Schuh,1985* Paradise on the Steppe Joseph S. Height,1973 Spaces of the Mind Elaine Jahner,2004-01-01 Spaces of the Mind reveals how both immigrant European and modern Native communities and individuals use oral and written narratives to define and center themselves in time and space Elaine A Jahner skillfully weaves together years of fieldwork among the Standing Rock Sioux in North Dakota her own memories of growing up in a German Russian town across the Missouri River from the Standing Rock Sioux and an illuminating set of narrative concepts Spaces of the Mind proposes a theory of cognitive style that emphasizes the ways in which distinct cultural identities are expressed through the structure of a narrative and the unfolding of its performance telling or reading Themes of creativity and survival amid loss pervade the stories told by Natives about themselves and their past when discussing the inundation of the original Standing Rock Sioux village during the Oahe Dam construction in the 1950s Immigrant Germans and Alsatians struggled to reconcile the hardships of the northern Plains with what they left behind in the Old World and the narratives of a German Russian community reflect and encourage survival in the face of transition Jahner also studies how two prominent novelists James Welch a member of the Blackfeet community and Mildred Walker who left her native New England for the West perceive a single landscape the state of Montana and how it has influenced their thought and narratives Spaces of the Mind provides a fresh understanding of Western literature and culture encourages a reconsideration of the formation and modern character of the American West and contributes to a fuller appreciation of the significance of narrative Going Blind Mara Faulkner, OSB,2012-03-15 Finalist for the 2010 Minnesota Book Award presented by the Friends of the Saint Paul Public Library Mara Faulkner grew up in a family shaped by Irish ancestry a close to the bone existence in rural North Dakota and the secret of her father s blindness along with the silence and shame surrounding it Dennis Faulkner had retinitis pigmentosa a genetic disease that gradually blinded him and one that may blind many members of his family including the author Moving and insightful Going Blind explores blindness in its many permutations within the context of the author s family more broadly as a disability marked by misconceptions and as a widely used cultural metaphor Mara Faulkner delicately weaves her family s story into an analysis of the roots and ramifications of the various metaphorical meanings of blindness touching on the Catholic Church of the 1940s and 1950s Japanese internment the Germans from Russia who dominated her hometown and the experiences of Native people in North Dakota Neither sentimental nor dispassionate the author asks whether it s possible to find gifts when sight is lost An Analysis of German-Russian Houses in South Dakato Based on Their Origin, Form and Materials Michael H. Stereotypes in Literatures and Cultures Rahilya Geybullayeva, 2010 Annotation Imaginative representations of different cultures are one of the major stumbling blocks to understanding deepening the gap between people as they are passed from one text to another especially in periods of historical transition These transfers are sometimes innocent while at other times they serve political agendas The sample of images and estimations of others becomes a priority and frequently for this reason stereotypical This is the subject of investigation for the majority of the authors in this collection This book with articles presented here is an attempt to understand the core of confirmed or standardized social norms The book contains articles in English and in Russian language

American & British Genealogy & Heraldry, 1983 Poasis II Pierre Joris, 2025-09-09

Poasis II gathers Joris's major poetic works from 2000 to 2024 These nomadically shape shifting poems range widely across times places and cultures addressing for example the 2010 Deepwater Horizon disaster in a quasi opera libretto the meditations of tenth century revolutionary poet sufi teacher and thinker Mansur al Hallaj an homage to his old friend and collaborator Jerome Rothenberg 1931 2024 a list poem celebrating Herman Melville's 200 birthday and extracts from his Book of Cormorant These sequences are interspersed with shorter works such as poems addressing Paul Celan upon completing translations of that poet's oeuvre Dante's expulsion from Florence and more As he says in the poem The Poet's Job pick up everything that shines discard the gold keep the light Or as Randall Horton suggests these poems are intercontinental as sound and symbol weaves in and out of cultures traditions they critique inform teach in a multiverse of languages they love The beauty as with all of Joris's literary work is when language is allowed to be nomadic and unbound Published with the support of Kultur lx Arts Council

Out of Eden: The Peopling of the World Stephen Oppenheimer, 2012-03-01 In a brilliant synthesis of genetic archaeological linguistic and climatic data Oppenheimer challenges current thinking with his claim that there was only one successful migration out of Africa In 1988 Newsweek headlined the startling discovery that everyone alive on the earth today can trace their maternal DNA back to one woman who lived in Africa 150 000 years ago It was thought that modern humans populated the world through a series of migratory waves from their African homeland Now an even more radical view has emerged that the members of just one group are the ancestors of all non Africans now alive and that this group crossed the mouth of the Red Sea a mere 85 000 years ago It means that not only is every person on the planet descended from one African Eve but every non African is related to a more recent Eve from that original migratory group This is a revolutionary new theory about our origins that is both scholarly and entertaining a remarkable account of the kinship of all humans Further details of the findings in this book are presented at www.bradshawfoundation.com/stephenoppenheimer Library Occurrent, 1974 Index to newspapers in
