

A woman with long dark hair, wearing a long green dress, stands on a grassy hill next to a large, rustic wooden cross. She is leaning her arms against the cross. The background features a vast landscape with rolling hills and mountains under a dramatic sky with soft, golden light from a setting or rising sun. The overall mood is peaceful and spiritual.

Salvation Tomorrow:

Tomorrow's Church Today Michael Kelly, 2016-09-20 In his last interview the late Italian Cardinal and former Archbishop of Milan Carlo Maria Martini said the need for deep reform in the Catholic Church was urgent and long overdue because the Church is 200 years behind the times The reference to 200 years clearly points to the watershed in European life that the French Revolution and the Enlightenment became Vatican II was one attempt to meet the challenge of relevance to our times But its best efforts have been on ice since the late 1970s Now a new opportunity arrives in the pontificate of Jorge Mario Bergoglio And the movement he has initiated is evangelical in source and comprehensive in reach But as many observers have pointed out it will not be lasting if it does not lead to sustainable structural change to reform that accompanies renewal In Tomorrow's Church Today five highly qualified commentators focus on what lies ahead for the Church to be reformed if it is to meet the challenges of the 21st Century o A theologian and historian Massimo Faggioli who targets how ministry and leadership can be reshaped authentically for our times o A journalist and radio host for the Australian Broadcasting Corporation the ABC Geraldine Dougue writes a candid piece on how she would advise Pope Francis on the state of the Church o A reporter and analyst with 30 years experience of moves and machinations in the Eternal City Robert Mickens o A bishop with a lifetime of experience of ministering to the divorced and remarried and the benefit of legal and biblical scholarship to support his approach Geoffrey Robinson o A biblical scholar who examines much of what's taken for granted in the governance of the Church and exposes where it is left wanting Antony Campbell and o A bishop whose forced resignation exposes the deficiencies of a system of governance devoid of basics due process and respect for natural rights But the Catholic Church is not its clerics scholars and commentators It is the baptised Geraldine Doogue is a celebrated Australian broadcaster and commentator whose Introduction speaks for and from the experience of the mass of Catholics Theology without Borders William A. Dyrness, Oscar García-Johnson, 2015-11-24 Global theology represents one of the most important trends in theology today What does it mean to do theology in a global context How can Christian theology be understood as a conversation between different parts of the world and various streams of Christian history This concise introduction explores the major issues involved in rethinking theology in light of the explosion of world Christianity Combining the voices of a Western and a non Western theologian it integrates Western theological tradition with emerging global perspectives This work will be of interest to theology and missiology students as well as church leaders and readers interested in the changing face of world Christianity Emerging Voices in Global Christian Theology William Dyrness, 2003-12-30 There are some new voices emerging in Christian theological conversation these days They do not speak with American or Western European accents but reflect their settings in Africa Asia and Latin America Since they come from many places the theological questions they ask are not ones we are used to in the West They are as likely to speak of ancestor worship or political oppression as they are of church growth or evangelism One thing is clear we cannot listen to their cries of hope or despair without being deeply moved This book gives an opportunity to listen in to important conversations going on in different parts of the world These Christian theologians do not respond to a common set of questions but are setting their own agendas of theological discussion With some general introductory comments these pieces are meant to stimulate an appetite for further exploration There seems little doubt that the major voices in theology in the next generation will share these non western accents

Tomorrow's God Robert N. Goldman, 2019-09-19 What is the relationship between the Hebrew Bible and modern science To answer this question Robert Goldman invites the reader on a carefully guided intellectual journey spanning centuries of theological philosophical and scientific thought before arriving at his provocative conclusion He begins with the Hebrew Bible examining the ancient concepts of Olam and Yahweh whose meanings are often lost in translation Using these concepts as a lens he explores Spinoza s heretical at the time theological views probes Einstein s theory of space time and confronts formidable questions about human capacity for evil through the writings of Elie Wiesel and Etty Hillesum Using simple accessible language Goldman ties together these diverse perspectives as well as those of Plato Maimonides Godel and others and interweaves them with his own insights Ultimately he crafts a hopeful vision of a humankind and a God who are evolving toward one another fueled by good actions broader consciousness and deeper human connection

The Brother up Next Braxton King,2011-06-07 Author Braxton King has put together basic fundamental guidelines for a church in the process of making an earthly decision for the office of deacon King points out very vividly that there are divine requirements to be followed by the person seeking this office along with the church requirements before ordination can be conducted The men who must fill the shoes of deacon must be able to stand at a time when the rising tide of secularism is smashing in the walls of the church They have inherited this responsibility because it is through lack of responsibility and trust in God that the church lays in grave decline and demise of spiritual obedience King has observed that the church has wallowed in fragments of Christian clichs and paraphernalia causing people who look for answers at church to wonder through life with little meaning and fulfillment The Bible message that they hear in many churches from men is so watered down that it has almost no relevance to what people face in real life The Brother Up Next seeks to turn the men of the church to the motive of being obedient to Gods word A Missiology of the Road J

Kevin Livingston,2014-09-25 David Bosch 1929 1992 was one of the foremost mission theologians of the twentieth century a prolific scholar committed church leader and active participant in the global conciliar and evangelical mission movements His distinctive role in the South African church's struggle against apartheid is less well known however After reviewing Bosch's background and exploring key themes in his understanding of mission and evangelism Livingston explores Bosch's legacy from the perspective of the missionary nature of the church The church is God's kingdom community acting as a witness to and instrument of the coming reign of God The church is God's alternative community simultaneously set apart from the world but also existing for the sake of the world exemplifying the radical implications of Christ's new community It is also God's reconciled and reconciling community serving as a sign and embodiment of God's love in Christ For those acquainted with Bosch only as the author of his magisterial Transforming Mission A Missiology of the Road shows how Bosch integrated his theology and practice in a faithful contextually relevant way within South Africa and the global church
