Jon Hughes

Rechts Und Links Roman:

Facing Modernity Jon Hughes, 2006 This is the first monograph on the work of Joseph Roth 1894 1939 to be published in English by a British based academic and should prove useful both to those with a specialized interest in Roth whose novels and journalism continue to gain admirers around the world and to those interested more broadly in an extraordinarily rich period in twentieth century European culture It serves both as an introduction to the early part of a body of work whose variety and volume were for many years overshadowed by the reputation of the historical novel Radetzky 1932 and as a re assessment of Roth's writing both of fiction and of journalism within the modern tradition A perceived fragmentation of social political cultural and other traditions was a particular concern for Roth as for many contemporaries and the thematic chapters present a detailed contextual survey of Roth's intense and often ambivalent engagement with aspects of modern life including travel gender technology the city and cinema Besides assessing the continuities and discontinuities in Roth's attitudes these chapters examine how his responses to the contemporary world impact upon both the form and content of his writing The author argues that Roth's writing of the 1920s should be considered modernist not just in its often prescient sensitivity to cultural and political developments but in its employment of a formal aesthetics and narrative self consciousness which eventually made possible the illusory wholeness of the later fiction Das Litterarische Echo ,1899

Classic Book Jackets Thomas Stansfield Hansen, 2005 Salter's life and work bridged two continents and cultures and spanned the political turmoil of the mid twentieth century He survived both world wars the rise of National Socialism in Germany and permanent exile in a new land but nothing halted his tireless and brilliant design work Classic Book Jackets tells Salter's story and describes the innovative thinking he brought to his clients and students including his designation of seven jacket types that are still valid today It includes more than two hundred reproductions of his finest works as well as a complete catalog of his jackets designs and lettering jobs for the book trade BOOK JACKET Catalog of Copyright

Copyright Office, 1931 Cityscaping Therese Fuhrer, Felix Mundt, Jan Stenger, 2015-05-19 The term cityscaping is here introduced to characterise the creative process through which the image of the city is created and represented in various media text film and artefacts It thus turns attention away from built urban spaces and onto mental images of cities One focus is on the question of which literary visual and acoustic means prompt their recipients spatial imagination another is to inquire into the semantics and functions that are ascribed to the image of a city as constructed in various media The examples of ancient texts and works of art and modern literature and films are used to elucidate the artistic potential of images of the city and the techniques by which they are semanticised With its interdisciplinary approach the volume for the first time makes clear how strongly mental images of urban space both ancient and modern have been shaped by the techniques of their representation in media Monatsschrift Für Das Deutsche Geistesleben ,1901 Cybele, Attis and Related Cults Eugene N.
