Islam in Focus Dr. Hammudah Abdalati, 1993-06-01 This popular book is an attempt to respond to the needs of both Muslims and non Muslims in North America Its purpose is simply to acquaint the average reader with the basic teachings of Islam not intended to present the depth or breadth of Islam It guides Muslims to the median way in all matters of life rejects fanaticism and narrow mindedness It provides truth about Islam a spiritual insight and a moral approach to the human condition The author hopes that it will make them responsible citizens of their respective countries honorable members of the human race and above all else God minded people Religion in Focus Islam in Today's World Claire Clinton, 1999

Islam in Focus Hammudah Abd al-Ati, 1969 Improving the Pedagogy of Islamic Religious Education in Secondary Schools Ayse Demirel Ucan, 2019-09-04 This timely book focusses on the central issues and questions which emerge in relation to the teaching and learning of Islam in confessional and constructivist religious education Considering the consequences of a lack of diversity in the Islamic Religious Education curriculum the text also explores the challenges faced by Muslim pupils in connection with secularism and radical Islam Through rich analysis of research carried out across Muslim and public secondary schools in the UK this book develops a meaningful pedagogy of Islamic Religious Education In particular the volume investigates the benefits of Critical Religious Education and Variation Theory frameworks on student learning in Religious Education classrooms and illustrates how these didactic frameworks can help to ameliorate distinct problems seen across Islamic Religious Education Chapters identify discrete pedagogical issues that arise in the confessional and constructivist approaches to Islamic Education such as students difficulties in relating to concept of Islam and progressive approaches taken in public schools In addressing these the text proposes a new theoretical and pedagogical approach to the teaching of Islam which draws on the philosophy of Critical Realism the theories of Critical Religious Education and Variation Theory This book will be of great interest to postgraduate students researcher scholars and academics in the fields of religion and education and Islamic studies In addition it will be of interest to social equity professionals and public policy decision makers Religion in Focus Deborah Weston, Claire Clinton, Sally Lynch, Janet Orchard, Angela Wright, 1999-09 Examining Islam in the world this work includes a look at how Muslims make moral decisions how they believe in life after death and what Islam teaches about global issues Methods and Contexts in the Study of Muslim Minorities Nadia Jeldtoft, Jørgen Nielsen, 2014-07-16 In the past decade Muslims in Europe have been the subject of heated debates on the place and role of religion in the public space Research into the issues involved has often used visible and formalised expressions of Muslim religiosity as its empirical point of departure This book instead examines the microlevel workings of Muslim minority religiosity to offer a new perspective on these debates Contributors to this volume examine the forms of Muslim religiosity which are not dependent on the official or semi official settings of organised religion These ethnographic studies investigate a range of examples of non organised Islam ranging from salafi jihadism to converts to Islam to everyday spiritualities of Muslim in Europe By exploring these neglected forms of Muslim religiosity this book is able to build up a more nuanced picture of the role of Muslims in Europe It will be of interest to academics researchers and graduate students of Religion Ethnic Studies Migration Studies Sociology and Political Science This book was previously published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Islam and Religious Change in Pakistan Saadia Sumbal,2021-07-28 This book examines the history of and the contestations on Islam and the nature of religious change in 20th century Pakistan focusing in particular on movements of Islamic reform and revival This book is the first to bring the different facets of Islam particularly Islamic reformism and shrine oriented traditions together within the confines of a single study ranging from the colonial to post colonial era Using a rich corpus of Urdu and Arabic material including biographical accounts Sufi discourses malfuzat letter collections polemics and unexplored archival sources the author investigates how Islamic reformism and shrine oriented religiosity interacted with one another in the post colonial state of Pakistan Focusing on the district of Mianwali in Pakistani northwestern Punjab the book demonstrates how reformist ideas could only effectively find space to permeate after accommodating Sufi thoughts and practices the text based religious identity coalesced with overlapped traditional religious rituals and practices The book proceeds to show how reformist Islam became the principal determinant of Islamic identity in the post colonial state of Pakistan and how one of its defining effects was the hardening of religious boundaries Challenging the approach of viewing the contestation between reformist and shrine oriented Islam through the lens of binaries modern traditional and moderate extremist this book makes an important contribution to the field of South Asian religion and Islam in modern South Asia Islam Geoff Teece,2003 Religion in Focus is a series of fact packed reference books about the main world religions The books will provide as much factual information as possible and will use tables diagrams maps and photographs as well as text to make that information easily accessible Each title will cover such topics as where the religion is practised its key tenets and beliefs and how these are interpreted in everyday life main religions figures the main festivals and what they celebrate the various different forms and sects within the religion holy places and holy scripture Important terms will be highlighted in the text and explained in a glossary Each book will also feature a timeline of significant dates in the religion s history for easy reference Islam and Politics in Indonesia: Freedom of Religion or Belief and the influence of Islamic actors Tobias Hoheneder,2018-08-15 In most Islamic societies freedom of religion or belief is not a reality for religious minorities Indonesia home of the biggest Muslim population in the world is a positive exception in this regard The country was always a role model for the peaceful co existence of diverse religious and cultural traditions but in recent years Islamic fundamentalist groups challenge the country s tolerant and pluralistic identity This book inquires the development of freedom of religion or belief from a political legal and religious perspective It analyzes the laws and mechanisms that protect the rights of minorities and traces the role of the country s most important Islamic organizations and the influence they have on national policy making It finally points out

