Making The Newsmakers International Handbook On Journalism Training:

Making the Newsmakers Philip Gaunt, 1992-08-24 The first worldwide survey of communication training since 1958 was sponsored by UNESCO and covers 70 nations and lists 700 training institutions

The Handbook of Journalism Studies Karin Wahl-Jorgensen, Thomas Hanitzsch, 2009-01-13 This Handbook charts the growing area of journalism studies exploring the current state of theory and setting an agenda for future research in an international context The volume is structured around theoretical and empirical approaches and covers scholarship on news production and organizations news content journalism and society and journalism in a global context Emphasizing comparative and global perspectives each chapter explores Key elements thinkers and texts Historical context Current state of the art Methodological issues Merits and advantages of the approach area of studies Limitations and critical issues of the approach area of studies Directions for future research Offering broad international coverage from top tier contributors this volume ranks among the first publications to serve as a comprehensive resource addressing theory and scholarship in journalism studies As such the Handbook of Journalism Studies is a must have resource for scholars and graduate students working in journalism media studies and communication around the globe

Making Journalists Hugo de Burgh, 2006-03-13 At a time when the media's relation to power is at the forefront of political discussion this book considers how journalists can affect public discourse on politics economy and society at large From well known and respected authors providing all new material Making Journalists considers journalism education training practice and professionalism across a wide range of countries including Saudi Arabia Africa India USA and the UK The book offers insights into what journalism is how education makes the journalist and therefore the news models of journalism taught and practised across the globe the ethical implications of the process When news reporting can lead to decisions on whether or not to go to war everything can be affected by journalists and their mediation of the world This text brings these present issues together in one invaluable resource for all students of journalism politics and media studies

Journalism Education, Training and Employment Bob Franklin, Donica Mensing, 2010-12-14 During this period of rapid and significant change in journalistic practices journalism educators are re-examining their own profession and contributing to the invention of new models and practices This edited volume of studies by respected international scholars describes the diverse issues journalism educators are grappling with and the changes they are making in purpose and practice The book is organized into three sections education training and employment that explore common themes How the assumptions embedded in journalism education are being examined and revised in the light of transformative changes in communication How the definitions of journalism and journalists are broadening in scope and what this means for educators How newsrooms and training programs around the world are being re-examined and made more effective An introductory essay and section summaries provide context for the thirteen chapters that constitute the collection The section on journalism education explores fundamental ways educators are seeking to make their institutions and practices stronger and more responsive The section on training includes case studies of journalism training programs in sub Saharan Africa Turkey Sweden and the U S The final section examines the job prospects and employment market for journalism students with data from the U S U K Australia and Sweden The scope of issues considered in the book makes it a valuable resource for journalism scholars from around the world as well as doctoral students journalism and communication administrators in universities organizations that fund journalism training programs and practitioners interested in understanding employment and education trends

Handbook of Applied Journalism Leon Barkho, Jairo Alfonso Lugo-Ocando, Sadia Jamil, 2024-02-21 This authoritative handbook looks at the entire news cycle and provides a bridge between the theoretical and academic study of journalism and its actual contemporary practice The book's main merit is that it brings theory and practice together with contributors discussing these issues from different perspectives in a way that scholars students and practitioners can find useful in the study of journalism The handbook is also unique as it undertakes an international scope across regions and cultures both from the West and the Global South while providing an overview which balances the over emphasis on content in most academic approaches to journalism The book is divided into four major parts 1 Conceptual foundations 2 Interlink between journalism as scholarship and journalism as practice 3 Regions and cultures and 4 The practitioner world The first two sections lay down the foundation for section 3 which provides an overview of journalism practice in different regions and cultures Section 4 includes contributions by practitioners in which they attempt to respond to some of the issues raised in preceding sections This handbook will appeal to academics practitioners and professionals alike who are interested in a better understanding of the academic study of journalism and its actual contemporary practice

Journalism Across Cultures: An Introduction Levi Obijiofor, Folker Hanusch, 2017-09-16 In today's global digital world journalists are required to be cognizant of ethical and cultural issues beyond usual national boundaries This text provides a theoretical and practical introduction to cross cultural journalism equipping students with the skills and understanding they need today

The Future of Journalism Bob Franklin, 2013-09-13 The future of journalism is hotly contested and highly uncertain reflecting developments in media technologies shifting business strategies for online news changing media organisational and regulatory structures the fragmentation of audiences and a growing public concern about some aspects of tabloid journalism practices and reporting as well as broader political sociological and cultural changes These developments have combined to impoverish the flow of existing revenues available to fund journalism impact radically on traditional journalism professional practices while simultaneously generating an increasingly frenzied search for sustainable and equivalent funding and from a wide range of sources to nurture and deliver quality journalism in the future This book brings together journalists and distinguished academic specialists from around the globe to present the findings from their research and to discuss the future of journalism the shifting quality of its products its wide ranging sources of finance as well as the economic and democratic consequences of the significant changes confronting Journalism

The Future of Journalism details the challenges facing the press in contemporary societies and provides essential reading for everyone interested in the role of journalism in shaping and sustaining literate civil and democratic societies This book consists of special issues from Journalism Studies and Journalism Practice The Routledge Companion to Local Media and Journalism Agnes Gulyas,David Baines,2020-04-19 This comprehensive edited collection provides key contributions in the field mapping out fundamental topics and analysing current trends through an international lens Offering a collection of invited contributions from scholars across the world the volume is structured in seven parts each exploring an aspect of local media and journalism It brings together and consolidates the latest research and theorisations from the field and provides fresh understandings of local media from a comparative perspective and within a global context This volume reaches across national cultural technological and socio economic boundaries to bring new understandings to the dominant foci of research in the field and highlights interconnection and thematic links Addressing the significant changes local media and journalism have undergone in the last decade the collection explores the history politics ethics and contents of local media as well as delving deeper into the business and practices that affect not only the journalists and media makers involved but consumers and communities as well For students and researchers in the fields of journalism studies journalism education cultural studies and media and communications programmes this is the comprehensive guide to local media and journalism

Journalism Education Between Market Dependence and Social Responsibility Hugo Bigi,2012 Journalism Education in Countries with Limited Media Freedom Beate Ursula Josephi,2010 Journalism education surrounded by media tsunamis continues to expand as a crucial area of professional and academic life It gets to the roots of media society relations This volume gives important food for thought to the problematic classification of countries to free partly free and not free Kaarle Nordenstreng University of Tampere Book Jacket
