Holocaust Testimonies Thomas Pegelow Kaplan, Wolf Gruner, Miriam Offer, Boaz Cohen, 2025-05-15 Close to a time when there will be no more survivors to speak about their suffering this innovative study takes much needed stock of the past present and future of Holocaust testimony Drawing from a vast range of witness accounts including a never before published survivor interview and carefully situating analysis within broader historical and political discourses this international team of scholars address many pertinent issues of testimony in the post witness age These include questions of representation and testimony form memory politics and the role of the witness the legacy of the Holocaust and impact on future generations the digital turn and issues of access and gender and testimony in the wake of MeToo Stressing the importance of re-assessing re-contextualizing and re-presenting testimonies these essays make a powerful case for the ongoing centrality of witnesses and witnessing in Holocaust research education and memory In doing so Holocaust Testimonies skillfully paves the way for future research with survivor testimonies

Jews, Germans, and Allies Atina Grossmann, 2009-08-10 In the immediate aftermath of World War II more than a quarter million Jewish survivors of the Holocaust lived among their defeated persecutors in the chaotic society of Allied occupied Germany Jews Germans and Allies draws upon the wealth of diary and memoir literature by the people who lived through postwar reconstruction to trace the conflicting ways Jews and Germans defined their own victimization and survival comprehended the trauma of war and genocide and struggled to rebuild their lives In gripping and unforgettable detail Atina Grossmann describes Berlin in the days following Germany's surrender the mass rape of German women by the Red Army the liberated slave laborers and homecoming soldiers returning political exiles Jews emerging from hiding and ethnic German refugees fleeing the East She chronicles the hunger disease and homelessness the fraternization with Allied occupiers and the complexities of navigating a world where the commonplace mingled with the horrific Grossmann untangles the stories of Jewish survivors inside and outside the displaced persons camps of the American zone as they built families and reconstructed identities while awaiting emigration to Palestine or the United States She examines how Germans and Jews interacted and competed for Allied favor benefits and victim status and how they sought to restore normality in work in their relationships and in their everyday encounters Jews Germans and Allies shows how Jews were integral participants in postwar Germany and bridges the divide that still exists today between German history and Jewish studies Sentient Performativities of Embodiment Lynette Hunter, Elisabeth Krimmer, Peter Lichtenfels, 2016-05-05 This collection offers writings on the body with a focus on performance defined as both staged performance and everyday performance Traditionally theorizations of the body have either analyzed its impact on its socio historical environment or treated the body as a self enclosed semiotic and affective system This collection makes a conscious effort to merge these two approaches It is interested in interactions between bodies and other bodies bodies and environments and bodies and objects Historical Dictionary of Holocaust Cinema Robert C. Reimer, Carol J. Reimer, 2024-12-19 Some 80 years after the end of World War two and Nazi Germany's attempt to annihilate European Jews and the Jewish culture the story of the Holocaust continues to be told in novels paintings music sculpture and film Over the past eight decades close to a thousand documentaries narrative shorts and features television miniseries and filmed statements from survivors have confronted the horrors of the past creating a recognizable iconography of persecution suffering and genocide While arguably movies and television have a tendency to overly simply if not trivialize historical events popular culture artists also keep the past from being forgotten Historical Dictionary of Holocaust Cinema Second Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 175 cross referenced entries on films directors and historical figures Foreign language experimental and canonical films are included This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about holocaust cinema Library Lin's Biographies, Autobiographies, and Memoirs Linda Maxie, 2023-06-15 People are fascinating but finding the best biography autobiography or memoir can be tough with so many to choose from Linda Maxie Library Lin examined hundreds of recommended books about people to offer guidance on which books to select In this survey you will find Forty subject specific chapters of recommended biographies autobiographies and memoirs Classic biographies that have withstood the test of time Recent titles featuring people living impacted by current events Inspiring biographies and memoirs of all sorts Suggestions for further reading Why waste time searching for books to read when you could have hundreds of excellent titles with their summaries at your fingertips Let Library Lin be your guide to artists world leaders athletes actors royalty activists and so many more The Jewish Connection Phyllis Appel, 2013-01-21 Over the centuries the Jewish people have been persecuted and had their beliefs tested in a variety of ways The more than fifty individuals profiled in The Jewish Connection are but a few who overcame challenges to make contributions to society The reader will gain an appreciation of Jewish history and culture by reading the stories of scientists inventors athletes entertainers and others The more than fifty individuals profiled in The Jewish Connection are a small representation of those who overcame challenges to make important contributions The reader will learn the role these men and women played in the American Revolution World Wars I II the Civil War the Women s Rights Movement labor unions and a great deal more Coming Home? Vol. 1 Sharif Gemie, 2014-07-18 The wars of the twentieth century uprooted people on a previously unimaginable scale to the extent that being a refugee became an increasingly widespread experience With the arrival of refugees governments of host countries had to mediate between divided national populations some wished to welcome those arriving in search of refuge others preferred a strategy of exclusion or even expulsion At the same time refugees had to manage conflicts of the self as they responded to the loss of nationhood families socio political networks material goods and arguably also a sense of belonging or home While return migration was usually perceived by governments and refugees alike as the best solution to the dilemmas of forced displacement consensus about the timing and dynamics of how this would actually occur was very difficult to achieve In practice the return of refugees to their countries of origin rarely if ever produced a wholly satisfactory outcome Conflicts clearly resulted in forced displacement but it is equally true that forced displacement created conflicts The complex inter relationship of conflict return migration and the sometimes chimerical but still compelling search for a sense of home is the central preoccupation of the contributors to the two volumes of the Coming Home series Scholars from history literature cultural studies and sociology explore the tensions between nation states and migrants as they have anticipated implemented or challenged the process of return migration during the twentieth and twenty first centuries This book begins with Western Europe and progresses to Central and Eastern Europe from the period of the Spanish Civil War to the Cold War era whilst the second volume Coming home Vol 2 Conflict and Postcolonial Return Migration in the Context of France and North Africa shifts the focus to the colonial and post colonial framework of the French North African nexus What emerges from the two volumes of essays is that as ambiguous and sometimes ambivalent as home could appear it was nonetheless central to migrants preoccupations about returning I Glanced Out the Window and Saw the Edge of the World Catherine Halsall, 2020-07-08 This book is about WAR not the causes and results not the planning and the campaigns not the artillery and the bombs It is about the heinous crimes committed by the combatants the horrifying experiences of civilians the devastation of cities and villages the killing and the dying the glory leading to revulsion and guilt and the assimilation of suffering that either ends in death or in the triumph of the soul It looks at the struggle of the church to remain faithful and the servants of the church who seek to bring sense and solace to the victims It discusses antisemitism racism and war itself from biblical perspectives It reveals the unjustifiable reasons for engaging in war and how this brings catastrophic results for all peoples the mental instability of the survivors and the loss and grief of those on the home front In war how can men and women carry out the actions that they do As Viktor Frankl writes After all man is that being who has invented the gas chambers of Auschwitz however he is also that being who has entered those gas chambers upright with the Lord's Prayer or the Shema Yisrael on his lips

