Domination and Emancipation Daniel Benson, 2021-11-01 A melancholy defeatism has become a hallmark of critical thought and leftist politics A consequence of this has been an exaggerated focus on domination among critical theorists leaving emancipation along with questions of political organization and strategy undertheorized at best or disregarded as delusional at worst If emancipation still plays a role in critical reflection it is most often in a domesticated form made into a bedfellow of centrist liberalism Recent events necessitate a different outlook especially since the financial collapse of 2008 and the myriad movements emancipatory as much as reactionary it has spawned throughout the world Through a series of dialogues and reflections by leading thinkers scholars and activists Domination and Emancipation Remaking Critique seeks to rebuild the emancipatory pole of critique and bring forward theoretical work that is in step with the struggles and aspirations of the moment
