Sanctuary A Story Of American Conscience And Law In Collision:

Sanctuary Ann Crittenden, 1988 A noted journalist offers an in depth account of the people of Arizona and then the nation who challenged law and risked arrest to protect those fleeing the chaos and violence of Central America in order to answer what they deemed a higher law of conscience Religious Ethics and Migration Ilse Ahn, 2013-11-12 What does it mean to provide justice for undocumented workers who have been living among us without proper legal documentation How can we do justice to the undocumented migrants who have been doing the low skilled low paid jobs unwanted by citizens Why should we even try to do justice for people who violate the laws of the society Religious Ethics and Migration Doing Justice to Undocumented Workers addresses these questions from a distinctive religious ethical perspective the Christian theology of forgiveness and radical hospitality In answering these questions the author employs in depth interdisciplinary dialogues with other relevant disciplines such as immigration history global economics political science legal philosophy and social theory He argues that the political appropriation of a Christian theology of forgiveness and the radical hospitality modeled after it are the most practical and justifiable solutions to the current immigration crisis in North America Critical and interdisciplinary in its approach this book offers a unique comprehensive and balanced perspective regarding the urgent immigration crisis Latino Religions and Civic Activism in the United States Gaston Espinosa, Virgilio Elizondo, Jesse Miranda, 2005-08-11 The Latino community in the United States is commonly stereotyped as Roman Catholic and politically passive Latino Religions and Civic Activism in the United States challenges and revises these stereotypes by demonstrating the critical influence of Latino Catholics Evangelicals Pentecostals Mainline Protestants and others on political civic and social engagement in the United States and Puerto Rico It also revises the ostensibly secular narrative of Latino history and politics The authors analyze the critical role that institutional popular and civil religion have played in Latino activism This timely book offers readers a new framework by which to understand and to interpret the central importance of religious symbols rhetoric ideology world views and leaders to Latino religions and politics over the past 150 years Católicos Mario T. García, 2010-01-01 Chicano Catholicism both as a popular religion and a foundation for community organizing has over the past century inspired Chicano resistance to external forces of oppression and discrimination including from other non Mexican Catholics and even the institutionalized church Chicano Catholics have also used their faith to assert their particular identity and establish a kind of cultural citizenship Based exclusively on original research and sources Mario T. García here offers the first major historical study to explore the various dimensions of the role of Catholicism in Chicano history in the twentieth century This is also one of the first significant studies in the still limited field of Chicano religious history Topics range from how early Chicano Catholic intellectuals and civil rights leaders were influenced by Catholic Social Doctrine to the role that popular religion has played in the lives of ordinary men and women in both rural and urban areas García also examines faith based Chicano community movements like Católicos Por La Raza in the 1960s and the Sanctuary movement in

Los Angeles in the 1980s While Latino a history and culture has been for the most part inextricably linked with the tenets and practices of Catholicism there has been very little written until recently about Chicano Catholic history Garc a helps to fill that void and explore the impact both positive and negative that the Catholic experience has had on the Chicano community

Hidden Lives and Human Rights in the United States Lois Ann Lorentzen,2014-07-23 The most comprehensive collection of essays on undocumented immigration to date covering issues not generally found anywhere else on the subject Three fascinating volumes feature the latest research from the country s top immigration scholars In the United States the crisis of undocumented immigrants draws strong opinions from both sides of the debate For those who immigrate concerns over safety incorporation and fair treatment arise upon arrival For others the perceived economic political and cultural impact of newcomers can feel threatening In this informative three volume set top immigration scholars explain perspectives from every angle examining facts and seeking solutions to counter the controversies often brought on by the current state of undocumented immigrant affairs Immigration expert and set editor Lois Lorentzen leads a stellar team of contributors laying out history theories and legislation in the first book human rights sexuality and health in the second and economics politics and morality in the final volume From family separation to human trafficking to notions of citizenship this provocative study captures the human costs associated with this type of immigration in the United States questions policies intended to protect the American way of life and offers strategies for easing tensions between immigrants and natural born citizens in everyday life

