Phaedri Augusti Liberti Fabularum Aesop:

Phaedri Augusti liberti Fabulae Aesopiae Phaedrus, 1810 Latinity and Literary Society at Rome W. Martin Bloomer, 2015-09-11 For centuries after the fall of the Roman empire the ability to write and speak pure Latin was the mark of the true scholar But although such skill was esteemed in medieval times the language of ancient Rome was as various as the styles of slaves and masters Latinity and Literary Society at Rome reaches back to the early Roman empire to examine attitudes toward latinity reviewing the contested origins of scholarly Latin in the polemical arena of Roman literature W Martin Bloomer shows how that literature s reflections on correct and incorrect speech functioned as part of a wider understanding of social relations and national identity in Rome Bloomer s investigation begins with questions about the sociology of Latin literature what interests were served by the creation of high style and how literary stylization constituted a system of social decorum and goes on to offer readings of selected texts Through studies of works ranging from Varro s De lingua latina to the verse fables of Augustine s freeman Phaedrus to the Annals of Tacitus Bloomer examines conflicting claims to style not simply to set true Latin against vulgarism but also to ask who is excluding whom why and by what means These texts exemplify the ways Roman literature employs representations of and reflections on proper and improper language to mirror the interests of specific groups who wished to maintain or establish their place in Roman society They show how writers sought to influence the fundamental social issue of who had the power to confer legitimacy of speech and how their works used claims of linguistic propriety to reinforce the definition of Romanness Through Bloomer s study latinity emerges as a contested field of identity and social polemic heretofore unrecognized in classical scholarship With its fresh interpretations of major and minor texts Latinity and Literary Society at Rome is a literary history that significantly advances our understanding of the place of language in ancient Rome The Imperial period Wilhelm Sigmund Teuffel, Wilhelm Wagner, 1873 Widener Library Shelflist: Latin literature Harvard University. Library, 1979 Phaedri, Augusti Liberti, Fabularum Aesopiarum, Libri Quinque Phaedrus, 1776 An Introduction to the Fables of Phaedrus Lucy George Roberts, 1916 The imperial period Wilhelm Sigismund Teuffel, George Charles Winter Warr, 1892 A History of Roman Literature Wilhelm Sigmund Teuffel, 1873 Annales Phaedriani, 1596-1996 R. W. Lamb, 1998 Facing Poetry Frauke Berndt, 2020-10-12 Alexander Gottlieb Baumgarten 1714 1762 is known in intellectual history for having established the discourse of philosophical aesthetics with his Meditationes philosophicae de nonnullis ad poema pertinentibus Reflections on Poetry and Aesthetica Aesthetics which consists of two books and is considered Baumgarten s most important work But this book amends that history It shows that Baumgarten s aesthetics is a science of literature that demonstrates the value of literature to philosophy Baumgarten did not intend to pursue such a task but in working on his philosophical texts and lectures he ends up analyzing synthesizing and contextualizing literature He thereby treats it not as belles lettres or as a moral institution but rather as an epistemic object His aesthetics is thus the first modern literary theory and his articulation of this theory would never again be matched in its complexity and systematicity Baumgarten's theory of literature has never been discovered It waits latently to take its place in intellectual history

Animals in the New Testament Justin David Strong, Ruben Zimmermann, 2025-08-07 This volume explores the ubiquity of animals and the remarkable density of animal language in the New Testament and its contemporary world By situating the New Testament amid ancient discourses and incorporating understanding from the emerging field of Animal Studies the contributors explore the insights that emerge when non human animals and notions of animality take centre stage By analysing the Classical contexts of the New Testament the gospels the writings of Peter Paul and John and extra canonical Christian contexts the volume identifies and explores the myriad ways in which humans find themselves and others to be like animals addressing basic notions of human and animal nature and highlighting traits such as sentience subjectivity and intentionality Ranging from the intense discussions regarding animal souls and their place in contemporary narratives to their various roles in the teachings of Jesus their depictions in the writing of the apostles and their symbolic and ethical significance in early Christianity this highly original and methodologically diverse collection introduces an unfamiliar paradigm that offers new perspectives and insights into the New Testament and its contemporary world
