Religion And The Transformation Of Society A Study In Social Change In Africa:

Religion and the Transformation of Society Monica Wilson, 1971-07-02 Professor Wilson examines the changes isolated communities undergo when they come into contact with the outside world Christianity and Social Change in Africa Toyin Falola, 2005 Christianity and Social Change in Africa is the most comprehensive look at the African encounter with Christianity in recent years The book's themes are drawn from the pioneering work of J D Y Peel building on his creative explanation of the African experience of Christianity The volume covers a broad range of themes including religious expansion the rise of Pentecostalism and the use of new media and technologies to convert people and reform believers The various manifestations of religious impact run through all the chapters covering aspects of culture politics the economy and the landscape The volume also explores the success of Africans in exporting Christianity to other parts of the globe a phenomenon that has redefined both the message and meaning of this religion The contributors are a distinguished roster of scholars who draw on years of experience and research to present remarkable ideas and original interpretations of the forces Christianity exerts in Africa The essays reflect the importance of comparative historical inquiry inter disciplinary perspectives Peel's contributions to the transformation of history and sociology and the paths that a new generation of scholars must chart to comprehend the power of African Christianity For all interested in the processes and power relations of cultural self representation and self determination in the African context this book is essential The International Journal of African Historical Studies The chapters are well written persuasive and well structured The book is a useful tool for the study of social transformation and cultural persistence in African diaspora and cultural studies Journal of African History This is an important book for scholars of Nigeria and the Yoruba world but also for those interested in the ongoing question of religious change in Africa and the diaspora Indeed some of the individual essays have the potential to become classics This book is a fitting salute to the legacy of John Peel African Studies Review At a time when Christianity in Africa is experiencing a great leap forward Christianity and Social Change in Africa facilitates an exploration of some of the themes more critical to this development The book signals interesting directions for future research and should be welcomed by anyone interested in the still unfolding landscape that is Christianity in Africa Pneuma

Ori-Oke Spirituality and Social Change in Africa Yaovi, Soede Nathanael, Nwosu, Patrick U., 2018-09-17 The dynamic nature of Christianity has necessitated its movement from the cathedral to the mountain top This has occasioned a proliferation of Prayer Mountains throughout Africa In Yorubaland of southwestern Nigeria Prayer Mountain is known as Ori Oke Like many communities in Africa the Yoruba are confronted with fundamental challenges in life for which people do not rest until they find solutions Within the praxis of Nigerian Christian lexicon Ori Oke is synonymous with the enactment of a sacred space on a mountain top characterised by various prayer regimes rituals exorcism and religious practices aimed at eliciting the help of the divine to alleviate the existential challenges of devotees This book explores the resacralisation of space on the mountains highlighting how humans and the divine interact in Yorubaland It brings into conversation 35 empirically rich scholarly essays on the role of Ori Oke to those seeking divine intervention in their lives Today Ori Oke have become centres of pilgrimage as a result of the lived experiences of devotees creating unique religious value quite distinct from the aesthetic value of these mountain tops The spirituality of Ori Oke is anchored on the absolute belief in God and the infusion of traditional African worldview sensibilities in religious rites and worship Ori Oke spirituality employs resources of Christian tradition introduced by the formal agents of Christianity synthesised with traditional culture to develop a life based on the precepts of an African Christianity The book is an intellectual discourse on Ori Oke spirituality reflecting its contemporary relevance in a context of religious innovation and competition

Engaging Religions and Worldviews in Africa Yusufu Turaki, 2020-04-30 In a world of increasing globalization we live amidst a clash of cultures religions and worldviews each battling for the human heart and mind In this in depth study Yusufu Turaki offers a theological framework for engaging this clash of perspectives in Africa where traditional African religions colonialism and exposure to Christianity have each had a lasting impact on contemporary African worldviews Professor Turaki undertakes a systematic analysis of the nature of African Traditional Religion its complex history with Christianity and the need for African Christian theology to address its cultural and historical roots effectively He provides both a conceptual framework and practical guide for engaging African cultures and religions with compassion understanding and a firm foundation rooted in scriptural truth This book is an excellent resource for students of religion and theology as well as those interested in Africa s traditional heritage or drawn to the important work of cross cultural and inter religious dialogue

The Individual and Community in African Traditional Religions Theo Sundermeier, 1998 The writer has done a careful scholarly and sensitive and very positive and fair study of African religion with particular reference to the individual and community Theo Sundermeier lets Africa speak for itself and on its own terms and in its own categories The concluding chapter is a necessary reading for all who would be on mission who would seek to live the ecumenical imperative and care to ensure that the pursuit of a religion does not result in dehumanization and degradation and marginalization of the other person Rev Canon Prof John S Pobee World Council of Churches Geneva Switzerland This book treats the subject of African religions in a creative and interesting way emphasizing that these religions are genuine authentic expressions of religiosity on a par with other religions including the so called world religions The author provides an excellent account of the nature interdependence between individual community society and the natural order an interdependence which these religions symbolize and express in ritual and belief Likewise the essentially personal nature of power as conceived in African culture is thoughtfully and interestingly analysed There are many other thought provoking ideas and interpretations in this volume including the deconstruction of the commonly held notions of the distinction between witchcraft and magic This is a most worthwhile contribution to the study of Africa s traditional religions and I am convinced all those with an interest in Africa who read it will gain much therefrom Professor Peter B Clarke Professor of the History and

