Defender of the Underdog Harvey Ferguson,2023-10-01 In 1932 the worst year of the Great Depression more than twenty thousand mostly homeless World War I veterans trekked to the nation s capital to petition Congress to grant them early payment of a promised bonus The Hoover Administration and the local government urged Washington DC police chief Pelham Glassford to forcefully drive this bonus army out of the city Instead he defied both governments for months and found food and shelter for the veterans until Congress voted on their request Glassford s efforts to persuade federal and local officials to deal sympathetically with the protesters were ultimately in vain but his proposed solutions though disregarded by his supervisors demonstrate that compassion and empathy could be more effective ways of dealing with radical protests than violent suppression
