San Francisco Creation Of A City:

The Colonial History of the City of San Francisco John Whipple Dwinelle, 1866      San Francisco, Creation of a City Thomas Moulin, Don DeNevi, 1978-01-01      Creating a Place For Ourselves Brett Beemyn, 2013-05-13 Creating a Place For Ourselves is a groundbreaking collection of essays that examines gay life in the United States before Stonewall and the gay liberation movement Along with examining areas with large gay communities such as New York San Francisco and Fire Island the contributors also consider the thriving gay populations in cities like Detroit Buffalo Washington D C Birmingham and Flint demonstrating that gay communities are truly everywhere Contributors Brett Beemyn Nan Alamilla Boyd George Chauncey Madeline Davis Allen Drexel John Howard David Johnson Liz Kennedy Joan Nestle Esther Newton Tim Retzliff Marc Stein Roey Thorpe      Designing San Francisco Alison Isenberg, 2024-09-24 A major urban history of the design and development of postwar San Francisco Designing San Francisco is the untold story of the formative postwar decades when U S cities took their modern shape amid clashing visions of the future In this pathbreaking and richly illustrated book Alison Isenberg shifts the focus from architects and city planners those most often hailed in histories of urban development and design to the unsung artists activists and others who played pivotal roles in rebuilding San Francisco between the 1940s and the 1970s Previous accounts of midcentury urban renewal have focused on the opposing terms set down by Robert Moses and Jane Jacobs put simply development versus preservation and have followed New York City models Now Isenberg turns our attention west to colorful pioneering and contentious San Francisco where unexpectedly fierce battles were waged over iconic private and public projects like Ghirardelli Square Golden Gateway and the Transamerica Pyramid When large scale redevelopment came to low rise San Francisco in the 1950s the resulting rivalries and conflicts sparked the proliferation of numerous allied arts fields and their professionals including architectural model makers real estate publicists graphic designers photographers property managers builders sculptors public interest lawyers alternative press writers and preservationists Isenberg explores how these centrally engaged arts professionals brought new ideas to city regional and national planning and shaped novel projects across urban suburban and rural borders San Francisco s rebuilding galvanized far reaching critiques of the inequitable competition for scarce urban land and propelled debates over responsible public land stewardship Isenberg challenges many truisms of this renewal era especially the presumed male domination of postwar urban design showing how women collaborated in city building long before feminism s impact in the 1970s An evocative portrait of one of the world s great cities Designing San Francisco provides a new paradigm for understanding past and present struggles to define the urban future      History of the San Francisco Committee of Vigilance of 1851 Mary Floyd Williams, 1921      The City Aroused Damon Scott, 2024-01-02 A history of San Francisco that studies change in the postwar urban landscape in relation to the city s queer culture The City Aroused is a lively history of urban development and its influence on queer political identity in postwar San Francisco By reconstructing the planning and queer history of waterfront drinking establishments Damon Scott shows that urban renewal was a catalyst for community organizing among racially diverse operators and patrons with far reaching implications for the national gay rights movement Following the exclusion of suspected homosexuals from the maritime trades in West Coast ports in the early 1950s seamen s hangouts in the city came to resemble gay bars Local officials responded by containing the influx of gay men to a strip of bars on the central waterfront while also making plans to raze and rebuild the area This practice ended when city redevelopment officials began acquiring land in the early 1960s Aided by law enforcement they put these queer social clubs out of business replacing them with heteronormative desexualized land uses that served larger postwar urban development goals Scott argues that this shift from queer containment to displacement aroused a collective response among gay and transgender drinking publics who united in solidarity to secure a place in the rapidly changing urban landscape

Tropical Renditions Christine Bacareza Balance,2016-04-21 In Tropical Renditions Christine Bacareza Balance examines how the performance and reception of post World War II Filipino and Filipino American popular music provide crucial tools for composing Filipino identities publics and politics To understand this dynamic Balance advocates for a disobedient listening that reveals how Filipino musicians challenge dominant racialized U S imperialist tropes of Filipinos as primitive childlike derivative and mimetic Balance disobediently listens to how the Bay Area turntablist DJ group the Invisibl Skratch Piklz bear the burden of racialized performers in the United States and defy conventions on musical ownership to karaoke as affective labor aesthetic expression and pedagogical instrument to how writer and performer Jessica Hagedorn s collaborative and improvisational authorial voice signals the importance of migration and place and how Pinoy indie rock scenes challenge the relationship between race and musical genre by tracing the alternative routes that popular music takes In each instance Filipino musicians writers visual artists and filmmakers work within and against the legacies of the U S Philippine imperial encounter and in so doing move beyond preoccupations with authenticity and offer new ways to reimagine tropical places
