Dictionary of the English Language, Unabridged ,1961 The Greening of Faith John E. Carroll,Paul

Brockelman,2016-10-04 The recent release of Pope Francis s much discussed encyclical on the environment Laudato Si On Care for Our Common Home has reinforced environmental issues as also moral and spiritual issues This anthology twenty years ahead of the encyclical but very much in line with its agenda offers essays by fifteen philosophers theologians and environmentalists who argue for a response to ecology that recognizes the tools of science but includes a more spiritual approach one with a more humanistic holistic view based on inherent reverence toward the natural world Writers whose orientations range from Buddhism to evangelical Christianity to Catholicism to Native American beliefs explore ways to achieve this paradigm shift and suggest that the environment is not only a spiritual issue but the spiritual issue of our time

A Greener Faith Roger S. Gottlieb,2006-06-15 In a time of darkening environmental prospects frightening religious fundamentalism and moribund liberalism the remarkable and historically unprecedented rise of religious environmentalism is a profound source of hope In A Greener Faith Roger S Gottlieb chronicles the promises of this critically important movement illuminating its principal ideas leading personalities and ways of connecting care for the earth with justice for human beings He also shows how religious environmentalism breaks the customary boundaries of religious issues in political life Asserting that environmental degradation is sacrilegious sinful and an offense against God catapults religions directly into questions of social policy economic and moral priorities and the overall direction of secular society Gottlieb contends that a spiritual perspective applied to the Earth provides the environmental movement with a uniquely appropriate way to voice its dream of a sustainable and just world Equally important it helps develop a world making political agenda that far exceeds interest group politics applied to forests and toxic incinerators Rather religious environmentalism offers an all inclusive vision of what human beings are and how we should treat each other and the rest of life Gottlieb deftly analyzes the growing synthesis of the movement s religious social and political aspects as well as the challenges it faces in consumerism fundamentalism and globalization Highly engaging and passionately argued this book is an indispensable resource for people of faith environmentalists scholars and anyone who is concerned about our planet s future Pollution and the Death of Man

Francis August Schaeffer,1970 Integral Ecology and the Fullness of Life Anthony J. Kelly,2018 Explores the horizon in which a new sense of conscious connections with the biosphere of this earth the encompassing cosmic reality and the singularity of Christian revelation might come to expression Is It Too Late? John B. Cobb Jr.,2021-04-20 In the fifty years since its initial publication Is It Too Late has proven its prescience in ways both significant and dire As the first book length philosophical and theological analysis of the environmental crisis this work introduced a generation to the key elements of crisis while suggesting ways that religion can be a force for hope rather than an instrument of despair Covering an ambitious range of issues from deforestation to abortion from religious views of the natural world to the need for technological innovation to avoid nature's destruction John Cobb moves deftly from philosophical to theological to scientific learning and integrates these interdisciplinary insights into a compelling vision for what he calls a new Christianity Comprehensive in scope non technical in expression and concise in length Is It Too Late provides the scholar and the student alike with a readable and compelling orientation to the philosophical and theological stakes of ecology This Fortress edition includes a new preface in which Cobb reflects on the current situation the specific promises and perils we now face and how his own thinking on matters theological and ecological has evolved in the last half century The Earth in God's Economy E. M. Conradie, 2015 Ecological destruction is taking place on such a scale that it prompts the need to make sense of the world in which we live and of this moment in history This study explores the ecological significance of seeing the world as the whole household of the triune God and more specifically in terms of God's acts of house holding economy including creation salvation and eschatological consummation Series Studies in Religion and the Environment Studien zur Religion und Umwelt Vol 10 Subject Religious Studies Environmental Studies Ecology Garbage Theology Caleb Haynes, 2021-10-12 What if you looked out your window and saw Jesus going through your trash can Would that surprise you The greatest illusion of our time comes in the form of waste From landfills to micro trash to invisible emissions to imperceivable pollutants to the factories and shores we never see it's all hidden away from our sight However the harmful effects of this global wastefulness reaches far and wide It's touching the lives of everyone you love every place you've been and every single thing you can imagine So what if God is actually very interested in your waste What if your faith requires a greater awareness about the things you eat buy and throw away Could it be that your salvation is tied to all of God's creation and that you have the opportunity to join God's work of restoration While addressing the environmental challenges of our time Garbage Theology seeks to connect our Biblical call to keep and serve creation with how we live our lives today Through personal stories extracted from years of working in the trash and recycling industry while pastoring a local church author Caleb Cray Haynes introduces and examines a theology of waste through the lens of Scripture and our story as the people of God in the context of our current global waste emergency Nature and the Environment in Contemporary Religious Contexts Thomas Donlin-Smith, Muhammad Shafiq, 2018-06-11 This collection of essays discusses the human relationship with and responsibilities toward the natural environment from the perspective of religions and the social sciences The chapters examine a variety of conditions that have contributed to the contemporary environmental crisis including abuse of power economic greed industrialization deforestation and unplanned waste management They then discuss concepts from several different religious texts and traditions that promote environmental protection as a sacred moral duty for all humanity

