopping malls, credit cards, electronic broadcasting ensured the mass popularity of this 1888 novel. But however rich in fantasy and romance, Looking Backward is a passionate attack on the social ills of nineteenth-century industrialism and a plea for social reform and moral renewal. In her introduction, Cecelia Tichi discusses how the novel echoes the anguish and hopes of its own age while it embodies a sustaining myth of the American literary tradition that man's perfectibility is attainable in the New World. Looking Backward Edward Bellamy, 2019-09-20 Looking Backward 2000 1887 is a utopian novel by Edward Bellamy, a journalist and writer from Chicopee Falls, Massachusetts. to entirely convince him of this If I may then provisionally assume with the pledge of justifying the assumption that I know better than the reader when I was born I will go on with my narrative As every schoolboy knows in the latter part of the nineteenth century the civilization of to day or anything like it did not exist although the elements which were to develop it were already in ferment Nothing had however occurred to modify the immemorial division of society into the four classes or nations as they may be more fitly called since the differences between them were far greater than those between any nations nowadays of the rich and the poor the educated and the ignorant I myself was rich and also educated and possessed therefore all the elements of happiness enjoyed by the most fortunate in that age Living in luxury and occupied only with the pursuit of the pleasures and refinements of life I derived the means of my support from the labor of others rendering no sort of service in return My parents and grand parents had lived in the same way and I expected that my descendants if I had any would enjoy a like easy existence
