Multinational Enterprises and the Global Economy John H. Dunning, Sarianna M. Lundan, 2008-01-01 For many years to come this volume is surely going to be the ultimate reference work on international business thanks to Dunning and Lundan have at their disposal a wealth of relevant data as well as theoretical and empirical analyses which will enable them to assess the capabilities contributions and challenges posed by the multinational enterprises to the global economy Seev Hirsch International Business Review Multinational Enterprises and the Global Economy has become a classic in international business Yet the book's second edition is even better than the first in part because of Professor Dunning's wise decision to choose Dr Lundan as his co author and to draw upon her deep knowledge of various strands of research on business government relations and the societal effects of firm behaviour In addition to being a remarkably useful reference book Multinational Enterprises and the Global Economy is the first book any IB doctoral student should read to understand the significance and richness of IB scholarship as it has developed over the past 50 years Alain Verbeke Journal of International Business Studies The second edition of Multinational Enterprises and the Global Economy provides unparalleled coverage not only of the literature relevant to IB research but also of the evolution of IB in the world economy Dunning and Lundan offer powerful insights into the societal effects of MNEs and the role of business government relations in the IB context Journal of International Business Studies This wonderful book offers the definitive synthesis of the modern literature on the economic aspects of international business It is encyclopedic yet full of incisive insights It is a creative masterpiece which unbundles the DNA of the multinational enterprise and shows how it is the cornerstone of the field of international business Alan M Rugman University of Reading UK The rise of the multinational enterprise and the consequent globalisation of the world economy was arguably the single most important phenomenon of the second half of the twentieth century This magisterial book written by two leading authorities examines this phenomenon in depth It explains how foreign investment by multinationals diffused advanced technologies and novel management methods driving productivity growth in Europe Asia and North America however economic inequalities were reinforced as rich countries attracted more foreign investment than poor ones This new edition of a classic work is not only an authoritative guide to contemporary multinational business but a major historical resource for the future Mark Casson University of Reading UK This thoroughly updated and revised edition of a widely acclaimed classic text will be required reading for academics policymakers and advanced students of international business worldwide Employing a distinctive and unified framework this book draws together research across a range of academic fields to offer a synthesis of the determinants of MNE activity and its effects on the economic and social well being of developed and developing countries Unique to the new edition is its focus on the institutional underpinnings of the resources and capabilities of MNEs and the role of MNE activity in transmitting and facilitating institutional change Since the initial publication of this book more than a decade ago the economic managerial and social implications of globalisation and technological advancement have become even more varied and prominent Accompanying these developments there has been a rise in scholarly interest in interdisciplinary research addressing the important challenges of an ever changing physical and human environment Drawing on articles and books from international business and economics as well as economic geography political economy and strategic management a systematic overview of the developments in scholarly thinking is prese

Multinational Corporations And The Third World C.J. Dixon,2019-03-06 This book an outcome of the conference in 1983 held at the University of Birmingham examines the varied roles played by multinational corporations in the economies of the Third World countries and concentrates more closely on regional national sectoral or corporate levels

Multinational Investment and Economic Structure Rajneesh Narula,2002-09-11 Multinational Investment and Economic Structure examines the relationship between industrial development and foreign direct investment FDI activities and the interaction between multinational MNE activity and economic structures It deals with the changing structure of the world economy as a whole and the dynamics of the relationship between industrial development and the extent of FDI activities across countries It evaluates the concurrent and interrelated evolutionary processes behind economic growth and MNE activity and how these evolutionary forces impact on the economic structure of individual economies in the industrialised world as their economies converge through globalisation

Ford and the Global Strategies of Multinationals Maria Isabel Studer Noguez,2003-08-27 Today the Multinational Enterprise MNE is seen as a leading agent in the process of globalization As they adopt global strategies MNE s are seen to be creating stronger deeper and more lasting links amongst countries thus shifting the balance of power inexorably in their favour to the detriment of the state This book interrogates this idea by undertaking a historical analysis of the global strategies of Ford

Multinational Enterprises, Economic Structure and International Competitiveness John H. Dunning,1985 This is the first comprehensive and comparative study on the impact of inward and outward direct investment on the industrial structure and international competitiveness of both developed and developing countries

