publisher date and place of publication and number of pages I Speak of the City Mauricio Tenorio-Trillo, 2015-02-24 In this dazzling multidisciplinary tour of Mexico City Mauricio Tenorio Trillo focuses on the period 1880 to 1940 the decisive decades that shaped the city into what it is today Through a kaleidoscope of expository forms I Speak of the City connects the realms of literature architecture music popular language art and public health to investigate the city in a variety of contexts as a living history textbook as an expression of the state as a modernist capital as a laboratory and as language Tenorio's formal imagination allows the reader to revel in the free flowing richness of his narratives opening startling new vistas onto the urban experience From art to city planning from epidemiology to poetry this book challenges the conventional wisdom about both Mexico City and the turn of the century world to which it belonged And by engaging directly with the rise of modernism and the cultural experiences of such personalities as Hart Crane Mina Loy and Diego Rivera I Speak of the City will find an enthusiastic audience across the disciplines From the Mexican Poetry Jaime A. Villareal, 1961 Mexican Literature David William Foster, 2010-07-22 Mexico has a rich literary heritage that extends back over centuries to the Aztec and Mayan civilizations This major reference work surveys more than five hundred years of Mexican literature from a sociocultural perspective More than merely a catalog of names and titles it examines in detail the literary phenomena that constitute Mexico's most significant and original contributions to literature Recognizing that no one scholar can authoritatively cover so much territory David William Foster has assembled a group of specialists some of them younger scholars who write from emerging trends in Latin American and Mexican literary scholarship The topics they discuss include pre-Columbian indigenous writing Joanna O'Connell Colonial literature Lee H. Dowling Romanticism Margarita Vargas nineteenth century prose fiction Mario Martín Flores Modernism Bart L. Lewis major twentieth century genres narrative Lanin A. Gyurko poetry Adriana García theater Kirsten F. Nigro the essay Martin S. finds there is no escape As Frank Dauster concludes The poetry of Mexico like its people and its society reflects the fusion of two worlds and these complex poets of the double strand operate freely and imaginatively within it Although addressed primarily to specialists in Latin American literature The Double Strand also speaks to those interested in the complex interaction between two widely differing cultural heritages and in the rich fusion this blending produces in Mexican letters
