Remarkable Modernisms Contemporary American Authors On Modern Art:

Remarkable Modernisms Daniel Morris, 2009-06 For the authors discussed in Remarkable Modernisms poets John Yau Charles Simic and Mark Strand and novelists Ann Beattie and Joyce Carol Oates writing about modern art not only helps to illuminate the work of the artist but also serves as a stimulus to verbal self-portraiture By revealing as much about their own lives and works as they do about the visual objects reviewed pieces for example by Jasper Johns Andy Warhol Joseph Cornell Alex Katz Edward Hopper and George Bellows the authors studied by Daniel Morris extend the scope of their analysis In all five cases writing about art becomes a critical inquiry into the nature of public acts of witnessing and private acts of seeing and not seeing While challenging older rigidly formalist approaches these authors also diverge from the strictly contextual approaches favored by many contemporary academic critics As poets and novelists they remain sensitive to the value of compositional techniques when they address a visual artifact and they reject the shibboleth of content versus formalist approaches to art They reveal that this dichotomy fails to account for the semantics of form the interwoven relationship between the how and the what of a work of art Indebted to visual art as a basis for their own compositional discoveries in words these authors writings on art have the effect of turning pictures into a language that extends our frame of reference beyond the flat surface of the picture plane to each author's version of contemporary society as social text

Not Born Digital Daniel Morris, 2018-01-25 Not Born Digital addresses from multiple perspectives ethical historical psychological conceptual aesthetic the vexing problems and sublime potential of disseminating lyrics the ancient form of transmission and preservation of the human voice in an environment in which e poetry and digitalized poetics pose a crisis understood as opportunity and threat to traditional page poetry The premise of Not Born Digital is that the innovative contemporary poets studied in this book engage obscure and discarded but nonetheless historically resonant materials to unsettle what Charles Bernstein a leading innovative contemporary U S poet and critic of official verse culture refers to as frame lock and tone jam While other scholars have begun to analyze poetry that appears in new media contexts Not Born Digital concerns the ambivalent ways page poets rather than electronica based poets have grappled with screen memory that is electronic and new media sources through the re purposing of found materials

Cooper,2022-10-01 Eleanor Dark 1901 85 is one of Australia s most innovative 20th century writers Her extensive oeuvre includes ten novels published from the early 1930s to the late 1950s and represents a significant engagement with global modernity from a unique position within settler culture Yet Dark s contribution to 20th century literature has been undervalued in the fields of both Australian literary studies and world literature Although two biographies have been written about her life there has been no book length critical study of her writing published since 1976 Middlebrow Modernism counters this neglect by providing the first full length critical survey of Eleanor Dark s writing to be published in over four decades Focusing on the fiction that Dark produced during the interwar years and reading this in the context of her larger body of work this book positions Dark s writing as important to the study of Australian literature and global modernism Melinda Cooper argues that Dark s fiction exhibits a distinctive aesthetic of middlebrow modernism which blends attributes of literary modernism with popular fiction It seeks to mediate and reconcile apparent binaries modernism and mass culture liberal humanism and experimental aesthetics settler society and international modernity The term middlebrow modernism also captures the way Dark negotiated cosmopolitan commitments with more place based attachments to nation and local community within the mid 20th century Middlebrow Modernism posits that Dark s fiction and the broader phenomenon of Australian modernism offer essential case studies for larger debates operating within global modernist and world literature studies providing perspectives these fields might otherwise miss
