Conservation of Time-Based Media Art Deena Engel, Joanna Phillips, 2022-11-02 Conservation of Time based Media Art is the first book to take stock of the current practices and conceptual frameworks that define the emerging field of time based media conservation which focuses on contemporary artworks that contain video audio film slides or software components Written and compiled by a diverse group of time based media practitioners around the world including conservators curators registrars and technicians among others this volume offers a comprehensive survey of specialized practices that have developed around the collection preservation and display of time based media art Divided into 23 chapters with contributions from 36 authors and 85 additional voices the narrative of this book provides both an overview and detailed guidance on critical topics including the acquisition examination documentation and installation of time based media art cross medium and medium specific treatment approaches and methods the registration storage and management of digital and physical artwork components collection surveys and project advocacy lab infrastructures staffing and the institutional implementation of time based media conservation Conservation of Time based Media Art serves as a critical resource for conservation students and for a diverse professional audience who engage with time based media art including conservation practitioners and other collection caretakers curators art historians collectors gallerists artists scholars and academics Museum Transformations Annie E. Coombes,Ruth B.

Phillips,2020-11-17 MUSEUM TRANSFORMATIONS DECOLONIZATION AND DEMOCRATIZATION Edited By ANNIE E COOMBES AND RUTH B PHILLIPS Museum Transformations Decolonization and Democratization addresses contemporary approaches to decolonization greater democratization and revisionist narratives in museum exhibition and program development around the world The text explores how museums of art history and ethnography responded to deconstructive critiques from activists and poststructuralist and postcolonial theorists and provided models for change to other types of museums and heritage sites The volume s first set of essays discuss the role of the museum in the narration of difficult histories and how altering the social attitudes and political structures that enable oppression requires the recognition of past histories of political and racial oppression and colonization in museums Subsequent essays consider the museum s new roles in social action and discuss experimental projects that work to change power dynamics within institutions and leverage digital technology and new media Art/Basel/Miami Beach ,2004 The Long Now Uta Barth,2010 Text by Jonathan Crary Russell Ferguson Holly Myers Collecting and Provenance Jane Milosch,Nick Pearce,2019-10-28 The study of provenance the history of the creation and ownership of an artefact work of art or specimen provides insights into the history of taste and collecting illuminating the social economic and historic trends in which an object was created and collected It is as much a history of people as it is of objects and its study often reveals intricate networks of relationships patterns of activity and motivations This book promotes the study of the history of collecting and collections in all their variety through the lens of provenance and explores the subject as a cross disciplinary activity Perhaps for the first time in a publication it draws on expertise ranging from art history and anthropology to natural history and law looking at periods from antiquity through the 18th century and the Holocaust era to the present and materials from Europe and the Americas to China and the Pacific The issues raised are wide ranging touching on aspects of authenticity cultural meaning and material transformation and economic and commercial drivers as well as collector and object biography The book fills a gap in the study of collecting and provenance taking the subject holistically and from multiple standpoints better to reflect the widening interest in provenance from a range of disciplinary perspectives This book will be a service to the field from established scholars and museum professionals to students of collecting history cultural heritage and museum studies The Concise Focal

Encyclopedia of Photography Michael Peres, 2014-06-20 Defining photography is impossible Revealing it is another matter and that's what The Concise Focal Encyclopedia of Photography does with each turn of the page History The technical origins and evolution of photography are half of the story The other half consists of the ways that cultural forces have transformed photography into a constellation of practices more diverse than any other mode of representation Photographers can tell a more in depth story through a photo like Dorothea Lange's Migrant Mother than a journalist ever could with the written word alone Major themes and practitioners Over 25 entries many with supporting illustrations examine the figures trends and ideas that have contributed most heavily to the history and current state of photography Contemporary issues The issues influencing photography today are more complex than at any other time in its history Questions of ethics desire perception digitization and commercialization all vie for attention Hear what the experts have to say about crucial issues such as whether or not the images we take today will last the test of time and if so how When material is covered this skillfully concise is no compromise The Concise Focal Encyclopedia of Photography is packed with useful information compelling ideas and best of all pure pleasure

