Religious Education in German Schools Ernst C. Helmreich, 1990-03 The Transformation of German Jewry, 1780-1840 David Sorkin, David Jan Sorkin, 1999 This study analyzes the transformation of German Jewry in the period from 1780 1840 in order to explain why the nature of the most visible Jewry in modern Europe remained essentially invisible to its own members and to subsequent generations German Jewry was the most visible of the modern European Jewries because in its history all of the hallmarks of modernity seemed to have converged in their fullest and most volatile forms The Transformation of German Jewry 1780 1840 thoroughly explores this period of time when large numbers of Jews were integrated into a non Jewish society Sorkin examines the revolution of German Jewry through the study of journals sermons novels and theological popularizations that constituted this new German Jewish public sphere This study may also be applied beyond the confines of Jewish history for it is a study in the afterlife of the German Enlightenment the Aufkl rung in the culture of liberalism German History from the Margins Neil Gregor, Nils Roemer, Mark Roseman, 2006-06-14 German History from the Margins offers new ways of thinking about ethnic and religious minorities and other outsiders in modern German history Many established paradigms of German history are challenged by the contributors new and often provocative findings including evidence of the striking cosmopolitanism of Germany s 19th century eastern border communities German Jewry s sophisticated appropriation of the discourse of tribe and race the unexpected absence of antisemitism in Weimar s campaign against smut the Nazi embrace of purportedly Jewish sexual behavior and post war West Germany s struggles with ethnic and racial minorities despite its avowed liberalism Germany s minorities have always been active partners in defining what it is to be German and even after 1945 despite the legacy of the Nazis murderous destructiveness German society continues to be characterized by ethnic and cultural diversity German Elementary Education from 1890 to 1945 Katharine Kennedy, 2025-09-01 In this innovative analysis of German elementary education Katharine Kennedy uses textbooks curricula and pedagogical texts to trace continuities and changes in the lessons taught in the elementary schools of Wilhelmine Weimar and Nazi Germany Children in all three periods were exposed to recurring texts that reinforced attachment to God region and fatherland However they also encountered evolving symbols of the nation and shifting ideas about the identity of Germany and the German people By blending lessons on Hitler race and heredity with traditional narratives Nazi education conveyed its ideology under the cloak of virtue patriotism and normality It provides a compelling example of how a dictatorship manipulates religion and tradition to legitimize a brutal lawless and racist regime Religious Knowledge and Positioning David Käbis, Kerstin von der Krone, Christian Wiese, 2023-11-06 What should one know in order to position oneself vis vis other religions and confessions What is religious knowledge and how should it be taught This volume sheds light on educational media in Judaism and Christianity such as catechisms children s bibles and sermons as well as Jewish and Protestant teacher training in 19th century Germany and explores the methodological potentials of educational media as a source for inter religious history It reflects on broader processes of knowledge production and the impact of science and scholarship on religious education and knowledge production within Christian and Jewish contexts The volume draws on an interdisciplinary conference that took place in 2018 and brought together scholars associated with two transdisciplinary research projects The German Israeli research group Innovation through Tradition Jewish Educational Media and Cultural Transformation in the Face of Modernity associated with the German Historical Institute Washington and Tel Aviv University funded by the German Research Foundation DFG 2014 2019 and the LOEWE research hub Religious Positioning Modalities and Constellations in Jewish Christian and Muslim Contexts at Goethe University Frankfurt and Justus Liebig University Giessen funded by the Hessian Ministry of Science and Art 2015 2021
