Religious Imagination And The Body A Feminist Analysis:

Religious Imagination and the Body Paula M. Cooley, 1994 Offering a feminist perspective on the significance of the body in the context of religious life and practice this treatise examines the evidence ranging from the novels of Toni Morrison to the paintings of Frida Kahlo

Resurrecting Erotic Transgression Anita Monro, 2016-06-16 Resurrecting Erotic Transgression presents a feminist theological methodology based on the work of Julia Kristeva This methodology provides the means for subjecting ambiguity bringing to theology a recognition of the multiplicity of language and identity A method of poetic reading is proposed with a three stage process articulation of the dualities present in and around a focal discourse subversion of these dualities through a range of strategies and the re presentation of the discourse emphasising its ambiguous nature The hermeneutical method of poetic reading is explored in relation to three biblical texts and an image of the otherness of God as whore

Scarring the Black Body Carol E. Henderson, 2002 Scarring and the act of scarring are recurrent images in African American literature In Scarring the Black Body Carol E Henderson analyzes the cultural and historical implications of scarring in a number of African American texts that feature the trope of the scar including works by Sherley Anne Williams Toni Morrison Ann Petry Ralph Ellison and Richard Wright The first part of Scarring the Black Body The Call traces the process by which African bodies were Americanized through the practice of branding Henderson incorporates various materials from advertisements for the return of runaways to slave narratives to examine the cultural practice of writing the body She also considers way in which writers and social activists including Frederick Douglass Olaudah Equiano Harriet Tubman and Sojourner Truth developed a call centered on the body s scars to demand that people of African descent be given equal rights and protection under the law

Hell Hath No Fury Meghan Henning, 2021-01-01 The first major book to examine ancient Christian literature on hell through the lenses of gender and disability studies Enthralling engaging and challenging Henning has successfully given hell the right sort of attention at last filling a major gap in the story and simultaneously charting new territory Jarel Robinson Brown Los Angeles Review of Books Throughout the Christian tradition descriptions of hell s fiery torments have shaped contemporary notions of the afterlife divine justice and physical suffering But rarely do we consider the roots of such conceptions which originate in a group of understudied ancient texts the early Christian apocalypses In this pioneering study Meghan Henning illuminates how the bodies that populate hell in early Christian literature largely those of women enslaved persons and individuals with disabilities are punished after death in spaces that mirror real carceral spaces effectually criminalizing those bodies on earth Contextualizing the apocalypses alongside ancient medical texts inscriptions philosophy and patristic writings this book demonstrates the ways that Christian depictions of hell intensified and preserved ancient notions of gender and bodily normativity that continue to inform Christian identity

The Women and War Reader Lois Ann Lorentzen, Jennifer E. Turpin, 1998-07 Women play many roles during wartime This compelling study brings together the work of foremost scholars on women and war to

Coming Full Circle Suzanne Crawford O'Brien, 2020-02-17 Coming Full Circle is an interdisciplinary exploration of the relationships between spirituality and health in several contemporary Coast Salish and Chinook communities in western Washington from 1805 to 2005 Suzanne Crawford O'Brien examines how these communities define what it means to be healthy and how recent tribal community based health programs have applied this understanding to their missions and activities She also explores how contemporary definitions goals and activities relating to health and healing are informed by Coast Salish history and also by indigenous spiritual views of the body which are based on an understanding of the relationship between self ecology and community Coming Full Circle draws on a historical framework in reflecting on contemporary tribal health care efforts and the ways in which they engage indigenous healing traditions alongside twenty first century biomedicine The book makes a strong case for the current shift toward tribally controlled care arguing that local culturally distinct ways of healing and understanding illness must be a part of contemporary Native healthcare Combining in depth archival research extensive ethnographic participant based field work and skillful scholarship on theories of religion and embodiment Crawford O'Brien offers an original and masterful analysis of contemporary Native Americans and their worldviews

