Minnesota Senator Amy Klobuchar has tackled every obstacle she's encountered: her parents' divorce, her father's alcoholism and recovery, her political campaigns and Washington's gridlock, with honesty, humor and pluck. Now in The Senator Next Door, she chronicles her remarkable heartland journey from her immigrant grandparents to her middle-class suburban upbringing to her rise in American politics. After being kicked out of the hospital while her infant daughter was still in intensive care, Klobuchar became the lead advocate for one of the first laws in the country guaranteeing new moms and their babies a 48-hour hospital stay. Later, she ran Minnesota's biggest prosecutor's office and in 2006 was the first woman elected to the U.S. Senate from her state. Along the way, she fashioned her own political philosophy grounded in her belief that partisan flame-throwing takes no courage at all; what really matters is forging alliances with unlikely partners to solve the nation's problems. Optimistic, plainspoken and often very funny, The Senator Next Door is a story about how the girl next door decided to enter the fray and make a difference. At a moment when America's government often seems incapable of getting anything done, Amy Klobuchar proves that politics is still the art of the possible. The Invisible Art of Film Music Laurence E. MacDonald, 1998-01-01 A comprehensive introduction to film music for the general student, the film historian and the aspiring cinematographer. It is a historically structured account of the evolution of music in films. The book is arranged as a chronological survey and includes biographical sketches on many important film composers in addition to the development of the films themselves. Refugees and Forced Migration in the Horn and Eastern Africa Johannes Dragsbaek Schmidt, Leah Kimathi, Michael Omondi Owiso, 2019-05-13 This volume sheds new light on the refugees and forced migration at the Horn of Africa and East Africa. Adopting a multidisciplinary perspective, it traces historical, structural and geopolitical factors to reveal the often brutal uprooting of people in a region that hosts more than three million refugees and almost six million internally displaced persons (IDPs). By doing so, it enriches our understanding of the socio-economic, geopolitical and humanitarian causes and implications of migration and population displacement. The book is divided into five parts focusing on different drivers of involuntary displacement and people's uprooting. The first part covers geopolitical conflicts rooted partly in the colonial and Cold War geographies The second part then focuses on security aspects and conflicts while the third looks at encampment and refugee policies as well as refugee agencies Part four highlights issues of forced repatriation and human trafficking Lastly part five analyzes the dynamics of refugee camps Out in the Midday Sun Margaret Shennan,2015-11-01 The story of British Malaya and Singapore from the days of Victorian pioneers to the denouement of independence is a momentous episode in Britain s colonial past Through memoirs letters and interviews Margaret Shennan chronicles its halcyon years the two World Wars economic depression and diaspora revealing the attitudes of the diverse quixotic characters of this now quite vanished world The British came as fortune seekers to exploit Asian trade shipped through Penang and Singapore They found a mature Asian culture in a land of palm fringed shores and primeval jungle Like modern Romans they built townships defences communications and hill stations they spurred a rivalry between the fledgling commercial centres of Singapore Penang and Kuala Lumpur and they superimposed their law and established an idiosyncratic political system They also developed the tin and rubber of the Malay States encouraging Chinese and Indian immigrants by their open door policy The outcome was a vibrant multi racial society the most cosmopolitan in the East Historic Tales of the Upper Ohio Valley Paul Zuros,2023 The Upper Ohio River runs along the border between West Virginia and Ohio where the cities of Weirton and Steubenville face each other across the flowing water The history of these two municipalities has been intertwined from their earliest days Discover stories of the early pioneers on both sides of the river and what they learned about their Native American predecessors Tales of bygone celebrations will entertain and rumors of local haunts will chill readers to the bone The stories of these industrial centers as well as their preindustrial past will intrigue and delight young and old Join historian Paul J Zuros as he weaves a rich narrative reliving the tales as only as local can experience them Mercury Rising Deldon Anne McNeely,2011 This is a REVISED EDITION of Mercury Rising by Deldon Anne McNeely and includes an index Female trickster figures have been a universal theme from Scheherazade to Mata Hari to the sirens of the silver screen Mercury Rising examines our sense of of order and morality and considers it from a post Jungian feminist perspective Tricksters can teach us the nature of femininity and evil and provide for us the spark that makes life more full and rewarding This is destined to be a seminal book on understanding the trickster figures in human idiosyncrasies and what is often misunderstood as evil
