"Who Set You Flowin'?" Farah Jasmine Griffin, 1996-09-26 Twentieth century America has witnessed the most widespread and sustained movement of African Americans from the South to urban centers in the North Who Set You Flowin examines the impact of this dislocation and urbanization identifying the resulting Migration Narratives as a major genre in African American cultural production Griffin takes an interdisciplinary approach with readings of several literary texts migrant correspondence painting photography rap music blues and rhythm and blues From these various sources Griffin isolates the

tropes of Ancestor Stranger and Safe Space which though common to all Migration Narratives vary in their portrayal She argues that the emergence of a dominant portrayal of these tropes is the product of the historical and political moment often challenged by alternative portrayals in other texts or artistic forms as well as intra textually Richard Wright's bleak yet cosmopolitan portraits were countered by Dorothy West's longing for Black Southern communities Ralph Ellison while continuing Wright's vision reexamined the significance of Black Southern culture Griffin concludes with Toni Morrison embracing the South as a site of African American history and culture a place to be redeemed A Taste of Heritage Alma Hogan Snell, 2006-01-01 A collection of Crow recipes age old plant medicines and healing remedies This work imparts the lore of ages along with the traditional Crow philosophy of healing and detailed practical advice for finding and harvesting plants Simply Living Well Julia Watkins, 2020 Easy recipes DIY projects and other ideas for living a beautiful and low waste life from the expert behind simply living well on Instagram