possible future developments and how the government can counter the threat of militant Islamism and preserve Indonesia's tolerant traditions

Principles and Practice of Islamic Leadership Mahazan Abdul Mutalib, Ahmad Rafiki, Wan Mohd Fazrul Azdi Wan Razali, 2022-03-31 This book elaborates the fundamental principles and practices of Islamic leadership and management by highlighting its underlying philosophies, key concepts and sources. The book closely examines the relationship of Islamic leadership with spiritual leadership and how it shapes the concept of leadership. The book also compares Islamic Leadership with other related spiritual leadership concepts such as the Servant Leadership, religiosity and other conventional leadership perspectives based on Islamic framework. The chapters within the book delve into Islamic teachings and values from Al Qur'an and Hadith that can be applied when governing an organization using several case studies. This insightful and thorough discussion on Islamic leadership will be useful as a reference for academic courses on leadership and current and aspiring business leaders

Islam in Focus Hammudah Abd al-Ati, 1987-03-01

Blasphemy And Defamation of Religions In a Polarized World Darara Timotewos Gubo, 2014-12-24 The twenty first century has been significantly shaped by the growing importance of religion in international politics resulting in rising polarization among nation states. This new dynamic has presented new challenges to international human rights principles. This book deals with some of these new challenges particularly the growing demand by Muslim states for protection of Islamic religion from blasphemy and defamation. Member states of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC) through resolutions at the United Nations made efforts to introduce laws that globally protect Islamic religion from blasphemy and defamation. The bid by OIC member states faced opposition from Western countries. The conflicting claims of the two sides are discussed in this book. The book clearly shows the impact of blasphemy and defamation of religion laws on certain aspects of fundamental human rights principles Reconciling Islam, Christianity and Judaism Terence Lovat, Robert Crotty, 2015-02-23 At the present time when so-called Islamic radicalism, terrorism and Jihadism occupy major media space with Islam often depicted as the main culprit, the book attempts a tour de force. It proposes that Islam is as much victim as culprit in the history that has led to the current hostility. This is because the common claims of both mainstream and radical Islam that Islam represents the high point of the Abrahamic tradition and therefore a purification of Judaism and Christianity have been largely ignored, misunderstood or blatantly rejected by these faiths and therefore by the West in general. This rejection has effectively rendered Islam as the poor cousin or not the illegitimate sibling of the tradition. In turn, this has created long-term resentment and hostility within Islam as well as robbed the Judaeo-Christian West of a rich inter-faith understanding of the wider Abrahamic tradition. The book explores these claims through textual, historical and theological analyses, proposing that many of them stand up better to critical scrutiny than has been commonly acknowledged. It further proposes that seeing Islam in this way has potential to re-awaken its self-understanding as a leader of accord among the Abrahamic faiths of the kind that characterized the era of Convivencia when in medieval Spain Islam constructed and contributed to advanced civilizations.

characterized by relatively harmonious co existence between Muslims Christians and Jews The book focuses on the role that a more respected and self confident Islam could play in forging enhanced inter faith relations in a world that desperately needs them as it struggles to understand and deal with modern and particularly vicious forms of radical Islamism

