Sammlung Lenz Schonberg:

ZERO, 2010 ZERO Sotheby's (London), 2010 Zero : Property from the Sammlung Lenz Schönberg Sotheby's (Firme), 2010 Contemporary Art : Evening Auction Sotheby's (Firm), 2010 Witness to Phenomenon Joseph D. Ketner II, 2017-12-28

Witness to Phenomenon articulates a fresh examination of the German Group Zero Heinz Mack Otto Piene and Gunter Rambow and other new tendency artists who rejected painting and introduced new art media in postwar Europe. Group ZERO evolved into a network across Europe Amsterdam Milan Paris and Zagreb. This pan-European affiliation of artists generated a continuous stream of innovative artistic statements through the 1960s incorporating non-traditional materials and new technologies to create kinetic art, light installations, performances, immersive multimedia installations, monumental land art, and the communication media of video and television. They transformed the visual arts from the inanimate object of art to a sensory experience by adopting the ascendant philosophy of Phenomenology as their conceptual foundation. Drawing from a decade of research on unpublished archives of the artists and critics of this period, this publication positions Group ZERO as a catalytic art moment in the transition from modern to contemporary art.

Polnische Avantgarde, 1930-1990 Neuer Berliner Kunstverein, 1992 Laszlo Moholy-Nagy Louis Kaplan, 1995-05-24

Marking the centenary of the birth of Laszlo Moholy-Nagy (1895-1966), this book offers a new approach to the Bauhaus artist and theorist's multifaceted life and work, an approach that redefines the very idea of biographical writing. In Laszlo Moholy-Nagy, Louis Kaplan applies the Derridean deconstructivist model of the signature effect to an intellectual biography of a Constructivist artist. Inhabiting the borderline between life and work, the book demonstrates how the signature inscribed by Moholy operates in a double space, interweaving signified object and signifying matter, autobiography and autography. Through interpretative readings of over twenty key artistic and photographic works, Kaplan graphically illustrates Moholy's signature effect in action. He shows how this effect plays itself out in the complex of relations between artistic originality and plagiarism, between authorial identity and anonymity, as well as in the problematic status of the work of art in the age of technical reproduction. In this way, the book reveals how Moholy's artistic practice anticipates many of the issues of postmodernist debate and thus has particular relevance today. Consequently, Kaplan clarifies the relationship between avant-garde Constructivism and contemporary deconstruction. This new and innovative configuration of biography, catalyzed by the life writing of Moholy-Nagy, will be of critical interest to artists and writers, literary theorists and art historians.
