Sanitary and Social Lectures and Essays - Charles Kingsley

Charles Kingsley, 2009-12-08 A passage from the book I have been asked to speak a few words to you on a lady s work in a country parish I shall confine myself rather to principles than to details and the first principle which I would impress on you is that we must all be just before we are generous I must indeed speak plainly on this point A woman s first duties are to her own family her own servants Be not deceived if anyone cannot rule her own household she cannot rule the Church of God If anyone cannot sympathise with the servants with whom she is in contact all day long she will not really sympathise with the poor whom she sees once a week I know the temptation not to believe this is very great It seems so much easier to women to do something for the poor than for their own ladies maids and house maids and cooks And why Because they can treat the poor as THINGS but they MUST treat their servants as persons A lady can go into a poor cottage lay down the law to the inhabitants reprove them for sins to which she has never been tempted tell them how to set things right which if she had the doing of them I fear she would do even more confusedly and slovenly than they She can give them a tract as she might a pill