Behind enemy lines Juliette Pattinson, 2021-07-08 Behind enemy lines is an examination of gender relations in wartime using the Special Operations Executive as a case study Drawing on personal testimonies in particular oral history and autobiography as well as official records and film it explores the extraordinary experiences of male and female agents who were recruited and trained by a British organisation and infiltrated into Nazi Occupied France to encourage sabotage and subversion during the Second World War With its original interpretation of a wealth of primary sources it examines how these ordinary law abiding civilians were transformed into para military secret agents equipped with silent killing techniques and trained in unarmed combat This fascinating timely and engaging book is concerned with the ways in which the SOE veterans reconstruct their wartime experiences of recruitment training clandestine work and for some their captivity focusing specifically upon the significance of gender and their attempts to pass as French civilians This examination of the agents of an officially sponsored insurgent organisation makes a major contribution to British socio cultural history war studies and gender studies and will appeal to both the general reader as well as to those in the academic community

Flight and Concealment Susanna Schrafstetter, 2022-09-06 Between ten thousand and twelve thousand Jews tried to escape Nazi genocide by going into hiding With the help of Jewish and non Jewish relatives friends or people completely unknown to them these U boats as they came to be known dared to lead a life underground Flight and Concealment brings to light their hidden stories Deftly weaving together personal accounts with a broader comparative look at the experiences of Jews throughout Germany historian Susanna Schrafstetter tells the story of the Jews in Munich and Upper Bavaria who fled deportation by going underground Archival sources and interviews with survivors and with the Germans who aided or exploited them reveal a complex often intimate story of hope greed and sometimes betrayal Flight and Concealment shows the options and strategies for survival of those in hiding and their helpers and discusses the ways in which some Germans enriched themselves at the expense of the refugees

A Cultural History of Disability in the Modern Age David T. Mitchell, Sharon L. Snyder, 2023-05-17 If eugenics the science of eliminating kinds of undesirable human beings from the species record came to overdetermine the late 19th century in relation to disability the 20th century may be best characterized as managing the repercussions for variable human populations A Cultural History of Disability in the Modern Age provides an interdisciplinary overview of disability as an outpouring of professional political and representational efforts to fix correct eliminate preserve and even cultivate the value of crip bodies This book pursues analyses of disability's deployment as a wellspring for an alternative ethics of living in and alongside the body different while simultaneously considering the varied social and material contexts of devalued human differences from World War I to the present In short this volume demonstrates that in Ozymandias like ways the Western Project of the Human with its perpetuation of body mind hierarchies lies crumbling in the deserts of failed empires genocidal furies and the rejuvenating myths of new nation states in the 20th century An essential resource for researchers scholars and students of history literature culture philosophy rehabilitation technology and education A Cultural History of Disability in the Modern Age explores such themes and topics as atypical bodies mobility impairment chronic pain and illness blindness deafness speech learning difficulties and mental health while wrestling with their status as unreliable predictors of what constitutes undesirable humanity

The Path Divided Jeanne Moran, 2021-09-02 Every choice has a consequence When a photo in a magical picture frame reveals choices faced by a naive Hitler Youth member in 1938 and by her Nazi devotee brother hiding under an alias in 2005 each sibling realizes they can choose between safety and death But which choice sets them on which path In this powerful historical novel colliding ideals an impromptu sacrifice and the need for redemption strains the bonds of family and friendship as the siblings unravel what it truly means to be loyal to themselves and those they love

War-torn Tales Danielle Hipkins, Gill Plain, 2007 This book is the outcome of a successful workshop held in Leeds in September 2003 and explores the effects of World War II on the representation of gender in post war literature film and popular culture juxtaposing Western European experience with US Soviet and Japanese It aims to outline the different ways in which these representations evolved in post war attempts both to re-establish social order and reconstruct national identity It gives the reader an overview of the similarities and differences that have emerged in the representation of war and gender in different cultures and media as a result of social expectations political change and individual artistic innovation The essays are linked by their concern with three key questions how are emotion and gender represented in relation to the experience of war what is the impact of war on the dynamic between the genders and as the memory of war recedes is it possible to identify chronological shifts in the artistic response to the conflict