Multinationals, Technology & Competitiveness (RLE International Business) John H Dunning,2013-04-02 This book explores some aspects of the interface between technology competitiveness and the role of multinational enterprises in the world economy This group of essays stresses the role of asset creation and usage rather than reliance on natural factor endowments as a basis for national competitiveness and examines the role of multinational enterprises as vehicles for technological transfer and the efficient co ordination of economic activity across national boundaries The Geography of the Multinationals Michael Taylor,N. J. Thrift,2012 Urban Geography in America, 1950-2000 Brian J.L Berry,James Wheeler,2014-05-01 Urban Geography in America offers a comprehensive historiography of this major field Compiling the best essays from the flagship journal Urban Geography it shows the evolution of the field from the 1950s to 2000 as it shifted from data driven social science modeling in the 1960s to the more critical perspectives of the 1970s to postmodernism in the 1980s to feminism and globalization in the 1990s It covers all the major trends and figures and features some of the most important names in the field Ultimately this will be a necessary reference for all scholars in the field and all graduate students taking introductory courses and preparing for their comprehensive exams Cities and the Cultural Economy Thomas A. Hutton,2015-08-27 The cultural economy forms a leading trajectory of urban development and has emerged as a key facet of globalizing cities Cultural industries include new media digital arts music and film and the design industries and professions as well as allied consumption and spectacle in the city The cultural economy now represents the third largest sector in many metropolitan cities of the West including London Berlin New York San Francisco and Melbourne and is increasingly influential in the development of East Asian cities Tokyo Shanghai Hong Kong and Singapore as well as the mega cities of the Global South e g Mumbai Capetown and S o Paulo Cities and the Cultural Economy provides a critical integration of the burgeoning research and policy literatures in one of the most prominent sub fields of contemporary urban studies Policies for cultural economy are increasingly evident within planning development and place marketing programs requiring large resource commitments but producing on the evidence highly uneven results Accordingly the volume includes a critical review of how the new cultural economy is reshaping urban labour housing and property markets contributing to gentrification and to precarious employment formation as well as to broadly favorable outcomes such as community regeneration and urban vitality The volume acknowledges the important growth dynamics and sustainability of key creative industries Written primarily as a text for upper level undergraduate and Masters students in urban economic and social geography sociology cultural studies and planning this provocative and compelling text will also be of interest to those studying urban land economics architecture landscape architecture and the built environment Strategies of Multinational Corporations and Social Regulations Xavier Richet,Violine Delteil,Patrick Dieuaide,2014-03-18 This contributed volume seeks to provide a unique window on the globalization process by analyzing the dynamics of Foreign Direct Investment FDI in Europe and Asia as well as its influence on the renewal of public policies and regulations both transnational and local It discusses the link between the trans nationalization of productive and business systems and the renewal of local regulations in the light of concerns over competitiveness and attractiveness as well as new social tensions Multinational corporations MNCs as key actors of globalization are central for understanding the new interactions between the global regional and local dimensions as well as for highlighting the challenges of regulation both at transnational level and within national boundaries Research approaches along two broad lines are presented First a theoretical and empirical approach that examines links between the strategies of multinationals and local public policy in order to contribute to a better understanding of the institutional dynamics of social regulation Second a comparative approach that compares regional spaces with particular attention to Europe on the one hand and to the two great emerging powers China and India on the other

Advances in Education and Management Mark Zhou,2011-07-22 This four volume set CCIS 208 209 210 211 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the International Symposium on Applied Economics Business and Development ISAEBD 2011 held in Dalian China in August 2011 The papers address issues related to Applied Economics Business and Development and cover various research areas including Economics Management Education and its Applications

Multinationals and European Integration Nicholas A. Phelps,2013-10-18 This book examines the role of the multinational firms in processes of European integration It is primarily concerned with the implications of market integration and industrial restructuring for peripheral European regions Nicholas Phelps argues that because of the complex relationship between competition and economies of scale the persistence of market segmentation and because of the embeddedness of multinational investment in established production locations there is considerable inertia in the existing trade and investment patterns of multinationals in the EU This argument is explored empirically in relation to multinationals operating in Wales This study suggests that processes of restructuring accompanying market integration are slow to take effect and based on a diversity of motives

