Johannes Ehrat, SJ, 2011-03-05 Are there events that are inherently scandalous Power of Scandal finds that the very idea of scandal is derived not from an event but from public opinion which in turn is construed by media narratives Scandal is powerful because of its ability to challenge institutions by destabilizing their legitimacy The media plays an integral role in the creation of scandal because it interprets real events as purposeful actions for the public Examining the ubiquity of scandals in today s mass media Johannes Ehrat s conclusions are fresh and surprising Ehrat applies classic semiotic and pragmatic thought to contemporary media issues mainly moralist discourse from sex abuse cases to the phenomenon of televangelism Arguing that sociological and communications studies of scandal have ignored the media s constructed nature Ehrat focuses on how meaningful public narrative is produced By examining the parallel worlds of media and public opinion Power of Scandal uses an alternative heuristic for understanding mass communication that is both rigorous and sophisticated The Bishop, the Mullah, and the Smartphone Bryan Winters, 2015-05-01 Not so long ago the world resisted change often using religious reasoning Small wonder the printing press a sixteenth century disruptive device split Christianity Now the globe welcomes digital disruption even praising it as a solution for faltering economies Religions don t have much choice but to follow because information is a prime asset of faith Believers treasure and reframe their past and present However both old and current data is now available in huge quantities visually and instantly Movies provide more spiritual guidance than holy texts and terror merchants use the uncontrollable Internet to gain hearts and minds Nevertheless a turbulent re mythologization of adherents towards peaceful versions of their belief can be tracked There are positive things we can all do to help which is just as well in a world that suggests only political acts count Doing More with Life Michael Robert Miller, 2007 Vocation is most often linked with a specific calling for those in professional ministry Doing More with Life explores the way higher education can expand this limited understanding of vocation Specifically this volume shows that higher education can clarify how God calls all people allow mentoring across specific vocations and inspire future generations to think of their lives as vocations Perspectives on Science and Christian Faith , 1998 Canadian Philosophical Reviews , 1997 Comptes Rendus Philosophiques , 1997 International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature The International Who s Who of Authors and Writers offers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters Christian Scholar's Review , 1997
