California Department, 1914 A Day in San Francisco Dorothy Bryant, 1982 The parade on Gay Freedom Day 1980 is witnessed by a middle aged politically liberal mother who during one fateful day confronts clear evidence that her son is caught up in a liberation movement going wrong It is fair to call the book a protest novel with the urgent tone of the form drowning out what we might call more literary values This story presented in semi documentary form is a factual historical picture of a largely forgotten decade in San Francisco s Castro District Author s website www.dorothybryant.com/fiction