Global Economic Competition George Kozmetsky,Piyu Yue,2012-12-06 Global competitiveness has always been a hotly debated issue promoting differing opinions among economists management strategists business leaders and policy analysts and consultants Global Economic Competition provides a broad framework to compare the United States economy with 23 other global economies This is done by presenting empirical evidence in a series of comparative analyses of economic competition using data pertaining to specific countries industries and companies In this volume the electronics industries are used to illustrate an ongoing economic warfare among competing regions nations and cluster companies across the electronic technology chain Employing the latest empirical data to evaluate the competitiveness of the US economy and its electronic industries and companies in the 1980s and early 1990s Global Economic Competition will be of interest not only to those who study economics management science and international trade but also to policy makers and business leaders

The World Trade Organization Millennium Round Klaus Gunter Deutsch,Bernhard Speyer,2001-01-25 This book draws together key issues resulting from the World Trade Organisation s planned Millennium Round and the hope that it will lead to freer trade as we begin this new century

A Century of Foreign Investment in the Third World Michael Twomey,2002-01-04 The late twentieth century has witnessed a dramatic upsurge in foreign direct investment in the Third World Based upon thorough statistical analysis the book presents exhaustive case studies of foreign investment policy in metropolitan countries and of the experiences of host countries throughout Africa Asia and Latin America With a wide geographical and historical focus it also makes an important contribution to current debates on dependency theory

Multinational Financial Management Alan C. Shapiro,Paul Hanouna,Atulya Sarin,2024-02-28 Provides a conceptual framework for analyzing key financial decisions of multinational firms Now in its twelfth edition Multinational Financial Management provides a comprehensive and up to date survey of all essential areas of the international financial market environment including the determination of the cost of capital for international projects capital budgeting financial structure transfer pricing risk management and portfolio investment Written with the large multinational corporation in mind this leading textbook offers a wealth of numerical and institutional examples that demonstrate the use of financial analysis and reasoning to solve complex international financial problems Multinational Financial Management is a self encompassing treatment of multinational financial management that simplifies complex concepts provides the theoretical knowledge required to examine decision problems and supplies the practical analytical techniques needed to clarify the ambiguous guidelines commonly used by international financial executives Throughout the text the authors show how the international dimension of finance creates difficulties that are not encountered in domestic finance such as multiple currencies segmented capital markets political risks and international taxation issues Multinational Financial Management Twelfth Edition remains the ideal textbook for upper level undergraduate and master s degree courses in International Finance and International Financial Management as well as bank management financial management and other executive development programs

Multinationals and Industrial Competitiveness John H. Dunning,Rajneesh Narula,2005-01-01 This book provides an excellent overview of the changing relationship between multinationals and economic development as globalization has taken off and substantially altered the conditions for catching up as opposed to falling behind The authors move very effectively between the discussion of concepts that are crucial to understanding such changes and various empirical evidence on foreign direct investment trade inter firm relationships institutional settings and competitiveness John Cantwell Rutgers University US The globalisation of the world economy has undermined many of the old certainties regarding foreign direct investment flows Dunning and Narula use the concepts of alliance capitalism and technological evolution to analyse recent trends in international business They identify the challenges to government policymakers from regional integration and the consequent intensification of political competition to attract high technology investment This masterful and incisive analysis brings great clarity to perplexing issues and delineates a cogent industrial policy agenda for a globalised economy Mark Casson University of Reading UK This book offers an important contribution to the contemporary debate on the role of multinational enterprises MNEs in economic development in an increasingly globalizing knowledge intensive and alliance based world economy Each of the chapters touches upon critical issues now facing the global economy They also address the growing importance of innovative activities of firms in promoting economic development and industrial restructuring as well as the role of FDI and cooperative agreements in furthering this goal Emphasis is placed on the increasingly significant role of national governments in promoting the intellectual capital of their indigenous resources and capabilities and of inter firm collaborative alliances Globalization and technological advances are reconfiguring the ingredients of the competitiveness of firms and nation states They are emphasizing the increasingly important role of both private and social institutions as determinants of the success of corporations and of the economic development of societies Covering a range of issues from economic development alliance capitalism government policies regional integration and industrial development this authoritative book will greatly appeal to academics and economists especially those interested in international business and management