Sociology of Religion in the University of London at King's College and formerly Professor of African History at the University of Ibadan Nigeria Theo Sundermeier is Professor of the History of Religion and Missiology at the Ruprecht Karls Universität Heidelberg translated by Elaine Griffiths Eleanor Jackson A History of the Church in Africa Bengt Sundkler, Christopher Stead, 2000-05-04 Bengt Sundkler's long awaited book on African Christian churches will become the standard reference for the subject Theoretical Explorations in African Religion Wim van Binsbergen, Matthew Schoffeleers, 2013-10-28 First published in 1985 This collection of papers on theoretical and methodological perspectives in the study of African religion is the outcome of a conference which the editors were asked to convene on behalf of the African Studies Centre Leiden in December 1979 Dependency and Underdevelopment in West Africa (=JAAS XIV, 1-2) Victor C. Readings in Sexualities from Africa Rachel Spronk, Thomas Hendriks, 2020-02-04 Images and stories about African sexuality abound in today's globalized media Frequently old stereotypes and popular opinion inform these stories and sex in the media is predominately approached as a problem in need of solutions and intervention The authors gathered here refuse an easy characterization of African sexuality and instead seek to understand the various erotic realities sexual practices and gendered changes taking place across the continent They present a nuanced and comprehensive overview of the field of sex and sexuality in Africa to serve as a guide through the quickly expanding literature This collection offers a set of texts that use sexuality as a prism for studying how communities coalesce against the canvas of larger political and economic contexts and how personal lives evolve therein Scholars working in Africa the U S and Europe reflect on issues of representation health and bio politics same sex relationships and identity transactional economies of sex religion and tradition and the importance of pleasure and agency This multidimensional reader provides a comprehensive view of sexuality from an African perspective

Inside African Anthropology Andrew Bank, Leslie J. Bank, 2013-04-08 Inside African Anthropology offers an incisive biography of the life and work of South Africa's foremost social anthropologist Monica Hunter Wilson By exploring her main fieldwork and intellectual projects in southern Africa between the 1920s and 1960s the book offers insights into her personal and intellectual life Beginning with her origins in the remote Eastern Cape the authors follow Wilson to the University of Cambridge and back into the field among the Mpondo of South Africa where her studies resulted in her 1936 book Reaction to Conquest Her fieldwork focus then shifted to Tanzania where she teamed up with her husband Godfrey Wilson In the 1960s Wilson embarked on a new urban ethnography with a young South African anthropologist Archie Mafeje one of the many black scholars she trained This study also provides a meticulously researched exploration of the indispensable contributions of African research assistants to the production of this famous woman scholar's cultural knowledge about mid twentieth century Africa Pioneers of the Field Andrew Bank, 2016-08-11 This book traces the personal and intellectual histories of six remarkable women anthropologists using a rich cocktail of archival sources Contextual Theology Sigurd Bergmann, Mika Vähäkangas, 2020-11-01 This book advances that history by exploring stories images and discourses across a worldwide range of geographical cultural and confessional contexts Its twelve authors not only enrich our understanding of the significance of the contextual method but also produce a new range of original ways of doing theology in contemporary situations The authors discuss some prioritised thematic perspectives with an emphasis on liberating paths and expand the ongoing discussion on the methodology of theology into new areas Themes such as interreligious plurality global capitalism ecumenical liberation theology eco anxiety and the anthropocene postcolonialism gender neo pentecostalism world theology and reconciliation are examined in situated depth Additionally voices from Indigenous lands Latin America Asia Africa Australia and Europe and North America enter into a dialogue on what it means to contextualise theology in an increasingly globalised and ever changing world Such a comprehensive discussion of new ways of thinking about and doing contextual theology will be of great use to scholars in Theology Religious Studies Cultural Studies Political Science Gender Studies Environmental Humanities and Global Studies

Ethnicity Counts William Petersen,2017-07-28 Official statistics about ethnicity in advanced societies are no better than those in less developed countries An open industrial society is inherently fluid and it is as hard to interpret social class and ethnic groups there as in a nearly static community In consequence the collection and interpretation of ethnic statistics is frequently a battleground where the groups being counted contest each element of every enumeration William Petersen describes how ethnic identity is determined and how ethnic or racial units are counted by official statistical agencies in the United States and elsewhere The chapters in this book cover such topics as Identification of Americans of European Descent Differentiation among Blacks Ethnic Relations in the Netherlands Two Case Studies Japan and Switzerland and Who is a Jew Petersen argues that the general public is overly impressed by assertions about ethnicity particularly if they are supported by numbers and graphs The flood of American writings about race and ethnicity gives no sign of abatement Ethnicity Counts offers an indispensable background to meaningful interpretation of statistics on ethnicity and will be important to sociologists historians policymakers and government officials