Religion in the Neoliberal Age François Gauthier, 2016-04-08 This book together with a complementary volume Religion in Consumer Society focuses on religion neoliberalism and consumer society offering an overview of an emerging field of research in the study of contemporary religion Claiming that we are entering a new phase of state religion relations the editors examine how this is historically anchored in modernity but affected by neoliberalization and globalization of society and social life Seemingly distant developments such as marketization and commoditization of religion as well as legalization and securitization of social conflicts are transforming historical expressions of religion and religiosity yet these changes are seldom if ever understood as forming a coherent structured and systemic ensemble Religion in the Neoliberal

Age includes an extensive introduction framing the research area and linking it to existing scholarship before looking at four key issues 1 How changes in state structures have empowered new modes of religious activity in welfare production and the delivery of a range of state services 2 How are religion state relations transforming under the pressures of globalization and neoliberalism 3 How historical churches and their administrations are undergoing change due to structural changes in society and what new forms of religious body are emerging 4 How have law and security become new areas for solving religious conflicts Outlining changes in both the political institutional and cultural spheres the contributors offer an international overview of developments in different countries and state of the art representation of religion in the new global political economy

Fighting in God's Name Afe Adogame, Olufunke Adeboye, Corey L. Williams, 2020-11-03 This collection book provides a critical inter disciplinary exploration of the relationship between religion conflict violence and tolerance from local global perspectives It focuses mainly on theoretical issues and approaches with contrasting case studies drawn from Africa Europe the Middle East North America and South Asia

Transnational Ruptures Catherine Nolin, 2017-05-15 A key development in international migration in recent years has been the increasing feminization of migrant populations Research attention now focuses not only on the growing number of women on the move but also on their changing gender roles as more female migrants participate as principal wage earners and heads of household rather than as dependants The tensions between population displacement within and beyond Guatemala and the multiple local regional and national realities encountered and reconfigured by these refugee and migrants allow a fascinating window onto the connections and ruptures experienced in a global local world Transnational Ruptures holds great interest and value for a wide readership from scholars who are interested in transnational and refugee studies and international migration to upper level university students in disciplines such as human geography anthropology sociology Latin American Studies gender studies political science and international studies

Passionate Politics Jeff Goodwin, James M. Jasper, Francesca Polletta, 2009-03-09 Emotions are back Once at the center of the study of politics emotions have receded into the shadows during the past three decades with no place in the rationalistic structural and organizational models that dominate academic political analysis With this new collection of essays Jeff Goodwin James M Jasper and Francesca Polletta reverse this trend reincorporating emotions such as anger indignation fear disgust joy and love into research on politics and social protest The tools of cultural analysis are especially useful for probing the role of emotions in politics the editors and contributors to Passionate Politics argue Moral outrage the shame of spoiled collective identities or the joy of imagining a new and better society are not automatic responses to events Rather they are related to moral institutions felt obligations and rights and information about expected effects all of which are culturally and historically variable With its look at the history of emotions in social thought examination of the internal dynamics of protest groups and exploration of the emotional dynamics that arise from interactions and conflicts among political factions and individuals Passionate Politics will lead the way toward an overdue reconsideration of the role of emotions in social movements and politics generally Contributors Rebecca Anne Allahyari Edwin Amenta Collin Barker Mabel Berezin Craig Calhoun Randall Collins Frank Dobbin Jeff Goodwin Deborah B Gould Julian McAllister Groves James M Jasper Anne Kane Theodore D Kemper Sharon Erickson Nepstad Steven Pfaff Francesca Polletta Christian Smith Arlene Stein Nancy Whittier Elisabeth Jean Wood Michael P Young     Illegalized Rafael A Martínez, 2024-10-08 Illegalized Undocumented Youth Movements in the United States takes readers on a journey through the history of the rise of undocumented youth social movements in the United States in the twenty first century The book follows the documentation trail of undocumented youth activists spanning over two decades of organizing Each chapter carefully analyzes key organizing strategies used by undocumented youth to produce direct forms of activism that expose and critique repressive forms of state control and violence This inquiry is particularly generative in relation to how immigrant bodies are erased contained and imagined as aliens or illegal Rafael A Mart nez an undocu scholar intricately weaves his lived experience into this deeply insightful exploration Mart nez s interdisciplinary approach will engage scholars and readers alike resonating with disciplines such as history American studies Chicana and Chicano studies and borderlands studies Illegalized shows that undocumented youth and their activism represent a disruption to the social imaginary of the U S nation state and its figurative and physical borders It invites readers to explore how undocumented youth activists changed the way immigrant rights are discussed in the United States today
