London's New Scene Lisa Tickner, 2020-07-07 A groundbreaking and extensively researched account of the 1960s London art scene In the 1960s London became a vibrant hub of artistic production Postwar reconstruction jet air travel television arts programs new color supplements a generation of young artists dealers and curators the influx of international film companies the projection of creative Britain as a national brand all nurtured and promoted the emergence of London as a new capital of art Extensively illustrated and researched this book offers an unprecedented rich account of the social field that constituted the lively London scene of the 1960s In clear fluent prose Tickner presents an innovative sequence of critical case studies each of which explores a particular institution or event in the cultural life of London between 1962 and 1968 The result is a kaleidoscopic view of an exuberant decade in the history of British art

Make it Modern Brandon Taylor, 2022-01-01 A fascinating journey through Western art from the 1910s to the 1960s charting how artists wrestled with the headlong changes of a turbulent and conflict ridden world From the chaos of the First World War to the ravages of the Second from the Great Depression to the rise of consumer culture artists we call modern faced the challenge of responding imaginatively to utterly new circumstances of life Original thought startling artistic techniques and new attitudes to experimentation were required to produce exceptional and timely work Make It Modern guides the reader through the art of the modern world

Works of celebrated artists from Pablo Picasso and Wassily Kandinsky to Frida Kahlo Jackson Pollock and Yayoi Kusama alongside a panoply of undervalued or less known figures populate this decade by decade narrative Make It Modern tells an unforgettable story of how art was changed forever After Modern Art 1945-2000 David Hopkins,2000-09-14

Contemporary art can be baffling and beautiful provocative and disturbing This pioneering book presents a new look at the controversial period between 1945 and 2000 when art and its traditional forms were called into question It focuses on the relationship between American and European art and challenges previously held views about the origins of some of the most innovative ideas in art of this time Major artists such as Jackson Pollock Jasper Johns Yves Klein Andy Warhol Louise Bourgeois Cindy Sherman and Damien Hirst are all discussed as is the art world of the last fifty years Important trends are also covered including Abstract Expressionism Pop Art Minimalism Conceptualism Postmodernism and the art of the nineties

Psychology and Philosophy of Abstract Art Paul M.W. Hackett,2016-05-25 This book examines how we perceive and understand abstract art in contrast to artworks that represent reality Philosophical psychological and neuroscience research including the work of philosopher Paul Crowther are considered and out of these approaches a complex model is developed to account for this experience The understanding embodied in this model is rooted in facet theory mapping sentences and partially ordered analyses which together provide a comprehensive understanding of the perceptual experience of abstract art The St Ives Artists Michael Bird,2008 St Ives is unique in British art history Between the Second World War and the 1970s many progressive artists chose to work and often settle around this small port in the far west of Cornwall Drawing on fresh research Michael Bird has created a fascinating and highly readable account of St Ives and its artists

British and Irish Art 1945-1951 Adrian Clark,2010 Summary This book puts history back into the history of art It approaches the British and Irish art worlds from the historical viewpoint avoiding theories unsupported by facts By studying the intricate mechanisms whereby artists turned oil on canvas into money or not the book explains how artists reputations were made or broken Individual artists discussed include Francis Bacon Lucian Freud Henry Moore John Piper Graham Sutherland Jacob Epstein Ben Nicholson Barbara Hepworth and many more Readers will be startled and intrigued to find how such artists fought to survive amid the network of powerful individuals critics and gallery owners that controlled their destinies

Pierre Bonnard Pierre Bonnard,Nicole R. Myers,Allison Stielau,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2009 The vibrant late paintings of Pierre Bonnard 1867 1947 are considered by many to be among his finest achievements Working in a small converted bedroom of his villa in the south of France Bonnard suffused his late canvases with radiant Mediterranean light and dazzling color Although his subjects were close at hand usually everyday scenes taken from his immediate surroundings such as the dining room table being set for breakfast or a jug of flowers perched on the mantelpiece Bonnard rarely painted from life Instead he preferred to make pencil sketches in small diaries and then rely on these along with his memory once in the studio This volume which accompanies the first exhibition to focus on the interior and related still life

imagery from the last decades of Bonnard's long career presents more than seventy five paintings drawings and works on paper many of them rarely seen in public and in some cases little known Although Bonnard's legacy may be removed from the succession of trends that today we consider the foundation of modernism his contribution to French art in the early decades of the twentieth century is far more profound than history has generally acknowledged In their insightful essays and catalogue entries the authors bring fresh critical perspectives to the ongoing reappraisal of Bonnard's reputation and to his place within the narrative of twentieth century art Jacket Colour in Space Patrick Heron, 1999 Compiled to commemorate the completion of Big Painting Sculpture autumn 1998 Publication material based on the exhibition Colour in space Patrick Heron public projects at Tate Gallery St Ives June October 1998
