Sanatorium Under The Sign Of The Hourglass:

Sanatorium Under the Sign of the Hourglass Bruno Schulz, 1997 This is the second and final work of Bruno Schulz the acclaimed Polish writer killed by the Nazis during World War II In the words of Isaac Bashevis Singer What he did in his short life was enough to make him one of the most remarkable writers who ever lived Weaving myth fantasy and reality Sanatorium Under the Sign of the Hourglass is to quote Schulz an attempt at eliciting the history of a certain family by a search for the mythical sense the essential core of that history Incarnations of Material Textuality Katarzyna Bazarnik, Izabela Curyło-Klag, 2014-10-02 Liberateure coined from the Latin liber is simultaneously a movement in contemporary Polish literature and a term referring to literary works that integrate text and material features of the book into an organic whole in accordance with the author's design The present volume collects essays inspired by this theoretical concept first proposed by Polish poet Zenon Fajfer in 1999 but soon picked up and elaborated on by international scholars As noted by the contributing authors preceding Jessica Pressman's idea of bookishness and coinciding with N Katherine Hayles' fundamental writings liberateure appeared at the end of the 20th century as if to resume and systematize the intuitions and provocative statements of writers concerned with the future of the book It fits into a wider turn towards the recognition of the embodied nature of information in anthropology literary textual media and AI studies Yet its distinctness consists in the fact that it was suggested by a creative writer and that it proposes to see the authorially shaped materiality of writing in terms of a literary genre The essays collected here present the modernist roots and inspirations of liberateure address the semantics of typography and the question of materiality of literary writing and explore how the abstract body of the printed book is transformed into an experience of embodiment The volume is completed with a reprint of Fajfer's seminal essays with a view to making them more available to English speaking readers The Post-traumatic Theatre of Grotowski and Kantor Magda Romanska, 2014-10-01 Despite its international influence Polish theatre remains a mystery to many Westerners This volume attempts to fill in current gaps in English language scholarship by offering a historical and critical analysis of two of the most influential works of Polish theatre Jerzy Grotowski's Akropolis and Tadeusz Kantor's Dead Class By examining each director's representation of Auschwitz this study provides a new understanding of how translating national trauma through the prism of performance can alter and deflect the meaning and reception of theatrical works both inside and outside of their cultural and historical contexts The Bloomsbury Handbook to Philip Roth Aimee Pozorski, Maren Scheurer, 2023-12-14 The Bloomsbury Handbook to Philip Roth provides a comprehensive must have survey of interdisciplinary scholarship on one of the major American novelists of the 20th and 21st centuries The Bloomsbury Handbook to Philip Roth presents state of the art scholarship on new research methods current debates and future directions in Philip Roth studies It illuminates how Roth one of the most influential American writers of the 20th and 21st centuries not only reflected American history and culture in his important novels but uncannily anticipated our American future Divided into six main sections this Handbook considers such topics The full range of Roth s writing from his novels and short stories to essays and life writing Major interdisciplinary scholarly perspectives across literary studies politics gender studies critical race theory and ecocriticism Roth s literary legacy across contemporary fiction Jewish literature the arts and culture studies Key contexts including American political movements since the 1950s the American Jewish experience and intertextual relationships Uniting scholars and artists who have built the field of Philip Roth studies from the ground up along with emergent scholars from around the world this Handbook includes chapter summaries study questions and an author biography and timeline that includes key dates in Roth s life and publication history It also contains a bibliography of secondary sources for further reading as well as an overview of film and television adaptations

Bruno Schulz and Galician Jewish Modernity Karen Underhill, 2024 In the 1930s through the prose of Bruno Schulz 1892-1942 the Polish language became the linguistic raw material for a profound exploration of the modern Jewish experience Rather than turning away from the language like many of his Galician Jewish colleagues who would choose to write in Yiddish Schulz used the Polish language to explore his own and his generation s relationship to East European Jewish exegetical tradition and to deepen his reflection on golus or exile as a condition not only of the individual and of the Jewish community but of language itself and of matter Drawing on new archival discoveries this study explores Schulz s diasporic Jewish modernism as an example of the creative and also transient poetic forms that emerged on formerly Habsburg territory at the historical juncture between empire and nation state

