Sam Mclaughlin:

Armstrong County, Pennsylvania, 1914 The Forgotten Legend Shawn Henshall, 2020-11-02 For generations Canadian artists have made their mark on the world with countless individuals rising to fame on stage and screen and as frontrunners in the various arts inspiring and influencing all who come after them One of these legends has been largely forgotten though his contribution to the arts have inspired the likes of Monty Python and Kids in the Hall and brought hope and laughter to troops serving their countries at home and overseas all the while pushing boundaries as a prolific artist illustrator author and actor This book tells the story of forgotten legend John Wilson Jack McLaren from his birth in Scotland to his early years in Canada becoming a soldier in WWI entertaining his comrades in arms on the stages of Europe his business career after the war his deep involvement with the Group of Seven his membership in Toronto's famed Arts Letters Club and his eventual retirement to the community of Benmiller near Goderich Ontario where he passed away in 1988 His is a story that deserves to be told and remembered The Auto Pact Maureen Irish, 2004-01-01 Canada and the United States signed the Automotive Products Trade Agreement Auto Pact in 1965 thus resolving a competitive crisis in Canada s auto industry and extending that industry s vitality for another 35 years until a decision of the World Trade Organization WTO in February 2000 determined that the Pact violated international trading rules Following an unsuccessful appeal by Canada to the WTO's Appellate Body the pact formally came to an end in February 2001 For policymakers and scholars concerned with international trade the story of the Pact presents a fascinating case in its own right The great value of this remarkable book however is its elucidation of the main issue underlying the Pact and its forced ending the relationship between international trade rules on the one hand and investment measures intended to encourage local economic activity on the other In this connection the Canadian auto industry and centered in Windsor Ontario directly across the river from Detroit the heart of the industry in the U S and offers an intensely concentrated sample of the triple nexus of investment labour and trade that lies at the core of economic development worldwide Sixteen expert authors both practitioners and academics here open perspectives on this nexus that are of profound significance for the future of international trade These encompass such matters as the following and the vulnerabilities of a local community dependent on trade and open borders and labour union tensions engendered by trade rule levelling that takes little or no account of national or local economic realities and implications for developing countries of the WTO finding that a production to sales ratio is a prohibited export subsidy and the impact of Mexico s role under NAFTA on the Canadian auto industry national and local regulation of government subsidies intended to attract investment and ongoing multinational efforts to create a multilateral regime to protect and regulate foreign direct investment and and the persistent failure of the WTO to reach a consensus on labour standards despite the clear provisions of major international law instruments All these issues and more are brought into sharp focus by the history of the Auto Pact and the implications of its demise For this reason this collection of insightful essays will be of incomparable value to professionals in every area of international trade The Auto Pact Investment Labour and the WTO was produced with the support of the Canadian American Research Centre for Law and Policy at the Faculty of Law University of Windsor Dominion of Capital Don Nerbas, 2013-12-06 In the critical decades following the First World War the Canadian political landscape was shifting in ways that significantly recast the relationship between big business and government As public pressures changed the priorities of Canada's political parties many of Canada's most powerful businessmen struggled to come to terms with a changing world that was less sympathetic to their ideas and interests than before Dominion of Capital offers a new account of relations between government and business in Canada during a period of transition between the established expectations of the National Policy and the uncertain future of the twentieth century Don Nerbas tells this fascinating story through close portraits of influential business and political figures of this period including Howard P Robinson Charles Dunning Sir Edward Beatty R S McLaughlin and C D Howe that provide insight into how events in different sectors of the economy and regions of the country shaped the political outlook and strategies of the country s business elite Drawing on business political social and cultural history Nerbas revises standard accounts of government business relations in this period and sheds new light on the challenges facing big business in early twentieth century Canada

Don Mills Scott Kennedy, 2017-02-18 How Toronto s own city farms were crowded out First settled in the early nineteenth century the area now known as Don Mills retained its rural character until the end of the Second World War After the war population growth resulted in pressure to develop the area around Toronto and in a relatively short time the landscape of Don Mills was irreparably altered Today the farms are all gone as are almost all of the barns and farmhouses Fields and forests have been replaced by the industries homes and shops of Canada's first subdivision In Don Mills From Forests and Farms to Forces of Change author Scott Kennedy remembers Don Mills as it was and takes great care to make sure that the farms and farmers are not forgotten Cadillac V-16s Lost and Found Christopher W. Dukes, Essie N. Helper Morgan, 2008 In the 1840s pioneers settled on the history picturesque lands surrounding the Alafia River With glistening waters that gave life to plush foliage and citrus trees gracing its banks the Alafia stretched westward before flowing into the Gulf of Mexico Forty years later phosphate was discovered in the Bone Valley area and miners began arriving in what is now Mulberry Florida The industrial activity of the town encouraged economic growth and soon demanded the need for a railroad to accommodate Mulberry's expanding lumber and mining trade In 1901 the town was officially incorporated bringing a respected identity and well deserved peace to the people of the area Named for a lone tree that served as a local mail drop the town of Mulberry was born The Wartime Letters of Leslie and Cecil Frost, 1915-1919 R.B. Fleming, 2011-04-07 The Wartime Letters of Leslie and Cecil Frost 1915 1919 brings to light the correspondence between two officer brothers and their family at home from 1915 to 1919 Despite wartime censorship Leslie and Cecil wrote frank and forthright letters that show how the young men viewed the war as well as what they observed both during training and from the trenches in some of the war s bloodiest battles. The letters also deal with the war s political context including conscription and the Union government as well as social issues such as the emerging role of women the role of the growing middle class nativism and the use of liquor overseas R B Fleming the collection s editor contends that Leslie Frost s military experiences and hospitalization affected his policies as premier of

Ontario 1949 1961 especially those related to medicare and liquor control laws Frost's government was the first to pass laws providing penalties for racial ethnic and gender discrimination on private property creating a movement that led to the Ontario Human Rights Code The Wartime Letters of Leslie and Cecil Frost 1915 1919 makes a significant contribution to military history and social history Fleming places the letters in context and shows the value of their commentary This book will be of interest to the general reader as well as scholars of military history and social history Wilson, Kevin Shea, Graham MacLachlan, 2017-09-09 Without J P Bickell Toronto wouldn t have the Maple Leafs A self made man who left a giant mark on Canada Bickell was also an industrial giant a wartime leader and a philanthropist a man whose legacy continues to this day The Consummate Canadian Mary Willan Mason, 1999-01-15 Samuel Edward Weir Q C 1898 1981 a man both loved and reviled with scorn was born in London Ontario Descended from pioneer stock with roots in both Ireland and Germany Samuel Weir possessed incisive wit exceptional intelligence and a passionate zest for any subject that caught his eye Over a period of sixty years he built an extraordinary collection of approximately one thousand works of outstanding art and sculpture This extensively researched biography of a talented yet quixotic lawyer who contributed much to Canada's heritage begins in the early 19th century and covers well over a hundred years of our nation's growth until his death at his home River Brink in Queenston Ontario Today River Brink is the gallery in which The Weir Collection is exhibited and housed
