Narrated Films Storytelling Situation In Cinema History:

Narrated Films Avrom Fleishman, 1992 In Narrated Films Avrom Fleishman explores the distinctive literary techniques often used by filmmakers to tell their stories Through close viewings of ingeniously paired films Fleishman documents five narrational practices in the cinema voice over Orpheus and Sunset Boulevard dramatized narration in which the film is a story that one character tells another The Cabinet of Dr Caligari and Hiroshima Mon Amour multiple narration in which a number of characters tell the story that is the film Rashomon and Zelig written narration whether through diaries or letters Letter from an Unknown Woman and Diary of a Country Priest and the cinematic version of interior monologue which Fleishman terms mindscreen narration Brief Encounter and Daybreak The Writer on Film J. Buchanan, 2013-06-03 Examining films about writers and acts of writing The Writer on Film brilliantly refreshes some of the well worn adaptation debates by inviting film and literature to engage with each other trenchantly and anew through acts of explicit configuration not adaptation

Conrad on Film Gene M. Moore, 1997-11-27 This book offers the first comprehensive international survey of more than eighty films and videos based on the life and work of Joseph Conrad Essays by leading film and literary scholars examine the films both in the context of film history and technology and in terms of the theoretical and practical problems facing directors including Alfred Hitchcock Orson Welles Francis Ford Coppola and Andrzej Wajda who have attempted to put Conrad on film Conrad was the first major English author to adapt his work for the screen and the story of his unpublished film play is told in an important chapter The challenges of finding visual analogues for Conrad's narrative irony and filmic equivalents for his narrators are also examined The volume is well illustrated and includes a detailed filmography and film bibliography making it a landmark study of Conrad films and film adaptations in general

Philosophy of Film and Motion Pictures Noël Carroll, Jinhee Choi, 2009-02-09 Designed for classroom use this authoritative anthology presents key selections from the best contemporary work in philosophy of film The featured essays have been specially chosen for their clarity philosophical depth and consonance with the current movement towards cognitive film theory Eight sections with introductions cover topics such as the nature of film film as art documentary cinema narration and emotion in film film criticism and film's relation to knowledge and morality Issues addressed include the objectivity of documentary films fear of movie monsters and moral questions surrounding the viewing of pornography Replete with examples and discussion of moving pictures throughout

Blending and the Study of Narrative Ralf Schneider, Marcus Hartner, 2012-10-30 The theory of Blending or Conceptual Integration proposed by Gilles Fauconnier and Marc Turner is one of most promising cognitive theories of meaning production It has been successfully applied to the analysis of poetic discourse and micro textual elements such as metaphor Prose narrative has so far received significantly less attention The present volume aims to remedy this situation Following an introductory discussion of the connections between narrative and the processes of blending the contributions demonstrate the range of applications of the theory to the study of narrative They cover issues such as time and space literary character and perspective genre story levels and fictional minds some chapters show how such phenomena as metalepsis counterfactual narration intermediality extended metaphors and suspense can be fruitfully studied from the vantage point of Conceptual Integration Working within a theoretical framework situated at the intersection of narratology and the cognitive sciences the book provides both fresh readings for individual literary and film narratives and new impulses for post classical narratology

Towards a 'Natural' Narratology Monika Fludernik, 2002-11-01 In this ground breaking work of synthesis Monika Fludernik combines insights from literary theory and linguistics to provide a challenging new theory of narrative This book is both an historical survey and theoretical study with the author drawing on an enormous range of examples from the earliest oral study to contemporary experimental fiction She uses these examples to prove that recent literature far from heralding the final collapse of narrative represents the epitome of a centuries long developmental process

Storytelling in Opera and Musical Theater Nina Penner, 2020-10-06 Storytelling in Opera and Musical Theater is the first systematic exploration of how sung forms of drama tell stories Through examples from opera s origins to contemporary musicals Nina Penner examines the roles of character narrators and how they differ from those in literary and cinematic works how music can orient spectators to characters points of view how being privy to characters inner thoughts and feelings may evoke feelings of sympathy or empathy and how performers choices affect not only who is telling the story but what story is being told Unique about Penner s approach is her engagement with current work in analytic philosophy Her study reveals not only the resources this philosophical tradition can bring to musicology but those which musicology can bring to philosophy challenging and refining accounts of narrative point of view and the work performance relationship within both disciplines She also considers practical problems singers and directors confront on a daily basis such as what to do about Wagner s Jewish caricatures and the racism of Orientalist operas More generally Penner reflects on how centuries old works remain meaningful to contemporary audiences and have the power to attract new more diverse audiences to opera and musical theater By exploring how practitioners past and present have addressed these issues Storytelling in Opera and Musical Theater offers suggestions for how opera and musical theater can continue to entertain and enrich the lives of 21st century audiences