A Centre of Wonders Janet Moore Lindman, Michele Lise Tarter, 2018-05-31 Images of bodies and bodily practices abound in early America from spirit possession Fasting Days and infanticide to running the gauntlet going naked as a sign flogging bundling and scalping All have implications for the study of gender sexuality masculinity illness the body politic spirituality race and slavery The first book devoted solely to the history and theory of the body in early American cultural studies brings together authors representing diverse academic disciplines Drawing on a wide range of archival sources including itinerant ministers journals Revolutionary tracts and broadsides advice manuals and household inventories they approach the theoretical analysis of the body in exciting new ways A Centre of Wonders covers such varied topics as dance and movement among Native Americans invading witch bodies in architecture and household spaces rituals of baptism conversion and church discipline eighteenth century women's journaling and the body as a rhetorical device in the language of diplomacy

Terror and Triumph Anthony B. Pinn, 2022-07-26 Given the unique history of African Americans and their diverse religious flowering in Black Christianity the Nation of Islam voodoo and others what is the heart and soul of African American religious life As a leader in both Black religious studies and theology Anthony Pinn has probed the dynamism and variety of African American religious expressions In this work based on the Edward Cadbury Lectures at the University of Birmingham England he searches out the basic structure of Black religion tracing the Black religious spirit in its many historical manifestations Pinn finds in the terrors of enslavement of Black bodies and subsequent oppressions the primal experience to which the Black religious impulse provides a perennial and cumulative response Oppressions entailed the denial of personhood and creation of an object the negro Slave auctions punishments and later lynchings created an existential dread but also evoked a quest a search for complex subjectivity or authentic personhood that still fuels Black religion today In this 20th anniversary edition of Pinn s groundbreaking work the author offers a new reflection on the argument in retrospect and invites a panel of five contemporary scholars to examine what it means for current and future scholarship Contributors include Keri Day Sylvester Johnson Anthony G Reddie Calvin Warren and Carol Wayne White

Marks of His Wounds Beth Felker Jones,2007-04-12 It is a central tenet of Christian theology that we will be resurrected in our bodies at the last day But we have been conditioned writes Beth Felker Jones to think of salvation as being about anything but the body We think that what God wants for us has to do with our thoughts our hearts or our interior relationships In popular piety and academic theology alike strong spiritualizing tendencies influence our perception of the body Historically some theologians have denigrated the body as an obstacle to sanctification This notion is deeply problematic for feminist ethics which centers on embodiment Jones s purpose is to devise a theology of the body that is compatible with feminist politics Human creatures must be understood as psychosomatic unities she says on analogy with the union of Christ s human and divine natures She offers close readings of Augustine and Calvin to find a better way of speaking about body and soul that is consonant with the doctrine of bodily resurrection She addresses several important questions What does human psychosomatic unity imply for the theological conceptualization of embodied difference especially gendered difference How does embodied hope transform our present bodily practices How does God's momentous yes to the body in the Incarnation both judge and destroy the corrupt ways we have thought produced constructed and even broken bodies in our culture especially bodies marked by race and gender Jones's book articulates a theology of human embodiment in light of resurrection doctrine and feminist political concerns Through reading Augustine and Calvin she points to resources for understanding the body in a way that coheres with the doctrine of the resurrection of the flesh Jones proposes a grammar in which human psychosomatic unity becomes the conceptual basis for sanctification Using gender as an illustration she interrogates the difference resurrection doctrine makes for holiness Because death has been overcome in Christ's resurrected body human embodiment can bear witness to the Triune God The bodily resurrection makes sense of our bodies of what they are and what they are for God's Mother, Eve's Advocate Tina Beattie, 2002-09-15 The focus of Beattie's book on the theology of woman is to discern the place of the female body in the Christian story of salvation and she has done so from the very heart of Christian stylisations of the female the figures of Mary and Eve

