National Reciprocity ,1902 Reciprocity in International Law Marcin Kałduński,2024-12-27 The world is changing The era of globalization where the states have been eager to cooperate towards common aims might seem to be disappearing Russia expresses a contempt for international law China makes claim to power while the United States at least temporarily shows disregard to international institutions they themselves created in particular the WTO and the WHO The growing phenomenon of nationalistic and authoritarian leaders may seem to hamper the development of community interests Some states may be more inclined to resort to reciprocal behaviour as certain events indicate e g the exchange of prisoners of war in the Russia Ukraine conflict and an exchange of economic sanctions tit for tat or tat for tat The field of international law appears to be returning to first principles in the light of multiple world crises Thus reciprocity as a classic concept of international law may come back from the shadows be reinvented and reinforced to form one of the basic pillars in the relations among states Given the above the purpose of the book is to rediscover and identify the position and role of reciprocity in contemporary international law Reciprocity James Laurence Laughlin, Henry Parker Willis, 1903

Reciprocity with Canada United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Finance, 1911 The End of Divine Truthiness: Love, Power, and God Paul Joseph Greene, 2017-08-01 In The End of Divine Truthiness Paul Joseph Greene confronts stark realities of terrifying theologies that make a mockery out of divine love With urgent resolve Greene answers Martin Luther King Jr s pointed challenge to overcome reckless and abusive power without love and sentimental and anemic love without power Too many theologies cast God either as the tyrant whose loveless power lifts up the mighty or the victim whose powerless love sends the poor away empty Wielding Stephen Colbert s word truthiness as a scalpel Greene slices out one perilous theology after another to restore the wholesome truth that God is love Supported by three world religions Buddhism Christianity and Taoism he discovers a remarkably harmonious and revolutionary divine power that is fully aligned with divine love To reunify love and power here in the world as King challenges it is time to abandon ideologies of divine power that devastate divine love and promote atrocities Greene s call for the end of divine truthiness heralds a new day for the God whose love is power and whose power is love The Protectionist ,1911 A monthly magazine of political science and industrial progress Legal Aspects of Trade Preferences for Developing States Abdulqawi Yusuf, 1982-01-01
