The Zebra Murders Prentice Earl Sanders,Ben Cohen,2011-05-01 On October 20 1973 in San Francisco a white couple strolling down Telegraph Hill was set upon and butchered by four young black men Thus began a reign of terror that lasted six months and left fifteen whites dead and the entire city in a state of panic The perpetrators wanted nothing less than a race war With pressure on the San Francisco Police Department mounting daily young homicide detectives Prentice Earl Sanders and his colleague Rotea Gilford both African American were as signed to the cases The problem was Sanders and

Gilford were in the midst of a trail blazing suit against the SFPD for racial discrimination which in those days was rampant The backlash was immediate The force needed Sanders s and Gilford s knowledge of the black community to help stem the brutal murders but the SFPD made it known that in a tight situation no white back up would be forthcoming In those impossible conditions the oppressive white power structure on one hand the violent black radicals on the other Sanders and Gilford knew they were sitting ducks Against all odds they set out to find those guilty of the Zebra Murders and bring them to justice This is their incredible story