Kafkaesque Cinema Angelos Koutsourakis,2024-05-31 For all its familiarity as a widely used term e Kafkaesque cinema remains an often baffling concept that is poorly understood by film scholars Taking a cue from Jorge Luis Borges point that Kafka has modified our conception of past and future artists and Andre Bazin s suggestion that literary concepts and styles can exceed authors and e novels from which they emanate this monograph proposes a comprehensive examination of Kafkaesque Cinema in order to understand it as part of a transnational cinematic tradition rooted in Kafka s critique of modernity which however extends beyond the Bohemian author s work and his historical experiences Drawing on a range of disciplines in the Humanities including film literary and theatre studies critical theory and history Kafkaesque Cinema will be the first full length study of the subject and will be a useful resource for scholars and students interested in film theory World Cinema World Literature and politics and representation

See Under: Shoah Marc De Kesel,Bettine Siertsema,Katarzyna Szurmiak,2014-08-28 Did the first generation Holocaust writers not warn us against the risks of imagination Does it not create an illusion that the unimaginable can be imagined the unrepresentable represented Clearly this warning has not been taken up by David Grossman Fully embracing imagination s power his novel See under Love offers a profound reflection on how the twenty first century can assume the heritage of the Shoah and remember the unmemorable in a proper way The essays in this volume reflect on this one novel though each from its own angle Focusing on one single novel shows the surplus value of a multispectral reflection on one central problem in this case the allegedly inconceivable and unspeakable nature of the Shoah

of textual resistance which cannot be broken Or in other words taking off one of Schulz's many masks one will probably never avoid the impression that a new mask has emerged This book contributes to the three most typical critical strategies of reading Schulz's works combinations fragmentations reintegrations being fully aware of course of the relativity of each particular approach In addition the book sets out to explore all of Schulz's creative output i.e. his stories as well as his graphic epistolary and even literary critical works as one of Schulz's main goals was exactly to cross artificially set up boundaries between among other things different artistic media of expression The book for the first time brings together leading Schulzologists Jarzbski Robertson Sproede and their prospective successors Augsburgers Gorin Kato Suchaska Dray ska Underhill Wojda established Polish academics D browski Markowski Skwara Weretiuk and their foreign counterparts De Bruyn Gall Meyer Fraatz Schulte Zieli ski scholars primarily working on other authors Anessi liwa urek and those focusing on other art forms S nchez Pardo Watt The editors introduction offers an overview of seven decades of Schulzology The book is of interest for both readers with a general interest in world literature and or a particular interest in Polish and Jewish studies

Forgiveness and Resentment in the Aftermath of Mass Atrocity Idit Alphandary, 2023-12-04 The author's starting point is the interweaving of forgiveness and resentment in the works of Jewish writers after the Holocaust most especially Hannah Arendt and Jean Am ry to make sense of the catastrophe and to point to a way forward for both victims and perpetrators The insights of these two writers and of several Jewish novelists and poets including Bruno Schulz Paul Celan and Aharon Appelfeld are used to develop accounts of forgiveness and resentment in other cases of mass atrocity around the world The author offers a critical rereading of primary sources that aim to separate resentment from nonviolent resistance and forgiveness from reconciliation Forgiveness and resentment are not as they might first appear mutually exclusive Together with Arendt Am ry and Walter Benjamin it is argued that it is through the interaction between them that victims of mass atrocity become agents of personal and cultural change Together forgiveness and resentment interrupt the present reframe the past and shape the future They can reduce the chasm that separates memory and trust by fashioning new connections between identity and alterity which can open paths to truly ethical coexistence for victims and perpetrators and their descendants