Literary Intermediality Maddalena Pennacchia Punzi, 2007 The increasing transfer of literary texts and of related writing reading processes from the printed page to analog and digital media and vice versa is the phenomenon under investigation in this book for which the term literary intermediality has been coined Literature is in transit i e travelling incessantly through mass media personal media and the internet with crucial effects both on the ways it is perceived by younger generations of users and on the ways it is devised by contemporary authors The literary text far from being restricted to printed media keeps moving across the whole media circuit thus acquiring at any stage a new temporary identity Based on the seminar Intermediality and Literary Practices at the 7th ESSE Conference in 2004 the essays of this collection by scholars from both sides of the Atlantic focus on the seminar s common topics cinema theatre postmodernism and new critical issues Some Like It Wilder Gene D. Phillips, 2010-02-05 A biography of the six time Oscar winning director of films like Some Like It Hot and Double Indemnity featuring analysis of his work Although his career spanned fifty years and included more than fifty films Austrian American film director Billy Wilder 1906 2002 may be best known for the legendary shot of Marilyn Monroe's dress billowing over a subway grating in The Seven Year Itch 1955 This shot seen round the world is representative not only of Hollywood's golden era of cinema but also of one of its most prolific and brilliant directors Wilder whose filmography includes such classics as Sunset Boulevard 1950 Sabrina 1954 Witness for the Prosecution 1957 and Some Like It Hot 1959 is often remembered for his versatility biting wit and passion for challenging social and moral conventions Author Gene D Phillips departs from the traditional biography in Some Like It Wilder offering new insights into the acclaimed director's professional and private life In preparation for the book Phillips conducted personal interviews with Wilder and other key players from the legendary director's life and times Phillips's unique combination of analysis and biographical detail brings Wilder to life as both an artist and man Phillips traces Wilder's path from Berlin where he worked as a scriptwriter for one of the city's largest studios to Hollywood where he would quickly establish himself as a premier film director Forming a partnership with writer producer Charles Brackett Wilder directed the classic films Five Graves to Cairo 1943 Double Indemnity 1945 and The Lost Weekend 1945 which earned Academy Awards for best picture best director and best screenplay During the 1960s Wilder continued to direct and produce controversial comedies including Kiss Me Stupid 1964 and The Apartment 1960 The Apartment brought Wilder another round of Oscars for best picture best director and best screenplay Wilder's maverick approach and independent artistic vision pushed boundaries and ensured his legacy as one of the Hollywood greats Sharply written Some Like It Wilder serves as a comprehensive companion to Wilder's films offering a personalized and heartfelt account of the life and genius of this compelling director Praise for Some Like It Wilder Featuring Gene D Phillips unique in depth critical approach Some Like It Wilder provides a groundbreaking overview of a filmmaking icon This definitive biography reveals that Wilder was and remains one of the most influential directors in filmmaking Turner Classic Movies Phillips goes beyond the surface and deep into the complex mind and soul of the famous film director This book is in my view definitive Vincent LoBrutto author of Martin Scorsese A Biography An Invention Without a Future James Naremore, 2014-01-10 In 1895 Louis Lumière supposedly said that cinema is an invention without a future James Naremore uses this legendary remark as a starting point for a meditation on the so called death of cinema in the digital age and as a way of introducing a wide ranging series of his essays on movies past and present These essays include discussions of authorship adaptation and acting commentaries on Howard Hawks Alfred Hitchcock Orson Welles Vincente Minnelli John Huston and Stanley Kubrick and reviews of more recent work by non Hollywood directors Pedro Costa Abbas Kiarostami Raúl Ruiz and Apichatpong Weerasethakul Important themes recur the relations between modernity modernism and postmodernism the changing mediascape and death of older technologies and the need for robust critical writing in an era when print journalism is waning and the humanities are devalued The book concludes with essays on four major American film critics James Agee Manny Farber Andrew Sarris and Jonathan Rosenbaum Transmedial Narratology and Contemporary Media Culture Jan-Noël Thon, 2016-08 Narratives are everywhere and since a significant part of contemporary media culture is defined by narrative forms media studies need a genuinely transmedial narratology Against this background Transmedial Narratology and Contemporary Media Culture focuses on the intersubjective construction of storyworlds as well as on prototypical forms of narratorial and subjective representation This book provides not only a method for the analysis of salient transmedial strategies of narrative representation in contemporary films comics and video games but also a theoretical frame within which medium specific approaches from literary and film narratology from comics studies and game studies and from various other strands of media and cultural studies may be applied to further our understanding of narratives across media Representing Atrocity in Taiwan Sylvia Li-chun Lin, 2007-11-30 In 1945 Taiwan was placed under the administrative control of the Republic of China and after two years accusations of corruption and a failing economy sparked a local protest that was brutally quashed by the Kuomintang government The February Twenty Eighth or 2 28 Incident led to four decades of martial law that became known as the White Terror During this period talk of 2 28 was forbidden and all dissent violently suppressed but since the lifting of martial law in 1987 this long buried history has been revisited through commemoration and narrative cinema and remembrance Drawing on a wealth of secondary theoretical material as well as her own original research Sylvia Li chun Lin conducts a close analysis of the political narrative and ideological structures involved in the fictional and cinematic representations of the 2 28 Incident and White Terror She assesses the role of individual and collective memory and institutionalized forgetting while underscoring the dangers of re creating a historical past and the risks of trivialization She also compares her findings with scholarly works on the Holocaust and the aftermath of the atomic bombings of Japan questioning the politics of forming public and personal memories and the political teleology of closure This is the first book to be published in English on the 2 28 Incident and White Terror and offers a valuable matrix of comparison for studying the portrayal of atrocity in a specific locale

