Third Edition of Developing Language and Literacy 3-8 is an insightful introduction to teaching and learning English in the early years. The new edition has been fully updated to reflect requirements for teaching English in the early years including the new curriculum guidance for the Early Years Foundation Stage and the new Primary Framework. It covers all aspects of language and literacy and draws on contemporary ideas, research and classroom expertise to guide practice. The book includes chapters on Speaking and Listening, Reading Resources for Language and Literacy, Writing, Spelling, Handwriting and Punctuation, Bilingual Learners, Language, Literacy and Gender, Children with Difficulties Involving Parents and Carers, Assessment Planning. Along with activities to promote reflective practice, the author provides suggestions for further reading and useful websites. Further resource material for each chapter accompanies the book on the SAGE website www.sagepub.co.uk. Browne. This book will be an essential guide for early years and primary trainee teachers.

Stimulating Emerging Story Writing! Simon Brownhill, 2015-10-16. Stimulating Emerging Story Writing Inspiring Children aged 3-7 offers innovative and exciting ways to inspire young children to want to create stories and develop their emerging story writing skills. This practical guide offers comprehensive and informed support for professionals to effectively engage child authors in stimulating story writing activities. Packed full of story ideas, resource suggestions and practical activities, the book explores the various ways professionals can help young children to develop the six key elements of story, these being character, setting, plot, conflict, resolution and ending. All of the ideas in the book are designed to support a setting's daily writing provision, such as mark-making, opportunities for role play and using simple open-ended play resources. Separated into two sections and with reference to the EYFS and Key Stage 1 curricula, this timely new text provides practitioners with tried and tested strategies and ideas that can be used with immediate effect. Chapters include: Creating Characters, The Plot Thickens, Inspired Ideas, Resourcing the Story, Stimulation. This timely new text is the perfect guide for inspiring young children aged 3-7 in the classroom and will be an essential resource for practitioners, teachers and students on both early years and teacher training courses.

Using Picture Storybooks to Teach Literary Devices Susan Hall, 1990-01-02. The third volume of Using Picture Storybooks to Teach Literary Devices joins volumes 1 and 2 of this best-selling series to give teachers and librarians the perfect tool to teach literary devices to students in grades K-12. In this volume, 120 well-reviewed picture storybooks published mainly in the last few years are listed, sometimes more than once, under 41 literary devices. All ages picture storybooks which can be enjoyed by adults as well as children are included. For each device, a definition is given and descriptions of appropriate storybooks with information on how to use them, the art style used in the book and a curriculum tie-in are provided. Among the literary devices included are alliteration, analogy, flashback, irony, metaphor, paradox, tone and 34 more. Indexes by author, title, art style and curriculum tie-in add to this outstanding book's great value. Grades 4-12.

Move It! Julia Lawson, 2006. This series is designed for children to share with adults. Each volume is based on everyday activities using open-ended questions which encourage children to predict, speculate and draw conclusions on their own.
