Religion Of Islam Aspects Of Muslim Theology And Law:

Introduction to Islamic Theology and Law Ignaz Goldziher, 2021-05-11 The book description for the previously published Introduction to Islamic Theology and Law is not yet available

Encyclopedia of Women in World Religions Susan de-Gaia, 2018-11-16 This reference offers reliable knowledge about women's diverse faith practices throughout history and prehistory and across cultures. Across the span of human history, women have participated in world building and life sustaining cultural creativity making enormous contributions to religion and spirituality. In the contemporary period, women have achieved greater equality with more educational opportunities, female role models in public life and opportunities for religious expression than ever before. Contemporaneously with this increased visibility, women are actively and energetically engaging with religion for themselves and for their communities. Drawing on the expertise of a range of scholars, this reference chronicles the religious experiences of women across time and cultures. The book includes sections on major religions as well as on spirituality, African religions, prehistoric religions and other broad topics. Each section begins with an introduction followed by reference entries on specialized subjects along with excerpts from primary source documents. The entries provide numerous suggestions for further reading and the book closes with a detailed bibliography.

The Oxford Handbook of the Abrahamic Religions Adam J. Silverstein, Guy G. Stroumsa, Moshe Blidstein, 2015 The Oxford Handbook of the Abrahamic Religions includes authoritative yet accessible studies on a wide variety of topics dealing comparatively with Judaism, Christianity and Islam as well as with the interactions between the adherents of these religions throughout history. The comparative study of the Abrahamic Religions has been undertaken for many centuries. More often than not, these studies reflected a polemical rather than an ecumenical approach to the topic. Since the nineteenth century, the comparative study of the Abrahamic Religions has not been pursued either intensively or systematically and it is only recently that the comparative study of Judaism, Christianity and Islam has received more serious attention. This volume contributes to the emergence and development of the comparative study of the Abrahamic religions, a discipline which is now in its formative stages. This Handbook includes both critical and supportive perspectives on the very concept of the Abrahamic religions and discussions on the role of the figure of Abraham in these religions. It features 32 essays by the foremost scholars in the field on the historical interactions between Abrahamic communities on Holy Scriptures and their interpretation, on conceptions of religious history, on various topics and strands of religious thought such as monotheism and mysticism, on rituals of prayer, purity and sainthood, on love in the three religions and on fundamentalism. The volume concludes with three epilogues written by three influential figures in the Christian, Jewish and Muslim communities to provide a broader perspective on the comparative study of the Abrahamic religions. This ground-breaking work introduces readers to the challenges and rewards of studying these three religions together.

Islamic Legal Theory Mashood A. Baderin, 2017-03-02 Islamic legal theory or fiqh is literally regarded as the roots of the law whilst Islamic jurists consider it to be the basis of Islamic jurisprudence and thus an essential aspect of Islamic law This volume addresses the sources methods and principles of Islamic law leading to an appreciation of the skills of independent juristic and legal reasoning necessary for deriving specific rulings from the established sources of the law The articles engage critically with relevant traditional views to enable a diagnostic understanding of the different issues covering both Sunn and Sh perspectives on some of the issues for comparison The volume features an introductory overview of the subject as well as a comprehensive bibliography to aid further research Islamic legal theory is a complex subject which challenges the ingenuity of any expert and therefore special care has been taken to select articles for their clarity as well as their quality variety and critique to ensure an in depth engaging and easy understanding of what is normally a highly theoretical subject

The Different aspects of Islamic culture Ali, Abdulrahim,Thiam, Iba Der,Talib, Yusof A.,2016-10-17 This series of volumes on the manifold facets of Islamic culture is intended to acquaint a very wide public with the theological bases of its faith the status of the individual and of society in the Islamic world its expansion since the Revelation its cultural manifestations in literature and the arts and finally Islam today between loyalty to its past and the new challenges of modernity The last 100 years of Islamic history are examined in the final volume although the approach is thematic rather than historical The period considered has seen European colonialism in most of the Islamic world and Islam has played a major role in the initiation and organization of resistance movements We survey the groupings and forms of co operation that have arisen since liberation from colonialism and investigate the political necessity and the moral stand that underlie the unity of the Islamic peoples Social and economic progress is reviewed and space is devoted to such topics as the ongoing problem of Palestine moves towards educational reform and the status of women in Islam As the Islamic world cannot be imagined in isolation this volume examines the attitude of contemporary Islam towards other religions and cultures and considers efforts aimed at achieving mutual understanding and coexistence in both Muslim and non Muslim countries

Public Theology in Law and Life Paul Babie,Brian Edgar,David Wilson,2012-08-30 Public theology involves the application of biblical and theological principles outside the confines of the church and assesses their implications for wider society It examines both the theoretical structures of society the nature of secularity government globalisation pluralism and so forth and the myriad specific issues involved in daily life everything from sport to work place relations to economics Public theology is also very importantly a discipline that is practiced by the ordinary Christian as well as the academic and it is done in public with all the scrutiny that entails and in such a way that it communicates to non Christians although it remains a theological endeavour In a real sense it is theology for the world from the Word by the people of God The volume has a variety of contributors and includes an article on the role of public theology in Islam

