observant and profound Calcutta is a personal account of two years 2009-2011 spent in one of the least known yet greatest cities of our time by one of our leading novelists Using the historic elections of 2011 as a fulcrum Chaudhuri looks back to the nineteenth century when the city burst with a new vitality and towards the twenty first when utterly changed it seems to be on the verge of another turn Along the way he evokes all that is most particular and extraordinary From the homeless and the working class to the old declining haute bourgeois from the new malls and hotels to old houses being destroyed by developers from politicians on their way out to the city's fitful attempts to embrace globalisation Calcutta brings a multifarious universe to life