Caring for Joy: Narrative, Theology, and Practice Mary Clark Moschella, 2016-09-07 In Caring for Joy: Narrative Theology and Practice Mary Clark Moschella offers a new account of the value of joy in caregiving vocations demonstrating how the work of caring for persons communities and the world need not be a dreary endeavor overwhelmed by crises or undermined by despair Moschella presents glimpses of joy in action in the narratives of five notable figures Heidi Neumark Henri Nouwen Gregory Boyle Pauli Murray and Paul Farmer gleaned their wisdom for the construction of a theology of joy that embodies compassion connection justice and freedom Care must be deep enough to hold human suffering and spacious enough to take in the divine goodness beauty and love This book expands the pastoral theological imagination and narrates joy full approaches to transformational care This work is a scholarly engaging and compassionate call to reconsider the significance of joyful living and joyful lives in radical pastoral theology Heather Walton University of Glasgow President of the International Academy of Practical Theology July 2016 Based on biographies interviews and life stories Mary Clark Moschella presents joy as a counter cultural emotion as a spiritual path and as a fruit of the Spirit In her research joy and reason are not ultimately opposed Jeanne Stevenson Moessner Professor of Pastoral Care Perkins School of Theology Southern Methodist University July 2016 This highly readable and compelling theology of joy will inspire you to explore how joy might energize your vocation especially caregiving vocations that use narrative approaches to spiritual care and pastoral counseling I plan on using this book as a textbook in my theodicy grief death and dying and vocational courses Carrie Doehring Professor of Pastoral Care and Counseling Iliff School of Theology Denver August 2016 Mary Moschella has given us a rare text one that is theologically rich intellectually sophisticated drenched in pastoral wisdom and beautifully written She gives us a pastoral theology attuned to the realities of diversity and sensitive to the complex challenges facing those who live constantly interface with suffering There is simply nothing else like this book in pastoral care Willie James Jennings Professor of Systematic Theology and Africana Studies Yale University August 2016

Foucault and Religion Jeremy Carrette, 2002-09-11 Foucault and Religion is the first major study of Michel Foucault in relation and response to Religion Jeremy Carrette offers us a challenging new look at Foucault's work and addresses a religious dimension that has previously been neglected We see that prior to Foucault's infamous unpublished volume in the History of Sexuality on the theme of Christianity there is a complex religious sub text which anticipates this final unseen work Jeremy Carrette argues that Foucault offers a twofold critique of Christianity by bringing the body and sexuality into religious practice and exploring a political spirituality of the self He shows us that Foucault's creation of a body theology through the death of God reveals how religious beliefs reflect the sexual body questions the notion of a mystical archaeology and exposes the political technology of confession Anyone interested in understanding Foucault's thought in a new light will find this book a truly fascinating read

Three Decades of Engendering History Antonia I. Castaneda, 2014-12-15 For over three decades the work of Antonia I Castaneda has shaped the fields of Western History and Chicana Studies From her early articles on Chicana representation and political economy to her most recent work mapping gendered violence and gendered resistance in the history of the U S Southwest her work is consistently taught in classrooms and cited extensively Yet Castaneda's work has been scattered throughout journals and anthologies a paper chase for historians to track down Three Decades of Engendering History ends the chase This volume edited by Linda Heidenreich collects ten of Castaneda's best articles including the widely circulated article Engendering the History of Alta California 1769-1848 in which she took a direct and honest look at sex and gender relations in colonial California Demonstrating that there is no romantic past to which we can turn she exposed stories of violence against women as well as stories of survival and resistance Other articles included are the prize winning Women of Color and the Rewriting of Western History and two recent articles Lullabies y Canciones de Cuna and La Despedida The latter two represent Castaneda's most recent work excavating mapping and bringing forth the long and strong post WWII history of Tejanas Finally the volume includes three interviews with Antonia Castaneda conducted by Luz Mar a Gordillo that contribute the important narrative of her lived experiences political perspective her commitment to initiate and develop scholarship that highlights gender and Chicanas as a legitimate line of inquiry and her drive to center Chicanas as historical subjects

A Taste of God T. van den Hoogen, 2011 In the course of the 20th century a new worldview has arisen in Western society and culture that is defined in this book as immanent mysticism Several major philosophers are sensitive to such a sense of immanent mysticism The same sensitivity is noticeable in the works of poets painters and other artists It expresses the desire for transforming the way to meaningful living A Taste of God shows that theological research programs are innovated by insights from aesthetics and studies of spirituality The book's research indicates that contemporary Western culture requires a reframing of foundational theology Series Nijmegen Studies in Theology Vol 3