Religious Television and Pious Authority in Pakistan Taha Kazi, 2021-04-06 In Pakistan religious talk shows emerged as a popular television genre following the 2002 media liberalization reforms Since then these shows have become important platforms where ideas about Islam and religious authority in Pakistan are developed and argued In Religious Television and Pious Authority in Pakistan Taha Kazi reveals how these talk shows mediate changes in power belief and practice She also identifies the sacrifices and compromises that religious scholars feel compelled to make in order to ensure their presence on television These scholars of varying doctrinal and educational backgrounds including madrasa educated scholars and self taught celebrity preachers are given screen time to debate and issue religious edicts on the authenticity and contemporary application of Islamic concepts and practices In response viewers are sometimes allowed to call in live with questions Kazi maintains that these featured debates inspire viewers to reevaluate the status of scholarly edicts thereby fragmenting religious authority By exploring how programming decisions inadvertently affect viewer engagements with Islam Religious Television and Pious Authority in Pakistan looks beyond the revivalist impact of religious media and highlights the prominence of religious talk shows in disrupting expectations about faith

The Oxford Handbook of Religion and the American News Media Diane Winston, 2012-08-29 Whether the issue is the rise of religiously inspired terrorism the importance of faith based NGOs in global relief and development or campaigning for evangelical voters in the U S religion proliferates in our newspapers and magazines on our radios and televisions on our computer screens and increasingly our mobile devices Americans who assumed society was becoming more and more secular have been surprised by religions rising visibility and central role in current events Yet this is hardly new the history of American journalism has deep religious roots and religion has long been part of the news mix Providing a wide ranging examination of how religion interacts with the news by applying the insights of history sociology and cultural studies to an analysis of media faith and the points at which they meet The Oxford Handbook of Religion and the American News Media is the go to volume for both secular and religious journalists and journalism educators scholars in media studies journalism studies religious studies and American studies Divided into five sections this handbook explores the historical relationship between religion and journalism in the USA how religion is covered in different media how different religions are reported on the main narratives of religion coverage and the religious press

Scapegoating Islam Jeffrey L. Thomas, 2015-09-15 Exploring the experience of Muslims in America following 9 11 this book assesses how anti Muslim bias within the U S government and the larger society undermines American security and democracy In the aftermath of the events of September 11 2001 Muslims in America have experienced discrimination and intolerance from the U S government and American citizens alike From religious and ethnic profiling to hate crimes intolerance against Muslims is being reinforced on multiple levels undercutting the Muslim community s engagement in American society This text is essential for understanding how the unjust treatment of American Muslims following September 11 has only served to alienate the Muslim community and further divide the United States Authored by an expert analyst of policy for 20 years this book explores the prejudice against Muslims and how the actions of the U S government continue to perpetuate fear and stereotypes within U S citizens The author posits that by respecting the civil rights of Muslims the government will lead by example in the acceptance of American Muslims improving homeland security along with the lives of Muslims living in the United States

Articulating Islam: Anthropological Approaches to Muslim Worlds Magnus Marsden, Konstantinos Retsikas, 2012-11-08 This collection of arresting and innovative chapters applies the techniques of anthropology in analyzing the role played by Islam in the social lives of the world s Muslims The volume begins with an introduction that sets out a powerful case for a fresh approach to this kind of research exhorting anthropologists to pause and reflect on when Islam is and is not a central feature of their informants life worlds and identities The chapters that follow are written by scholars with long term specialist research experience in Muslim societies ranging from Kenya to Pakistan and from Yemen to China thus they explore and compare Islam s social significance in a variety of settings that are not confined to the Middle East or South Asia alone The authors assess how helpful current anthropological research is in shedding light on Islam s relationship to contemporary societies Collectively the contributors deploy both theoretical and ethnographic analysis of key developments in the anthropology of Islam over the last 30 years even as they extrapolate their findings to address wider debates over the anthropology of world religions more generally Crucially they also tackle the thorny question of how in the current political context anthropologists might continue conducting sensitive and nuanced work with Muslim communities Finally an afterword by a scholar of Christianity explores the conceptual parallels between the book s key themes and the anthropology of world religions in a broader context This volume has key contemporary relevance for example its conclusions on the fluidity of people s relations with Islam will provide an important counterpoint to many commonly held assumptions about the incontestability of Islam in the public sphere