Sharp Cut Steven H. Gale, 2021-02-16 While best known as one of the most important playwrights of the twentieth century Harold Pinter 1930 2008 had an equally successful career writing screenplays His collaborations with director Joseph Losey garnered great attention and esteem and two of his screenplays earned Academy Award nominations The French Lieutenant's Woman 1981 and Betrayal 1983 He is also credited for writing an unproduced script to remake Stanley Kubrick's 1962 adaptation of Lolita Much scholarship has been dedicated to the subject of Pinter as playwright but the rich landscape of his work in film has been left largely undisturbed In Sharp Cut Harold Pinter's Screenplays and the Artistic Process Steven H Gale the world's foremost Pinter scholar analyzes Pinter's creative process from initial conception to finished film Gale makes careful point by point comparisons of each stage in the screenplay's creation the source material the adaptations themselves and the films made from the scripts in order to reveal the meaning behind each film script and to explain the cinematic techniques used to express that meaning Unlike most Pinter scholars who focus almost solely on the written word Gale devotes discussion to the cinematic interpretation of the scripts through camera angles and movement cutting and other techniques Pinter does not merely convert his stage scripts to screenplays he adapts the works to succeed in the other medium avoiding elements of the live play that do not work onscreen and using the camera's focusing operations in ways that are not possible on the stage As Pinter's career progressed and his writing evolved screenplays became for him an increasingly vital means of creative expression Sharp Cut is the first study to fully explore this important component of the Pinter canon

Public Rape Tanya Horeck, 2013-04-15 Second wave feminism fought to end the blanket silence shrouding rape and bring it to public attention Now feminist critics must confront a different issue In Public Rape Tanya Horeck considers the public investment in images of rape and the figure of the raped woman Introducing the idea of public rape Horeck looks at how images of rape serve as cultural fantasies of sexual racial and class difference Looking at rape in real life as well as in literature and films such as The Accused and Boys Don't Cry Horek reveals how representations of rape raise vital questions about the relationship between reality and fantasy and between violence and spectacle

The Classic Novel Erica Sheen, Robert Giddings, 2024-07-30 This book critically examines the long established tradition of adapting classic novels to film or TV screen An emerging area of interest the relationship between film and literature and the way cinema and television have translated classic novels into moving pictures from the 30s to the 90s A wide ranging but focused collection that is bang up to date and free of media jargon that looks at both the film and the book Includes discussion of The English Patient Pride and Prejudice and Middlemarch Pickwick Papers Dracula Dickens Conrad Hardy and Waugh
