Salvation And Damnation Theology Today 41:

Understanding Difficult Scriptures in a Healing Way Matthew Linn, Sheila Fabricant Linn, Dennis Linn, 2001 A resource that helps readers of the Bible to read its difficult passages included in ways that enhance their sense of loving connection so that they feel closer to God themselves others and their world

The Geography of Hell in the Teaching of Jesus Kim Papaioannou, 2013-09-19 The topic of hell has held a strange fascination for believers through the centuries becoming the subject of paintings sermons books articles and much more For many it has been a source of terror for most a wellspring of questions Is there such a thing as hell How long will it last Who will go there Is hell fair In this study Kim Papaioannou tackles the topic at its most foundational level in the words and teaching of Jesus Rather than attempt overarching and all encompassing answers he begins instead with a detailed study of the relevant texts and builds from there upwards The result is a picture that is not only coherent and satisfying but more importantly solidly based on biblical exegesis of the most refined nature Papaioannou concludes by putting hell into a more palatable and biblically sound perspective Though unreservedly scholarly the study is written in such a way that lay readers can understand and enjoy it

Global Dictionary of Theology William A. Dyrness, Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2009-10-25 Theological dictionaries are foundational to any theological library But until now there has been no Global Dictionary of Theology a theological dictionary that presumes the contribution of the Western tradition but moves beyond it to embrace and explore a full range of global expressions of theology The Global Dictionary of Theology is inspired by the shift of the center of Christianity from the West to the Global South But it also reflects the increase in two way traffic between these two sectors as well as the global awareness that has permeated popular culture to an unprecedented degree The editorial perspective of the Global Dictionary of Theology is an ecumenical evangelicalism that is receptive to discovering new facets of truth through listening and conversation on a global scale Thus a distinctive feature of the Global Dictionary of Theology is its conversational approach Contributors have been called on to write in the spirit of engaging in a larger theological conversation in which alternative views are expected and invited William A Dyrness Veli Matti Kärkkäinen Juan F Martinez and Simon Chan edit approximately 250 articles written by over 100 contributors representing the global spectrum of theological perspectives Pastors theological teachers theological students and lay Christian leaders will all find the Global Dictionary of Theology to be a resource that unfolds new dimensions and reveals new panoramas of theological perspective and inquiry Here is a new launching point for doing theology in today's global context

Good Goats Dennis Linn, Sheila Fabricant Linn, Matthew Linn, 1994 Through a blending of story scripture and theology this book tackles questions of sin hell vengeance in such a way that readers are led to transformation and healing

Men of One Book Ian J Maddock, 2012-08-30 The proposal of this book is to guide the reader to the contrastive ministries of the two most dominant preachers of the eighteenth century evangelical revival In a wonderful comparative approach the author draws John Wesley and George Whitefield's portraits and explores their life and practice as well as their relationship Committed to the principle that the whole world was their parish Wesley and Whitefield manifested their singular desire to be men of one book through preaching ministries that were equally committed to the spread of the gospel throughout the transatlantic world Edinburgh 2010 David A. Kerr, Kenneth R. Ross, 2009 The Centenary of the World Missionary Conference held in Edinburgh 1910 is a suggestive moment for many people seeking direction for Christian mission in the 21st century Several different constituencies within World Christianity are holding significant events around 2010 Since 2005 an international group has worked collaboratively to develop an interncontinental and multid denominational project now known as Edinburgh 2010 and based at New College University of Edinburgh This initiative brings together representatives of twenty different global Christian bodies representing all major Christian denominations and confessions and many different strands of mission and church life to prepare for the Centenary Daryl Balia International Director Edinburgh 2010 International Books in Print ,1979 The Metaphysics of Dante's Comedy Christian Moevs, 2008-10-13 The recovery of Dante's metaphysics which are very different from our own is essential argues Christian Moevs if we are to resolve what has been called the central problem in the interpretation of the Comedy That problem is what to make of the Comedy's claim to the status of revelation vision or experiential record as something more than imaginative literature In this book Moevs offers the first sustained treatment of the metaphysical picture that grounds and motivates the Comedy and the relation between those metaphysics and Dante's poetics Moevs arrives at the radical conclusion that Dante believed that all of what we perceive as reality the spatio temporal world is in fact a creation or projection of conscious being Armed with this new understanding Moevs is able to shed light on a series of perennial issues in the interpretation of the Comedy The End(s) of Religion Eric Bain-Selbo, 2022-01-13 Eric Bain Selbo argues that the study of religion from philosophers to psychologists and historians of religion to sociologists has separated out the ends or goals of religion and thus created the conditions by which institutional religion is increasingly irrelevant in contemporary Western culture There is ample evidence that institutional religion is in trouble and little evidence that it will strengthen in the future giving some reason to believe that we are in the process of seeing the end of religion At the same time various cultural practices have met in the past and continue to meet today certain fundamental human needs needs that we might identify as religious that now are being fulfilled through what Bain Selbo calls the religion of culture The End s of Religion traces the way that the very study of religion has led to institutional religion being viewed as just one human institution that can address our particular religious needs rather than the sole institution to do so In turn ultimately we can begin to see how other institutions or forms of culture can function to serve these same needs or ends William James on Ethics and Faith Michael R. Slater, 2009-09-10 A new interpretation of James's ethical and religious thought focusing on the prominent role these views played in his philosophy Melancholy, Medicine and Religion in Early Modern England Mary Ann Lund, 2010-01-07 Lund demonstrates the significance of Burton's The Anatomy of Melancholy within early modern literary culture covering religious and medical issues Second Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore, Including the Additions Made Since 1882 Johns Hopkins University. Peabody Institute. Library, George Peabody Library, 1899 Hospitable God George Newlands, Allen Smith, 2016-07-22 Exploring the hospitality of God and its implications for human thought and action this book examines the concepts of hospitality as cognitive tools for reframing our thinking about God divine action and human response in discipleship Hospitality is imagined as an interactive symbol changing perspectives and encouraging stable environments of compassionate construction in society Human rights are of crucial importance to the wellbeing of the people of our planet But there is a sense in which they will always be an emergency measure a response to evils as they are happening The authors argue that a hospitable comparative theology reaches out to bring Christian hospitality into the dialogue of world religions and cultures It will respect the identity of particular groups and yet will strive for a cosmopolitan sharing of common values It will respect tradition but also openness to reform and re imagining It will encourage convergence and development in a fluid stream of committed hospitalities

