Competition Donna Snyder-Smith,2008-05-05 First Star to the Right and Straight on Till Morning At the 90 mile vet check she sat in the middle of the road crying claiming extreme illness and trying to avoid her nightmarish fears her horse would die of founder or colic or anything The last ten miles of trail stretched forever in her mind black like licorice taffy After a large measure of TLC from her patient and understanding crew she and the gelding were out of the check and on the trail again The entire universe shrank to center on the pair in the moonlight Time stopped and the world faded into nothingness They were running in a small ever changing pocket of existence the rhythm of his hooves the heartbeat of that universe Ribbons and trail appeared before them and lost substance as they moved past For the rider clinging to the saddle there was no thought no pain no emotion only the instinctive drive to chase past each ribbon as it appeared Suddenly her horse jumped sideways eyes and ears frozen forward Awakened from her trance she oriented herself on his suspected woods troll a familiar embankment that meant they were a half mile from home Easing him past the scary object she sent the gelding on clinging to his neck As his soft lope swept them across the finish line she wanted to laugh out loud or cry but was unable to summon the strength for either A few small tears trickled down her cheek the only sign of the enormous pride she felt inside Becky Huffman Endurance rider wife mother of two and student of author Donna Snyder Smith The Howell Equestrian Library

Islam and Christianity Contrasted Ed Ward, 2021 My first exposure to Muslims was in 2005 in Morocco I enjoyed my visit and was surprised by the Berbers hospitality I was fascinated by the eagerness of Muslims to discuss God While sharing personal stories was important our conversations always concluded with talking about God Discussions about our faiths was the foremost topic of my conversations with Muslims Over the years I have compared the teachings of Islam with the Christian Scriptures I have found the narratives differing in detail and concepts conflicting in perspective These theological differences confirm that Islam and Christianity do not worship the same God For example the Quran teaches that Allah commanded angels to bow down to Adam at creation Satan refused and Allah banished him to the earth Qu 7 11 13 According to the Bible Yhwh would never command angels to bow down to man for only Yhwh is worthy of worship For an angel to bow down to man is idolatry I have observed many debates between Muslims and Christians Muslim debaters seldom stay on the agreed topic Instead they divert from the subject to ridicule and debase Christianity as foolishness I have found that while Muslims ask difficult questions of Christianity they never ask the same questions of Islam Islam and Christianity Contrasted will seek answers to those questions from the early Islamic sources and compare them with the teachings of the Bible The Quran early hadiths Islamic history and four established translations of the Bible will be consulted I hope that through Islam and Christianity Contrasted both Muslims and Christians will have a deeper understanding of one another's faith
