Auditors Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: Select Committee on Economic Affairs,2011-03-30 The Economic Affairs Committee s inquiry into Auditors market concentration and their role aimed to look into two main issues the dominance of the Big Four Deloitte Ernst and whether traditional statutory audit still meets today s needs Also the Committee focussed on two other important issues the effect on audit of the adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards IFRS and how banks were audited before and during the financial crisis and what changes there should be including in auditors relationships with financial regulators The large firm audit market is clearly an oligopoly with all the attendant concerns about competition choice quality and conflict of interest It gave no warning of the banking crisis The narrowness of the assurance it offers is much criticised Its regulatory structure in the UK and internationally is complex and unclear Yet investors regulators and commentators regard rigorous and reliable external audit as an essential underpinning of business and the capital markets which finance it in Britain and elsewhere The assurance offered by audit is especially needed in the case of banks with their attendant risks and where loss of confidence can imperil the financial system The Big Four s domination of the large firm audit market in the UK is almost complete in 2010 they audited 99 of the FTSE 100 largest listed companies which change auditors every 48 years on average In bank audit in the UK there is only a Big Three since Ernst that prudence should be reasserted as the guiding principle of audit that the new framework of banking supervision should provide for bank audit to contribute more to the transparency and stability of the financial system Tennessee John Trotwood Moore,Austin Powers Foster,1923
