Bekaj, Peter Wallenstein, 2024-09-02 This book examines the interplay between sanctions and nuclear disarmament and non proliferation The volume aims to tackle three separate but closely intertwined issues It aims to revisit the debate on and deconstruct the concept of sanctions to provide a working theoretical framework to differentiate between positive sanctions or incentives or carrots and negative sanctions to identify the actors who may initiate sanctions i e states regional and or international organizations to ascertain the legality and legitimacy of such sanctions taking place to problematize and discuss the utility of sanctions and so on It aims to disentangle the concepts of nuclear disarmament and non proliferation particularly in light of the most recent geopolitical global shifts on nuclear powers interplay taking place in the background of the war in Ukraine and rising tensions in Southeast Asia and so on Finally it aims to conjoin the cause and effect cases between the application of sanctions on the one hand and the decision by states to pursue nuclear disarmament and non proliferation on the other By doing so the volume helps to update and stimulate the academic and policy debate on the inter relation between sanctions and nuclear disarmament and non proliferation This book will be of much interest to students of nuclear non proliferation economic sanctions security studies and International Relations      Oversight of the Administration's Implementation of the Comprehensive Antiaparthoid [i.e. Anti-Apartheid] Act of 1986 (Public Law 99-440) and an Assessment of Recent South African Political and Economic Developments United States.
