Same Difference Young Writers On Race:

Same Difference San Francisco WritersCorps,1998 This new collection of poems and stories focusses the poignant eye of young people on the issue of race identity and prejudice in what is ultimately a compelling affirmation of diversity Same Difference Victor Martinez,1998 A collection of writings from young San Francisco writers of different ethnicities and cultures Alternative Publishers of Books in North America Byron Anderson,2006 This directory is a unique reference tool that gathers information on significant alternative presses 126 U S presses 19 Canadian and 18 international presses having either a North American address or distributor Thirty three presses are new to this edition The Skin I'm In Pat Thomas,2003-03-01 There are children experiencing the pain of racism This book is here for you to help the cope with that abhorrent reality Racial discrimination is cruel and inhumane especially so to younger children This book encourages kids to accept and love what makes them different and beautiful Parents teachers and gift givers will find language that is simple direct and easier for younger children to understand a book about how to help and empower children suffering from racism a helpful book written by a psychotherapist and counselor a whole series of books for children to explore emotional issues The A First Look At series promotes positive interaction among children parents and teachers and encourage kids to ask questions and confront social and emotional questions that sometimes present problems Books feature appealing full color illustrations on every page plus a page of advice to parents and teachers Annual Report National Endowment for the Arts, Reports for 1980 19 also include the Annual report of the National Council on the Arts Metaphor and Diaspora in Contemporary Writing J. Sell,2012-01-06 Choose ten major contemporary diasporic writers from Abdulrazak to Zadie ask ten leading authorities to write about their use of metaphor and this is the result a timely reassertion of metaphor s unrivalled capacity to encompass sameness and difference and create understanding and empathy across boundaries of nationality race and ethnicity The Dialect of Modernism Michael North,1998-01-22 The Dialect of Modernism uncovers the crucial role of racial masquerade and linguistic imitation in the emergence of literary modernism Rebelling against the standard language and literature written in it modernists such as Joseph Conrad Gertrude Stein T S Eliot Ezra Pound and William Carlos Williams reimagined themselves as racial aliens and mimicked the strategies of dialect speakers in their work In doing so they made possible the most radical representational strategies of modern literature which emerged from their attack on the privilege of standard language At the same time however another movement identified with Harlem was struggling to free itself from the very dialect the modernists appropriated at least as it had been rendered by two generations of white dialect writers For writers such as Claude McKay Jean Toomer and Zora Neale Hurston this dialect became a barrier as rigid as the standard language itself Thus the two modern movements which arrived simultaneously in 1922 were linked and divided by their different stakes in the same language In The Dialect of Modernism Michael North shows through biographical and historical investigation and through careful readings of major literary works that however different they were the two movements are inextricably connected and thus cannot be considered in isolation Each was marked for good and bad by the other Same, Different, Equal Rosemary C. Salomone,2008-10-01 Although coeducation has been the norm within private and public schools since the 1970s single sex education has staged a comeback in recent years as a means of addressing the academic and social problems faced by some students Single sex education raises controversy on ideological grounds and in 1996 the Supreme Court struck down the all male admissions policy at the Virginia Military Institute in a decision that has cast a legal cloud over public initiatives In this timely book Rosemary Salomone offers a reasoned educational and legal argument supporting single sex education as an alternative to coeducation particularly in the case of disadvantaged minority students Salomone examines the history of women s education and exclusion philosophical and psychological theories of sameness and difference findings on educational achievement and performance the research evidence on single sex schooling and the legal questions that have arisen Correcting many of the current misconceptions about single sex education she argues that it is a viable option and that the road to gender equality should be paved with diverse educational opportunities for all students regardless of race class or gender Leading the Night Philo Ikonya,2010-12-01 Deprived of being heard people still have a voice They make it heard in ways that disturb the status quo This book is an engagement with such voices Can Deni Wairi Yaadi matatu people militia people and taxi drivers in Kenya also ask Who am I to be brilliant gorgeous talented fabulous as Nelson Mandela did Why do two men wearing bling bling turn into two snakes dancing in Rika s imagination The web of corruption is intricate No one can lead this night alone It takes many constellations each one twinkling in its own radius Many rays of light dispel darkness The peoples good leadership alone can check politicians terrible ways Philo Ikonya is the author of two poetry anthologies This Bread of Peace and Out if Prison Skating on Thin Ice David Lee Keiser,1999 The Color of Race in America, 1900-1940 Matthew Pratt Guterl,2002-10-30 With the social change brought on by the Great Migration of African Americans into the urban northeast after the Great War came the surge of a biracial sensibility that made America different from other Western nations How white and black people thought about race and how both groups understood and attempted to define and control the demographic transformation are the subjects of this new book by a rising star in American history An elegant account of the roiling environment that witnessed the shift from the multiplicity of white races to the arrival of biracialism this book focuses on four representative spokesmen for the transforming age Daniel Cohalan the Irish American nationalist Tammany Hall man and ruthless politician Madison Grant the patrician eugenicist and noisy white supremacist W E B Du Bois the African American social scientist and advocate of social justice and Jean Toomer the American pluralist and novelist of the interior life Race politics and classification were their intense and troubling preoccupations in a world they did not create would not accept and tried to change The Crisis William Edward Burghardt Du Bois,1926 Outdoor Life ,1913 A Different Mirror Ronald Takaki,2012-06-05 Takaki traces the economic and political history of Indians African Americans Mexicans

