Prehistory in the Pacific Islands

John Terrell, 1986. How, asks John Terrell in this richly illustrated and original book, can we best account for the remarkable diversity of the Pacific Islanders in biology, language, and custom? Traditionally, scholars have recognized a simple racial division between Polynesians, Micronesians, Melanesians, Australians, and South-east Asians, peoples allegedly differing in physical appearance, temperament, achievements, and perhaps even intelligence. Terrell shows that such simple divisions do not fit the known facts and provide little more than a crude, static picture of human diversity.