Ethics of Contemporary Collecting Jen Kavanagh, Ellie Miles, Rosamund Lily West, Susanna Cordner, 2024-10-09 Ethics of Contemporary Collecting addresses pressing and pertinent issues around ethical contemporary collecting reflecting on how practices are evolving or in flux Across three sections each containing live sector subjects from the climate crisis to digital collecting to centring communities this book collates a combination of case studies and in depth chapters by leading practitioners working in the field These pieces are instructive and provide practical transferable examples of how people have approached these challenges It highlights examples of leading practice in the field and illustrates ethical approaches to contemporary collecting as work in this area progresses and our conversations about it advance To reflect this ongoing growth the book closes with an Activations section of discussion prompts intended to keep the conversations and progress on individual institutional and societal levels going Ethics of Contemporary Collecting is an indispensable tool for informing training and educating the next generation of curators and collection professionals and inspiring future collecting projects The Road to Parnassus: Artist Strategies in Contemporary Art Diego Mantoan, 2020-10-06 How can one become a successful artist Where should one start a career in the art world What are useful strategies to achieve recognition in the art system Such questions hoard in students minds ever since entering art school and they probably chase every kind of art professional who is at an early career stage The Road to Parnassus tries to understand what makes a good start in today s art world who are influential players in the field and which strategies might apply The swift career ascension of Glasgow artist Douglas Gordon one of today s leading visual artists and of the broader YBA generation that rose into worldwide prominence in the 1990s Damien Hirst and Sarah Lucas among the best known serves as a convenient case to analyse contemporary artist strategies This book takes a multidisciplinary approach spanning from traditional art history to sociology and economics pursuing the reconstruction of the field of forces in art as intended by French sociologist Pierre Bourdieu Compared to previous publications on art system dynamics such as Thompson s The 12 Million Stuffed Shark this book offers an enhanced understanding of the factors that allow a young artist to enter the arena of contemporary art The present research should help uncover the art system logic which appears enigmatic to non experts revealing that artists are aware they need to consider global trends beat competitors and meet the demands of dealers collectors curators and museums This book furthers existing contributions on the YBAs for example Stallabrass High Art Lite offering innovative conclusions on recent British art such as on the duality between London and Glasgow the gender opposition among emerging artists and the predominance of resourceful authors

Unfinished Kelly Baum, Andrea Bayer, Sheena Wagstaff, 2016-03-01 This groundbreaking book explores the evolving concept of unfinishedness as essential to understanding art movements from the Renaissance to the present day Unfinished features more than 200 works created in a variety of media by artists ranging from Leonardo Titian Rembrandt Turner and C zanne to Picasso Warhol Twombly Freud Richter and Nauman What unites these works across centuries and media is that each one displays some aspect of being unfinished Essays and case studies by major contemporary scholars address this key concept from the perspective of both the creator and the viewer probing the impact that this long artistic trajectory which can be traced back to the first century has had on modern and contemporary art The book investigates the degrees to which instances of incompleteness were accidental or intentional experimental or conceptual Also included are illuminating interviews with contemporary artists including Tuymans Celmins and Marden and parallel considerations of the unfinished in literature and film The result is a multidisciplinary approach and thought provoking analysis that provide valuable insight into the making meaning and critical reception of the unfinished in art Route 30 Improvements, Route 210 to Route 215, Los Angeles County, San Bernardino County ,1996 Rimer Cardillo Samuel Dorsky Museum of Art,2004-12-12 This fully illustrated exhibition catalogue featuring a scholarly essay by exhibition curator Karl Willers and an interview with the artist by Arnd Schneider presents the first comprehensive survey of the work of the Uruguayan artist Rimer Cardillo Included are discussions of the artist s contributions to the fields of printmaking and graphic arts as well as his special commitment to the preservation of indigenous cultures the protection of endangered species and the conservation of vulnerable environments This catalogue is a bilingual edition with the essay and the interview available in both English and Spanish The Collected Works of Samuel Taylor Coleridge Samuel Taylor Coleridge,2019 The Unexpurgated Beaton Cecil Beaton,2007-12-18 Cecil Beaton was one of the great twentieth century tastemakers A photographer artist writer and designer for more than fifty years he was at the center of the worlds of fashion society theater and film The Unexpurgated Beaton brings together for the first time the never before published diaries from 1970 to 1980 and unlike the six slim volumes of diaries published during his lifetime these have been left uniquely unedited Hugo Vickers the executor of Beaton s estate and the author of his acclaimed biography has added extensive and fascinating notes that are as lively as the diary entries themselves As one London reviewer wrote Vickers waspish footnotes are the salt on the side of the dish Beaton treated his other published diaries like his photographs endlessly retouching them but for this volume Vickers went back to the original manuscripts to find the unedited diaries Here is the photographer for British and American Vogue designer of the sets and costumes for the play and film My Fair Lady and the film Gigi with a cast of characters from many worlds Bianca Jagger Greta Garbo David Hockney Truman Capote the Queen Mother and Princess Margaret Mae West Elizabeth Taylor Marlene Dietrich Rose Kennedy and assorted Rothschilds Phippses and Wrightsmans in New York San Francisco Palm Beach Rio and Greece on the Amalfi coast at shooting parties in the English countryside on yachts at garden parties at Buckingham Palace at costume balls in Venice Paris or London Beaton had started as an outsider and developed the power to observe first with his nose pressed up against the glass and then later from within inner circles Vickers has said his eagle eye missed nothing and his diaries are intuitive malicious he took a relish in hating certain figures praising and awestruck Truman Capote once said the camera will never be invented that could capture or encompass all that he actually sees The Unexpurgated Beaton is a book that is not only a great read and wicked fun but a timeless chronicle of our age
