Nineteenth Century British Painting Luke Herrmann, 2000 This illuminating volume explores a century in British painting that produced an enormous variety of work ranging from the beginnings of Romanticism in the late 18th century to the British adoption of impressionism in the late 19th century Dividing this prolific period into nine sections the work of each artist is discussed analyzed and presented in biographical context With longer sections devoted to such major figures as Lawrence Turner Constable Rossetti Leighton and Whistler the artists are placed in the framework of their historical social and economic backgrounds The majority of the paintings and drawings that are examined are handsomely reproduced in more than 300 plates making this an excellent choice for students connoisseurs and collectors as well as anyone interested in British art Among Luke Herrmann's books is J M W Turner Watercolours and Drawings Samuel Prout, 1783-1852 Richard Lockett, Samuel Prout, 1985-01-01 Island to Empire Art Gallery of South Australia, Ron Radford, 2005 The important book surveys Britain's art tradition from the British Renaissance in the mid 16th century as the country became the center of the civilized world With the prohibition against the religious imagery that is basic to European art the British developed a down to earth perspective a confidence and an individualism that became their hallmark British Landscape Painting - Nineteenth Century, 1970 English Drawings, Stuart and Georgian Periods Adolf Paul Oppé, 1950 Subjects George VI King of Great Britain 1895 1952 Art collections Catalogs Windsor Castle Royal Library Windsor Castle Art collections Catalogs Windsor Castle Catalogues Drawing English Drawing Private collections Great Britain Catalogs Drawing 18th century England Drawing 17th century England Drawing English Catalogs Drawings English Stuart Period Georgian Period Art Great Britain England Royal Collection London Drawing British 17th 18th 19th centuries 1620s 1820s The Dictionary of British Book Illustrators and Caricaturists, 1800-1914 Simon Houfe, 1978 The Business of Watercolour Simon Fenwick, Greg Smith, 2018-12-17 First published in 1997 this volume will revolutionise the study of watercolour painting in Britain The Royal Watercolour Society archive constitutes a major academic resource covering two hundred years of the history of watercolour painting in Britain The rediscovery in 1980 of the Jenkins Papers the early records of the Society was a major find for the history of British art The archives are substantial and remarkably comprehensive Minutes of annual general meetings Council and committees are all intact extraordinarily the Society's catalogues for its own exhibitions have also survived with details of who bought the pictures and for how much It contains biographical information on several hundred artists who practised throughout the United Kingdom from the end of the eighteenth century to the present day Prepared by the archivist to the RWS Simon Fenwick this is not just a work of reference but an absorbing book to dip into again and again The Society of Painters in Water Colours as it was then titled was founded in 1804 to promote the interests of painters using watercolour and to provide a platform for members to sell their work As such its archives provide an excellent insight into the evolving debate on the status of the artists and their medium and an authoritative account of the way in which watercolour paintings were sold distributed and acquired The substantial introduction by Greg Smith surveys some of the purposes and practices of watercolour from 1750 to the present day and highlights key issues many yet to be examined relating to the study of watercolour His survey is arranged around a number of topics including the notion of watercolour as a British art collecting and display book illustration architectural drawing map making and topography antiquarian studies decorative arts printmaking portrait miniatures and drawings amateur practices and the changing status of the sketch The Athenaeum ,1882 British Watercolors and (U.S.),1993 The revolution in watercolours of the later eighteenth century and its Victorian aftermath is acknowledged to be one of the greatest triumphs of British art Its effect was to transform the modest tinted drawing of the topographer into a powerful and highly flexible means of expression for some of the Romantic era s greatest artists among them Thomas Girtin J M W Turner and John Constable The painters of the next generation were no less ambitious and the range of subject matter and technical inventiveness that was sustained for much of the Victorian period was to set a standard in watercolour painting that was without equal abroad In this magnificently illustrated survey of the great age of British watercolours Andrew Wilton and Anne Lyles trace the development of attitudes to landscape and to the human figure in the landscape from 1750 to 1880 They show how once the traditional pen and ink drawing and its augmented washes of colour had been abandoned in order to paint directly in watercolours without pen outlines the way was open for the powerful Romantic landscapes of the following decade and beyond many of which were painted in the wild mountainous regions of Wales and Scotland During the nineteenth century as the gilt framed exhibition watercolour began to challenge the long established oil painting in terms of size and in brilliance of colour and effect the range of subject matter was broadened to include scenes of country and town life from every part of Britain and increasingly from the Continent too By mid century the Near East was attracting many of the greatest Victorian watercolourists including J E Lewis David Roberts and Edward Lear Other leading Victorians who regularly worked in watercolour include the Pre Raphaelite painters John Everett Millais and William Holman Hunt and the American born James McNeill Whistler all of whom are included in this book BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle ,1890 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 Portraits and Prospects Ulster Museum,Smithsonian Institution.