Guardians of Faith in Modern Times Meir Hatina,2009 This collective volume provides an integrative historical and contemporary discussion of Sunni EulamaE3 4 in the Middle East in both an urban and a semi tribal context The various chapters reinforce a renewed interest in the position of the EulamaE3 4 in modern times and offer new insights as to their ideological vitality and contribution to the public discourse on moral and sociopolitical issues South Asian Religions Karen Pechilis, Selva J. Raj, 2013 The religious landscape of South Asia is complex and fascinating While existing literature tends to focus on the majority religions of Hinduism and Buddhism much less attention is given to Jainism Sikhism Islam or Christianity While not neglecting the majority traditions this valuable resource also explores the important role which the minority traditions play in the religious life of the subcontinent covering popular as well as elite expressions of religious faith By examining the realities of religious life and the ways in which the traditions are practised on the ground this book provides an illuminating introduction to religion in South Asia

Introduction to Islamic Civilization Roger Savory, 1976-05-28 Based on a successful series of adult education programmes broadcast on Canadian radio organised by members of the Department of Islamic Studies at the University of Toronto P 4 of cover Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, Library of Congress. Subject Cataloging Division, Library of Congress. Office for Subject Cataloging Policy, 2013 Islam as Political Religion Shabbir Akhtar, 2010-10-18 This book provides a survey of contemporary Islam from a theological and philosophical perspective Engaging with critics of contemporary Islam as he sets out an agenda of what his religion is and could be as a political entity the author tackles philosophical religious and political thinkers and covers a raft of issues faced by Muslims in an increasingly secular society

The Closing of the Muslim Mind Robert R. Reilly, 2023-06-20 Islam s Intellectual Suicide and the Threat to Us All People are shocked and frightened by the behavior coming out the Islamic world not only because it is violent but also because it is seemingly inexplicable While there are many answers to the question of what went wrong in the Muslim world no one has decisively answered why it went wrong Until now In this eye opening new book foreign policy expert Robert R Reilly uncovers the root of our contemporary crisis a pivotal struggle waged within the Muslim world nearly a millennium ago In a heated battle over the role of reason the side of irrationality won The deformed theology that resulted Reilly reveals produced the spiritual pathology of Islamism and a deeply dysfunctional culture Terrorism from 9 11 to London Madrid and Mumbai to the Christmas 2009 attempted airline bombing is the most obvious manifestation of this crisis But Reilly shows that the pathology extends much further The Closing of the Muslim Mind solves such puzzles as why peace is so elusive in the Middle East why the Arab world stands near the bottom of every measure of human development why scientific inquiry is nearly dead in the Islamic world why Spain translates more books in a single year than the entire Arab world has in the past thousand years why some people in Saudi Arabia still refuse to believe man has been to the moon why Muslim media frequently present natural disasters like Hurricane Katrina as God s direct retribution Delving deeper than previous polemics and simplistic analyses The Closing of the Muslim Mind provides the answers the West has so desperately needed in confronting the Islamist crisis Muslims Teresa Bernheimer, Andrew Rippin, 2013-03-01 Andrew Rippin s Muslims is essential reading for students and scholars alike This new edition has been comprehensively updated and for the first time features a companion website with extensive links to additional reading and resources to help deepen students understanding of the subject Muslims offers a survey of Islamic history and thought from the formative period of the religion to modern times It examines the unique elements which have combined to form Islam in particular the Qur n and the influence of Muhammad and traces the ways in which these sources have interacted historically to create Muslim theology and law as well as the alternative visions of Islam found in Shi ism and Sufi sm Combining core source materials with coverage of current scholarship and of recent events in the Islamic world Andrew Rippin introduces this hugely significant religion in a succinct challenging and refreshing way The improved and expanded fourth edition contains a new chapter on perceptions of Muslims today as well as a new series of text boxes to stimulate students thinking about essay topics and research projects Using a distinctive critical approach that promotes engagement with key issues from fundamentalism and women s rights to problems of identity Islamophobia and modernity this text is ideal for today s students The Directory of Graduate Studies ,1999 Miskawayh's Tahdīb al-ahlāq Ufuk Topkara,2022-06-14 This book engages with the work of Miskawayh a formative Islamic Philosopher in the 11th century who is acknowledged as the founder of Islamic Moral Philosophy Miskawayh s The Refinement of Character Tah b al A l q draws from both ancient Greek philosophical tradition and Islamic thought highlighting the concepts he integrated into what he argued to be the moral core of Islam This book pursues a comparative study by analyzing and outlining the inherent philosophical concerns of the Aristotelian concepts of Happiness Justice and Friendship which are then brought into conversation with Miskawayh s own conceptualizations of them While Tah b al A l q is deeply influenced by Aristotle s ethics Miskawayh employs not only a Platonizing interpretation of Aristotelian philosophy but also incorporates traditions of Islamic thought The study therefore concludes that Miskawayh is merely a transmitter of ancient Greek philosophy as shown by both his critical survey of the material available to him and his own critical contributions Essentially Miskawayh attempted to harmonize philosophical and religious concepts of knowledge demonstrating the interlinking of what are perceived as at times detrimentally incompatible positions Ufuk Topkara illustrates how Aristotle s Ethics are integrated modified and at times adjusted to the broader narrative of Islamic thought and how Miskawayh s discourse albeit philosophical in nature remains religious in its outlook Providing clear insight into Miskawayh s work this book is ideal for students and scholars of Islamic Philosophy and Muslim Theology Intent in Islamic Law Paul R. Powers,2006 This is the first broad study of the treatment of intent in Islamic law examining ritual commercial family and penal law and providing new insights into Muslim understandings of law religious ritual action agency and language Library of Congress Subject Headings: F-O Library of Congress.