Japanese Chinese Irish and Jewish people in America with considerable attention given to instances and consequences of racism The narrative is laced with short quotations cameos of personal experiences and excerpts from folk music and literature Well known occurrences such as the Triangle Shirtwaist Factory Fire the Trail of Tears the Harlem Renaissance and the Japanese internment are included Students may be surprised by some of the revelations but will recognize a constant thread of rampant racism The author concludes with a summary of today s changing economic climate and offers Rodney King s challenge to all of us to try to get along Readers will find this overview to be an accessible cogent jumping off place for American history and political science plus a guide to the myriad other sources identified in the notes Bibliography on

Let America Be America Again Langston Hughes,2022-07-28 A collection of interviews speeches and essays by Langston Hughes Let America Be America Again Conversations with Langston Hughes is a record of a remarkable man talking In texts ranging from early interviews in the 1920s when he was a busboy and scribbling out poems on hotel napkins to major speeches such as his keynote address at the First World Festival of Negro Arts in Dakar Senegal in 1966 Hughes s words further amplify the international reputation he established over the course of five decades through more widely published and well known poems stories novels and plays In these interviews speeches and conversational essays the writer referred to by admirers as the Poet Laureate of the Negro Race and the Dean of Black Letters articulated some of his most powerful critiques of fascism economic and racial oppression and compromised democracy It was also through these genres that Hughes spoke of the responsibilities of the Black artist documented the essential contributions of Black people to literature music and theatre and chronicled the substantial challenges that Black artists face in gaining recognition fair pay and professional advancement And it was through these pieces too that Hughes built on his celebrated work in other literary genres to craft an original tragic comic persona a Blues poet in exile forever yearning for and coming back to a home a nation that nevertheless continues to disappoint and harm him A global traveler Hughes s words Let America be America Again were throughout his career always followed by a caveat America never was America to me Reading Malaysian Literature in English Mohammad A. Quayum,2021-11-18 This book brings together fourteen articles by prominent critics of Malaysian Anglophone literature from five different countries Australia Italy Malaysia Singapore and the US It investigates the thematic and stylistic trends in the literary products of selected writers of the tradition in the genres of drama fiction and poetry from its beginnings to the present focusing mainly on the postcolonial themes of ethnicity gender diaspora and nationalism which are central to the creativity and imagination of these writers The book explores the works of not just the established writers of the tradition but also those who have received little critical attention to date but who are equally gifted such as Adibah Amin Edward Dorall Rehaman Rashid and Huzir Suleiman The chapters collectively address the challenges and achievements of writers in the English language in a country where English is widely used in daily life and yet marginalised in the creative domain to elevate the status of writings in the national language i e Bahasa Malaysia The book will demonstrate that in spite of such recurrent neglect of the medium Malaysia has produced a number of outstanding writers in the language who are comparable in creativity and craftsmanship to writers of other Anglophone traditions The book will be of interest to readers and researchers of Malaysian literature postcolonial literatures minority literatures gender studies and Southeast Asian studies