Religious concepts such as dharma duty toward Mother Earth tikkun Olam repair of the world khalifa people as deputies of God on earth amanah the universe as a trust in human hands and paticca samuppada dependent co arising are employed to argue that all the components of the biosphere are integral to the cosmos each piece with its own value and role in the harmony of the whole The book makes it clear that religions can become more green and play a helpful role in raising our ecological consciousness and supporting preservation of the environment into the future

Green Like God Jonathan Merritt, 2010-04-21 In GREEN LIKE GOD Jonathan Merritt gently and insightfully observes that the bible has a lot to say about environmental problems like unclean water material waste over consumption air pollution and global warming In fact Jonathan writes that in the book of Genesis God went green and never looked back Relying heavily on scripture Jonathan gives the case for green living but not because it s trendy and hip Rather it s part of living rightly as a believer It s an act of obedience to our Creator God GREEN LIKE GOD is at once practical prescriptive and conversational in tone The author looks at a number of trends with tips to help the reader wade into the world of creation care living An appendix includes suggestions of things we can do In addition the book includes interviews with everyday Christians to tell the story of the journey to environmental stewardship among people of faith This is the book that Christians are longing for and need today Written for a new generation of Christians who are struggling with how to deal with the important issue of creation care and green living GREEN LIKE GOD is both highly relevant and theologically sound It will have a profound impact on how Christians live and interact with the world today

Visions of a New Earth Harold Coward, Daniel C. Maguire, 1999-11-04 One of the most significant topics of our time is the current eco crisis of overpopulation overconsumption often called affluenza and environmental degradation In Visions of a New Earth eight world religion scholars and two creative international economists address these linked problems by bringing religious perspective into conversation with economics They conclude that religion and other cultural forces must be mobilized to force humankind toward an epochal birthing of bio reverence Traditions discussed include Christianity Judaism Islam Buddhism Hinduism and Chinese Native American and African religions Contributors include Nawal H Ammar Harold Coward Rita M Gross Catherine Keller Paul F Knitter David C Korten David R Loy Daniel C Maguire Alberto M Nera S J Vasudha Narayanan Jacob K Olupona Ch n fang Y and Laurie Zoloth

EcoActivist Testament H. Paul Santmire, 2022-06-24 Ecoactivist Testament is written for those who are now at the front lines of discipleship in this era of planetary emergency especially for those who sometimes feel spiritually isolated or exhausted In this forthright and plainspoken book longtime Christian ecojustice activist and well known ecological theologian H Paul Santmire inspired by the witness of Saint Francis of Assisi tells a powerful personal story as he explores the riches of a biblically informed theological vision of God s love for the whole creation This engaging first person narrative will appeal both to faith based ecoactivists of long standing and to those who are pondering this calling for the first time

Life Abundant Sallie McFague, 2001 In lucid prose she offers creative discussions of how a planetary theology might approach our contemporary socioeconomic context and rethink classical topics of God and the world Christ and salvation and life in the Spirit BOOK JACKET