The biblical illustrator: or, Anecdotes [&c.] on the verses of the Bible, by J.S. Exell Joseph Samuel Exell, 1886

Dialectical Theology and Jacques Ellul Jacob E. Van Vleet, 2014 Argues that the work of Jacques Ellul is frequently misread on account of inattention to the theological underpinning that governs Ellul's thought This book offers an introduction to Ellul's thought his contribution to theology and philosophy and how his philosophy of technology is both theologically informed and culturally relevant The Doctrine of God John C. Peckham, 2019-09-05 John C Peckham introduces and engages with major questions about God's nature and how God relates to the world Does God change Does God have emotions Can God do anything Does God know the future Does God always attain what God desires And is God entirely good This textbook provides a clear and concise overview of the issues involved in these and other questions exploring prominent contemporary approaches to the main issues relative to how to conceive of the God world relationship within Christian theology In so doing Peckham surveys a range of live options regarding each of the primary questions briefly considering where each falls within the spectrum of the Christian tradition and providing clear and readily understandable explanations of the technical issues involved The result is a stimulating survey of the most prominent options in Christian theology relative to divine attributes and the God world relationship offered in an accessible format for students Designed for classroom use this volume includes the following features study questions for each chapter suggestions for further reading for each chapter glossary Dante's Purgatorio and Paradiso Denton Jaques Snider, 1893 The Collected Writings of Denton J. Snider ... Denton Jaques Snider, 1921 The Evangelical Parallel New Testament John R. Kohlenberger (III), 2003 The Evangelical Parallel New Testament features the New Testaments of eight translations that are used by various segments within the American evangelical community today It includes the recently published English Standard Version Holman Christian Standard Version The Message the New Living Translation and Today's New International Version

The EPNT shows the translation philosophies and word choices made by diverse groups of evangelical scholars in the last three decades of the Twentieth Century Twentieth Century Christian Responses to Religious Pluralism David Pitman, 2016-02-17 Twentieth Century Christian Responses to Religious Pluralism begins with the recognition that the traditional three fold typology adopted by Christians in responding to other living world religions is no longer adequate and offers a much more sophisticated and developed approach This is accomplished with particular reference to ten key Twentieth Century theologians each of whom had significant influence in the field of inter religious studies both during their lifetime and beyond The author rejects the exclusivism and triumphalism of traditional Christian approaches and argues strongly and persuasively that the future for inter religious relationships lies in what he describes as classical pluralism and in an understanding of the importance of difference for inter faith dialogue Presenting an accessible introduction to the contemporary issues and challenges facing all those engaged in the further development of inter faith relationships dialogue and partnership between the world religions Pitman argues that the future of world peace and prosperity depends on the outcome
